THANK YOU, KANSAS CITY!

On behalf of the entire Chiefs organization, we invite you to join us in celebrating 40 years of professional football in Kansas City throughout the calendar year. Since Mayor Roe Bartle spearheaded our arrival in 1963, the Chiefs franchise has flourished in Mid-America thanks primarily to your tremendous fan support. From our beginning American Football League efforts in the old Municipal Stadium, the Chiefs have evolved into a solid part of the Kansas City community and today's National Football League. You create the most energetic stadium in all of sports, and we believe the Chiefs fans truly embody the spirit and passion of the place we call Arrowhead - Home of the Chiefs.

Thank you for 40 wonderful years, Kansas City!

Lamar Hunt
Founder

On April 25, 2002 members of the Chiefs organization took to streets to thank their faithful supporters for 40 years of support in Kansas City. Members of the inaugural squad in Kansas City – the 1963 Chiefs – joined Founder Lamar Hunt, President Carl Peterson, Coach Dick Vermeil, current members of the Chiefs and the Chiefs Cheerleaders on their trek to thank their fans in different metro areas. Notable stops along the way included the General Motors Fairfax Assembly Plant in Kansas City, Kansas, the headquarters of Sprint and Yellow Freight, The Country Club Plaza, Downtown, Crown Center and Union Station. Pictured clockwise from the upper left are shots of three of the four groups who participated in the event. Dick and Carol Vermeil headlined The Country Club Plaza group, while Len Dawson led the Downtown contingent. Hunt led a Chiefs "team" to the GM plant where Tony Richardson (49) and former Chiefs player and assistant coach Walt Corey (56) were among the many members of the Chiefs organization greeting the Fairfax UAW "team." A sincere "thank you" to all who made this a special day in Kansas City.

ON THE COVER

The cover of the 2002 Kansas City Chiefs Media Guide celebrates the Chiefs 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City. Local artist Jerry Hirt has skillfully highlighted seven Kansas City landmarks via a pen and ink process using original photography courtesy of Chiefs Team Photographer Hank Young. The centerpiece depicts The Scout - a sculpture by Cyrus E. Dallin which has overlooked downtown since 1922. The other stylish stops on Hirt's civic tour include Bartle Hall, the anchor of Kansas City's Convention Center named in honor of the late Mayor H. Roe Bartle. Moving clockwise, we visit The Power & Light Building, one of the best examples of Art Deco design in the Midwest. The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art boasts many works of distinction, including the outdoor sculpture "Shuttlecocks." The Country Club Plaza is a prime example of why Kansas City has earned a reputation as "The City of Fountains." Union Station and Liberty Memorial have recently returned to their past glory after undergoing massive restoration projects. Union Station reopened in 1999, while Liberty Memorial - one of the nation's great World War I monuments - was officially rededicated on Memorial Day weekend of 2002. We hope these images evoke the same sense of civic pride that helped bring professional football to Kansas City in 1963. Cover concept by Pete Moris of the Chiefs. FOUNDER

LAMAR HUNT

The National Football League marks its 83rd season of competition in 2002, but more importantly for Chiefs fans, this year also denotes the 40th Anniversary Season of professional football in Kansas City. Appropriately, the individual spearheading the year-long commemorative celebration of 40 years of Chiefs football in Mid-America is none other than the man who brought the franchise to Kansas City in '63, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt.

Hunt, who is beginning his 43rd year of involvement with the game of pro football in 2002, has commissioned a season-long series of "Thank You, Kansas City!" events to express the team's gratitude for the tremendous support the city's fans have provided the franchise for 40 seasons. Beginning as a member of the American Football League playing in old Municipal Stadium, the Chiefs have evolved into a solid part of the Kansas City community and today's National Football League thanks to the unprecedented support provided by the team's legions of loyal supporters. Today, the Home of the Chiefs — Arrowhead Stadium, is a place which truly embodies the spirit and the passion of one of the most energetic fan bases in all of sports.

Whether it was serving as the driving force behind the formation of the American Football League in late '59, playing a pivotal role in the AFL-NFL merger in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise during the past four decades, there is little question that few individuals have helped positively change the face of America's favorite game as much as Hunt.

As the organizer of the American Football League, Hunt brought together the whimsically-named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners in '59, and helped the fledgling league take foot on the field for the '60 season. On June 8th of '66, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and on January 15th of '67, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl. Hunt's continuing efforts have long been recognized as having an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

As the Founder of the Chiefs franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City with a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL and earned spots in two of the first four Super Bowls, climaxed by winning the '69 World Championship in Super Bowl IV. As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of professional football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming by the league of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

Hunt's participation in the organization of the AFL was recognized when he became the first AFL figure to be honored with enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio. That honor was extended in the summer of '72, remarkable considering he became involved in pro football just 13 years earlier. In honor of the 30th anniversary of the Chiefs victory in Super Bowl IV, Hunt was chosen to perform the official coin toss for Super Bowl XXXIV between St. Louis and Tennessee. Ironically, the winning coach that day was current Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil.

During the summer and fall of '59, Hunt helped make pro football history by organizing the American Football League, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization begins its 40th season this year. He was deeply involved in the construction of Arrowhead Stadium, a facility which celebrated its 30th Anniversary Season in 2001. Still considered among the finest sports venues in the world, Arrowhead has hosted numerous major non-NFL sporting events in recent years, most notably a 2001 Men's World Cup Qualifier (U.S.A. vs. Costa Rica), the 2000 Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game (Oklahoma vs. Kansas State), the 2000 Eddie Robinson Classic (Kansas State vs. Iowa) and a 2000 Women's Nike Cup Match (U.S.A. vs. Canada). Arrowhead is also slated to host the 2002 Eddie Robinson Classic (Florida State vs. Iowa State), a 2002 blockbuster NCAA Division II contest between local powerhouses Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State, as well as the 2003 Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled but Hunt saw his Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs during the league's 10-year existence. The team repeated as champions in both '66 and '69. By winning the '66 AFL title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL Champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

In '82, Hunt was singled out by the NFL Alumni Association to receive the prestigious Leather Helmet Award and in February of '93, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Football Club for continuing positive contributions to the game.

Hunt has been a continuing leader in the game and few individuals have helped shape the sport more than this quiet Texan. In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." For many years, he was a persistent advocate of the two-point conversion option for pro football — an old college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in '94. In 2000, along with Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson, Hunt earned the distinction of becoming just the fourth Owner/General Manager combination to preside over a franchise for all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City compiled a stellar 102-58 (.638) regular season record from '90-99.

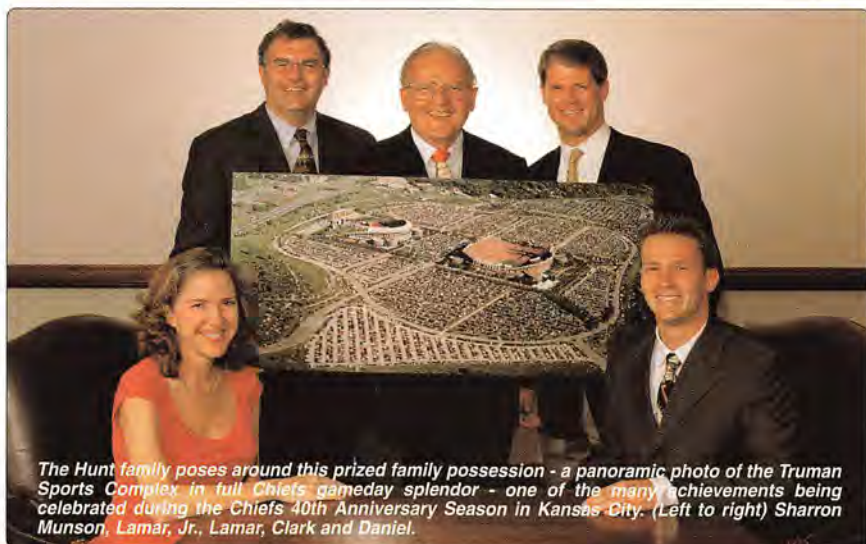

A year-round sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional athletic ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association, while the Hunt family also serves as the operator of two franchises in Major League Soccer, now in its seventh season of operation. The Hunt family oversees the operations of both the former MLS Cup Champion Kansas City Wizards — who claimed their inaugural league title in 2000 — and the Columbus Crew, who play in America's pre-eminent outdoor soccer facility, the beautiful 22,555-seat Crew Stadium. Including the most recent title with the Wizards in 2000, Hunt now prizes 11 championship rings from four different professional sports leagues (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA and NASL), most notably a Super Bowl IV ring from '69 Chiefs, as well as AFL title rings from the '62 Dallas Texans and '66 Chiefs.

Appropriately nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports ventures has been his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which has transcended his involvement in numerous athletic entities. Over 30 years ago, the Hunts were involved in the development of both the North American Soccer League and a tennis promotion company, World Championship Tennis. Both of those organizations are now defunct; however, in an unusual twist, Hunt's involvement in these ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (located in Oneonta, New York) in '82 and International Tennis (located in Newport, Rhode Island) in '93. He has also been honored in the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Missouri ('95) and Texas ('84). In addition, Hunt was also inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame in '97. Two years later, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" after the 89-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup" and he received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor.

As President of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a working member of several prominent NFL committees, including current service on the Finance and Business Ventures committees.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the Varsity Football Team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel, as well as 10 grandchildren. Together, the entire Hunt family shares a great enthusiasm for the Chiefs "Red and Gold."

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

JACK W. STEADMAN

In 2002, the Kansas City Chiefs began their 43rd season as a pro football franchise under the leadership of Jack Steadman, Chairman of the Board.

A recognized leader among pro football administrators, Steadman has structured the Chiefs organization to meet the challenge brought about by growth of the business of pro football over the years. As the Chiefs celebrate their 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City, and their 31st in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, Steadman can look with pride at a list of football and administrative accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the '63 season in the old AFL.

It was Steadman who conceived the idea of building the dual Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which houses Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums. The complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world. Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive V.P. and General Manager in '66; in August of '76 he was named President of the Chiefs; and in '89 was named Chairman of the Board.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful business man with the Chiefs, Steadman later joined Lamar Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in '73. In '82, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. In '95, Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun were sold to Cedar Fair.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Company, an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves as the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Committee.

Actively involved within the community since arriving in Kansas City, Steadman is a tireless worker and detailed organizer in many civic and service projects. He is past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way and past President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman and Board Member of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association and the Starlight Theatre Association. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a past member of the Civic Council. In '88 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citizen of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, Ill., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in Business Administration from Southern Methodist University. Steadman and his wife, Judy, reside in Mission Hills, Kansas.

VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

CLARK K. HUNT

In recent years, Clark Hunt has taken an active role in overseeing the Hunt family's long-standing interest in the Kansas City Chiefs football franchise. The 37-year-old Hunt currently serves as the club's Vice Chairman of the Board, representing the Hunt family at board and NFL meetings, as well as team management sessions. Hunt works in close concert with Founder - Lamar Hunt; President, General Manager and CEO - Carl Peterson and Chairman of the Board - Jack Steadman on all aspects of the club's operations. He also serves as a Vice President of Hunt Sports Group and the Manager of Team Kansas City

Soccer — the parent companies of the family's Major League Soccer interests — which include the 2000 MLS Champion Kansas City Wizards.

In addition to his responsibilities with the family's sports franchises, the Dallas, Texas native serves as President of Hunt Financial Group where he has been responsible for the development of a variety of investment partnerships serving a diverse clientele of institutional and individual investors. Hunt began his business career as an analyst with Goldman Sachs & Company in New York and Los Angeles.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University, earning a degree in Business Administration and was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic accolade, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. During his collegiate athletic career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally-ranked soccer squad, earned first team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and served as a Tri-Captain his final season.

Hunt was born on February 19, 1965 in Dallas, Texas and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Dallas in '83 and from SMU in '87. He and his wife, Tavia, have a daughter, Gracelyn, and are expecting their second child this year.

PRESIDENT/GM/CEO

CARL D. PETERSON

As the Chiefs enter the 2002 campaign — the club's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City — no individual is more qualified, more prepared or more enthusiastic about leading Kansas City's NFL franchise into the challenges of today's pro football landscape than team President, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, Carl Peterson.

Peterson, who enters his 14th season as the Kansas City Chiefs top executive in 2002, unquestionably serves as the driving force of the organization and is regarded as the person most responsible for the club's return to prominence both on and off the field during the past 13 years.

On January 12th of 2001, Peterson made perhaps his boldest move to date as Kansas City's President, General Manager and CEO, luring Dick Vermeil — who guided the '99 St. Louis Rams to a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV — out of retirement to guide the Chiefs on-field fortunes, marking the first time Kansas City has boasted a Super Bowl champion head coach since the days of Hank Stram.

For the third time in his football career, Peterson has joined forces with Vermeil and current Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel, Lynn Stiles to form a true gridiron trinity. Peterson, Vermeil and Stiles were all together for UCLA's '76 Rose Bowl Championship, as well as the Philadelphia Eagles berth in Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

At UCLA from '74-'75, Peterson served as receivers coach and administrative assistant to the head coach, working with Vermeil. When Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles in '76, Peterson served as the club's receivers and tight ends coach, as well as the administrative assistant to the head coach, and then served as Director of Player Personnel from '77-'82.

"When Lamar Hunt and his family gave me an opportunity to run this franchise, there was only one person on my mind that I wanted to be head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs . . . Dick Vermeil," Peterson observed. "I've had one goal since I came here and I know that Dick now shares that goal with me. That goal is to hand the trophy that bears Lamar Hunt's name (AFC Championship trophy) to him at the conclusion of the season. I think we have the right man to accomplish that goal."

In addition to the acquisition of Vermeil — just one of four head coaches in NFL history to guide two different teams to the Super Bowl — Peterson is also the man who brought highly-productive free agent WR Johnnie Morton to Kansas City in 2002 and negotiated the trade which brought seven-time Pro Bowl T Willie Roaf to the squad this year. But unquestionably, Peterson's best player personnel acquisition during the brief Vermeil coaching era was 2001 unrestricted free agent signer RB Priest Holmes — the NFL leader in both rushing yardage and total yards from scrimmage last season — who enjoyed one of the finest individual single-season performances in the illustrious history of the Chiefs franchise.

Making major changes to an organization is never easy, but Peterson has a history of guiding the Chiefs in the right direction. Since coming to Mid-America in late December of '88, he has not only transformed the Chiefs into a model NFL organization, but has also built the Kansas City franchise into one of pro sport's finest and most respected entities. When Peterson took over the Chiefs, the franchise had been struggling, on the field and off, and was without any kind of national presence. Simply put, the club's reversal of fortunes under Peterson since that time have been dramatic.

Under his continued guidance, the club maintains one of the most loyal national fan followings and strongest season ticket bases of any professional sports team. Boasting individual season-ticket accounts from an astonishing 44 different states and the District of Columbia, the Chiefs once again built upon their long-standing reputation for supremacy in the area of season-ticket renewals, as 97.0 percent of the club's 73,000 season tickets were renewed for 2002. Last year Hunt and Peterson upped the club's self-imposed season-ticket cap to 73,000 seats, a move that has allowed many individuals who had been on the Chiefs lengthy waiting list for the past nine years to purchase season tickets for the first time.

Despite his many accomplishments in steering the overall fortunes of the franchise, at his essence, Peterson still remains a quintessential football man. During the decade of the '90s, few teams could match the level of success exhibited on the playing field by the Chiefs. From '90-'99, Kansas City posted a stellar 102-58 (.638) record, making Kansas City just one of seven teams in NFL history to record 100 or more wins over the course of a single decade. Even more impressive was the fact that Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and Peterson became just the fourth Owner/General Manager tandem to preside over a team for all 10 years of a 100-win decade.

Peterson obtained another rare distinction during the 2000 campaign by getting his 200th career regular season win of his 21-year tenure as a professional football executive with the NFL's Chiefs and Eagles, as well as the USFL's Stars. That 200th victory also marked the 600th regular season contest in the storied history of the Chiefs franchise.

Dating back to '77 when he first served as the Director of Player Personnel for the Eagles, teams whose personnel operations have been overseen by Peterson have produced a 211-127-2 (.624) mark. During that 20-season span — which also includes tenures as the top executive for the Chiefs and USFL's Stars — his teams have produced 17 winning records and made the playoffs on 14 occasions.

During the '90s, Kansas City finished first or second in the AFC West nine times, made seven playoff appearances, won three AFC West titles and reached the only AFC Championship Game in team history. But one of the proudest achievements during his tenure has been the re-establishment of the unparalleled fan support the club currently enjoys in Kansas City.

Under Peterson's leadership, few teams enjoy a more impressive homefield advantage than the one boasted by the Chiefs at Arrowhead. Dating back to the start of the '95 season, Denver is the AFC only club that has a better home record than the 40-16 (.714) ledger produced by Kansas City at Arrowhead. From '90-00, Kansas City has posted an AFC-best 68-20 (.772) regular season record at their raucous home, a mark matched only by San Francisco, which also had an identical 68-20 record over that span.

Regarded as having one of the best and loudest gameday atmospheres in the entire league, the Chiefs have sold out 92 consecutive contests at Arrowhead — including four postseason games — and can run that total to 100 by selling out all eight of their regular season home contests in 2002. Despite operating in the league's fifth-smallest market, the Chiefs consistently fill the NFL's third-largest stadium. In 2001, Kansas City enjoyed a regular season paid home attendance of 617,488, pacing the entire NFL in that category in six of the last eight years. In addition, over one million fans witnessed the Chiefs compete in regular season action at home and on the road for the 12th consecutive season.

"My administrative philosophy is very simple," Peterson explained. "Hire the most talented, most creative, most innovative people possible. Give them a goal and all the support possible. Then get out of the way and let them do what they do best. Overall, my job is to create an environment that is conducive to allowing individual and collective excellence to emerge."

Under Peterson's leadership the past 13 years, the Chiefs have evolved into a habitually successful franchise. Dating back to his first season with the club in '89, the Chiefs own a 123-84-1 record, good for a .594 winning percentage. And during the decade of the '90s, only San Francisco (113-47 (.706) and Buffalo (103-57 (.644) could top the 102-58 (.638) mark established by Kansas City.

Over that 10-year span from '90-99, the Chiefs won three AFC West titles ('93, '95 and '97). In '93 the Chiefs captured their first AFC Western Division title since '71 and made their first-ever AFC Championship Game appearance. In both '95 and '97, the Chiefs put together league-best 13-3 records and went undefeated at home. Since the start of the '90 season, Kansas City has won more division contests than any other NFL team, producing a 60-28 (.682) ledger, a figure which ranks as the best intradivision winning percentage in the entire NFL during that timeframe.

The team's national popularity has grown tremendously over the past 13 years, Kansas City has been among the NFL leaders in merchandise sales, national-television appearances (60 times, including 20 on ABC's Monday Night Football, the past 10 years) and international game representation ('94 American Bowl vs. Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan; '96 American Bowl vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico and '98 American Bowl vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan).

"Under Carl's leadership, the Chiefs have achieved a high level of respect as one of the leaders in the NFL," commented Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. "This respect has been measured in several principle areas, including development and guidance of a quality organization in every phase - front office, scouting, coaching and team."

The team's football and administrative successes have not gone unnoticed around the league. Several of the team's top coaches and administrators have received promotions to other NFL clubs. Headlining that list of Peterson proteges is former Chiefs Vice President of Player Personnel Terry Bradway, who was named General Manager of the N.Y. Jets in 2001. Bradway spent eight years with Kansas City ('93-00) and also served three years with Peterson ('83-85) in the USFL.

In addition, three former Chiefs staff members are Vice Presidents with other teams (Mark Hatley - Green Bay; Phil Thomas - St. Louis and Phil Youtsey - Carolina), while three former Kansas City assistants who currently serve as NFL head coaches with other clubs (Bill Cowher - Pittsburgh; Tony Dungy - Indianapolis and Herman Edwards - N.Y. Jets). "The greatest form of flattery (and respect) is when other teams come after our people," Peterson remarked.

Whether on the field, on the sidelines, or in the front office, the area where Peterson has always truly excelled in is unearthing talent. He and the player personnel department he has built in Kansas City have used the college draft, trades and the free agent market to build the Chiefs talent pool. No matter the round, Peterson and his scouting staff have discovered major contributors each year in the draft, including notable performers such as the late nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (1st round - '89), retired 2000 Pro Bowl center Tim Grunhard (2nd round - '90), seven-time Pro Bowl guard Will Shields (3rd round - '93) and former All-Pro guard Dave Scott (7th round - '90), just to name a very few.

The club's recent drafts have yielded a plethora of starting talent for the club: WR Marvin Minnis (3rd round - 2001), DT Eric Downing (3rd - 2001), WR Sylvester Morris (1st round - 2000), CB William Bartee (2nd round - 2000) and S Greg Wesley (3rd round - 2000). Peterson's recent first-round resume is also impressive. In addition to Morris, that list also includes T John Tait ('99), three-time Pro Bowl TE

Tony Gonzalez ('97) and five-year starting free safety Jerome Woods ('96). After orchestrating the draft day trade to move up to select Gonzalez in '97, this year Peterson consummated a deal to jump ahead two positions in the first round to tab DT Ryan Sims, a move which will hopefully pay similar dividends.

In '93, it was Peterson who consummated the trade with the 49ers that brought Hall of Fame quarterback Joe Montana to Kansas City. The same year he acquired Montana, Peterson also made one of the best acquisitions in the history of unrestricted free agency, signing another future Hall of Famer, running back Marcus Allen. Over the years, Peterson's free agent acquisitions have been many, including the Chiefs past seven Most Valuable Players, a list which includes current Kansas City performers RB Priest Holmes (2001) and LB Marcus Patton ('99). In addition, Peterson continues to explore crafty trade opportunities, such as the ones which landed seven-time Pro Bowl T Willie Roaf in 2002, QB Trent Green in 2001 and K Pete Stoyanovich in '96.

In total, the Chiefs have produced 49 Pro Bowlers during Peterson's 13-year tenure with the club, 16 more than the club tallied in the 13 years prior to his arrival. Peterson first displayed his knack for discovering and developing young players long before he came to Kansas City, though. His reputation as one of football's top executives began in '77 as Director of Player Personnel of the Eagles, assisting Vermeil and the club to four consecutive playoff appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XV.

After his rapid success in the NFL personnel ranks, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the United States Football League was launched in July of '82. As the franchise's President and General Manager, he proceeded to assemble the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 48-13-1 overall record during regular (41-12-1) and postseason play (7-1) was easily the finest of any USFL club. His efforts were rewarded in '83 and '84, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

A '66 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career as an assistant at two Southern California high schools, Wilson High in '66 and Loyola High in '67-68. He entered the collegiate ranks at Cal-State at Sonoma in '69, then was named head coach in '70. He returned to his alma mater in '72, where he served as the Bruins receivers coach under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant to Vermeil when he became the school's head coach in '74. Following UCLA's Rose Bowl championship in '76, Peterson accompanied Vermeil to the Philadelphia Eagles.

Peterson serves on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholars Organization. He serves as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Pop Warner and is a member of the International World President's Organization. He also serves on the Board of The Third and Long Foundation, which was founded by the late Derrick Thomas. The Greater Kansas City Sports Commission presented Peterson with the '98 Special Achievement Award for Professional Athletics. Other honors Peterson have received include the 2002 Pop Warner Award for Excellence in Athletics, the 2001 Pro Football Executive Award, presented by the All-American Football Foundation and the '98 Reds Bagwell Award for Outstanding Contributions to the Game of Football. Peterson also serves on the following NFL's Committees: College and Pro Relations, NFL Europe League Working Executives and the NFL Youth Football Funding Board. Spearheaded by the efforts and example of Peterson and his wife, Lori, the Chiefs organization (players, coaches and front office staff) has raised a net of $6.63 million for local charities since '98.

Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology from UCLA in '66, a Master's Degree in Kinesiology in '67 and later earned a Doctorate in Administration in Higher Education at UCLA in '70. He is married to the former Lori K. Larson of Kansas City, who is a senior associate with H.O.K. Sports Architects. The Petersons make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. Carl has one daughter Dawn Peterson Curlewis, who lives in Edinburgh with her Scottish-born husband, Graham.

DERRICK THOMAS ACADEMY

On June 3, 2001, the Derrick Thomas Academy, a tuition-free public charter school, was launched in downtown Kansas City at 201 East Armour Plaza. The academy is the first-ever public elementary charter school named in honor of an NFL hero. Opening its doors in September 2002 to approximately 100 students, DTA will expand to include the sixth through eighth grades over the next three years. "As much as anything Derrick did on the football field, it was his contributions off it that stamps his time here on Earth," observed Chiefs President Carl Peterson of Thomas. "He was committed to helping others. At the time of his death, I stated that something good would come of this because a good man left us. This good, perhaps, can be a school that holds his name and continues his commitment to service to his community."

ADMINISTRATION

DENNIS THUM

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Dennis Thum, who has played a major role in the Kansas City Chiefs front office the past 29 years, has been the club's Assistant General Manager since '89. In February of '96, he added the role of Executive Vice President to his Assistant GM duties. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the team's President, General Manager and Chiefs Executive Officer, in overseeing the football side of the Chiefs operation.

"Denny Thum is the unsung hero of this organization," noted Peterson. "Without Denny, there are many things we would not have been able to accomplish. He's invaluable to me."

The 50-year-old Thum is heavily involved in the preparation of the entire football budget, is active in the negotiations of all player contracts, monitors the salary cap, and services the coaching staff, player personnel staff, trainers, as well as the club's equipment and video staffs. He is also in charge of all training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel. In a '97 USA Today story, Thum was named one of the NFL's top 11 salary cap managers in a poll of league administrators.

Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84 to '88, and was promoted to his current position shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City 13 years ago. He served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chief Accountant in '82. The St. Louis, Missouri native joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College in Kansas City. Born November 14, 1951, Denny and his wife, Carmen, live in Kansas City, Missouri, with their two daughters, Megan and Lindsay.

LYNN STILES

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/PLAYER PERSONNEL

Lynn Stiles rejoined the Chiefs football family on February 29, 2000 when he was named the club's Vice President of Football Operations. On June 7, 2001 he was promoted by Chiefs President Carl Peterson to the post of Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel. Stiles previously served as Kansas City's Vice President of Player Personnel from '92-96.

Stiles returned to the Chiefs organization in 2000 after spending the three previous seasons ('97-99) in St. Louis as that club's Vice President of Football Operations. In St. Louis he played a key role in helping current Chiefs Head Coach Dick Vermeil and the Rams produce a win in Super Bowl XXXIV in '99. He also coached the Rams tight ends in '98-99.

In his expanded role with the Chiefs, Stiles oversees all aspects of the Chiefs player personnel department, including both the team's college and pro scouting efforts. In addition, he also works closely with Lamonte Winston and Kansas City's player development department, which he played an integral role in establishing during his initial tenure with the team. Stiles was also instrumental in the formation of a player development program in St. Louis, working with Kevin Warren. He will also continue his work as Vice President of Football Operations, managing various day-to-day football management issues.

Stiles is reunited in Kansas City with Peterson and Vermeil for the third time in his career. The longstanding relationship between this gridiron trinity dates back to UCLA in the '70s. Peterson served as the Bruins receivers coach and administrative assistant from '72-73 under Pepper Rodgers before serving in that same role under Vermeil from '74-75, while Stiles was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the Bruins from '70-75. In '75, that trio helped lead the Bruins to a 9-2-1 record, the team's first-ever Pac 8 championship. That season culminated with UCLA's first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 seasons as the Bruins defeated #1 ranked Ohio State.

In '79, Stiles joined forces with Vermeil and Peterson for the second time, this time with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. Stiles served as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator, while Vermeil was Head Coach and Peterson served as the Eagles Director of Player Personnel. Philadelphia produced a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 as the Eagles claimed the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV.

Entering his 23rd NFL season in 2002, the 60-year-old Stiles has been a member of four Super Bowl teams, including that Super Bowl XV berth with the '80 Eagles. Stiles earned championship rings from three of those Super Bowl appearances (XXIII and XXIV with San Francisco, XXXIV with St. Louis). In total, Stiles has been associated with teams which made six conference championship game appearances and have appeared in 24 overall playoff games.

When Peterson departed to head the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '82, Stiles became the Eagles Director of Player Personnel from '82-86. During that span Philadelphia acquired Pro Bowl performers such as Reggie White, Randall Cunningham, Seth Joyner, Clyde Simmons and Keith Byars. The Kermit, Texas native then joined Bill Walsh's coaching staff with the San Francisco 49ers as that club's special teams coach in '87. The next season, the 49ers claimed a 20-16 win over Cincinnati in Super Bowl XXIII. In '89, Stiles was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach by head coach George Seifert as San Francisco went 14-2 and produced a 55-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXIV. He also served as the team's assistant offensive line coach in '91 before originally joining the Chiefs in '92.

From '76-78, Stiles served as head coach at San José State where his squads won two league championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of QB Steve DeBerg, who was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP in his only year of major college football. A two-time All-Nevada selection as a prep player at Reno High School, Stiles enjoyed a stellar collegiate career at the University of Utah playing guard and linebacker, earning All-Academic and All-Conference honors, in addition to a berth in the All-American bowl after his senior season in '62. He embarked on his coaching career at his alma mater in '63 when his roommate was Seifert. Stiles also served as an assistant at Iowa from '64-69 before joining the staff at UCLA in '70.

Stiles and his wife, Marigene reside in Leawood, Kansas. They have four children - daughters Staci and Tiffany and sons Shon and Blake, in addition to two grandchildren.

DENNIS WATLEY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Dennis Watley, now in his 13th year with the Chiefs, was promoted to the post of Senior Vice President in March of '99 after serving three years as the club's Vice President of Administration. Watley oversees the team's sales, marketing, advertising, promotions, data processing, development and stadium operations of the Chiefs and the Kansas City Wizards soccer team.

He joined the club in '90 as Director of Sales and Marketing and was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in '95 and Vice President of Administration in '96. Under Watley's direction, the Chiefs have become a model for all pro sports franchises in virtually every area. Ideas originating in Kansas City in the '90s have become standard operating procedure for many teams in the NFL.

Kansas City has become a consistent AFC attendance leader and has led the entire NFL in home attendance six of the past eight seasons. Last year, the Chiefs extended their string of consecutive regular season and playoff sellouts at Arrowhead Stadium to 92 games. Watley has also been instrumental in developing the club's VIP tent and corporate hospitality areas, including the Pavilion at Arrowhead and the Wolfpack Club, which both opened in 2000.

Over the past 12 seasons, the Chiefs have emerged as one of the best-run franchises in sports, and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue has stated that the Chiefs game production and overall football atmosphere is "the best in the NFL." Watley has also been the driving force in bringing special events to Arrowhead, including the Big 12 Football Championship Game, the Eddie Robinson College Football Classic, as well as numerous prestigious soccer events and concerts.

For 16 years prior to joining the Chiefs, the 54-year-old Watley was employed by National Steel Service Centers, a one-billion-dollar metals distribution company serving eight states in the Midwest. He left National Steel in 1985 as President of the Midwest Division and joined D.W. Newcomer's Sons in Kansas City. A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Watley attended William Jewell College on an athletic scholarship, majoring in Business and Marketing, with additional studies in Iowa and Houston, Texas. Dennis and his wife, Carolyn, have four children - Shelby, Lori, Matt and Ellen. The Watleys reside in Lee's Summit, Missouri.

HEAD COACH

DICK VERMEIL

A new crusade was officially initiated on January 12, 2001 when Chiefs President Carl Peterson named Dick Vermeil as the ninth head coach in the illustrious 43-year history of the Chiefs football franchise. The 2002 season marks the second year of the Vermeil era in Kansas City as this highly-respected coach continues his quest to return the Chiefs to their winning ways.

Vermeil came to Kansas City in 2001 when a deal was consummated to end his one-year coaching hiatus after his victory in Super Bowl XXXIV with the St. Louis Rams. Peterson and the Chiefs head coach were finally reunited in Kansas City, bringing full-circle a working relationship which dates back some 28 years. While some questioned why Vermeil would come out of retirement for a second time, in the eyes of this championship-winning coach, the motivation was crystal clear.

"Personal relationships are motivating to me," Vermeil said upon accepting his third NFL head coaching post. "And that was truly the case in this situation. I really feel this was sort of inevitable. Sooner or later, it was probably going to happen that Carl and I would be back together again, rejoined to initiate a new crusade. Every time we've done it, we've been successful."

Successful, indeed.

If history repeats itself for Peterson and Vermeil in Kansas City, Chiefs fans everywhere could enjoy the results of this latest "crusade." In their two previous "crusades," Peterson and Vermeil unquestionably forged a winning combination. While the teams, the years and the uniforms have changed, the commitment and trust shared by this dynamic football duo has never wavered. Whether it was upsetting #1 ranked Ohio State 23-10 in the Rose Bowl following the '75 college season or resurrecting a long-dormant Philadelphia Eagles franchise to claim the '80 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV, Peterson and Vermeil's gridiron triumphs have been well-documented.

That strong personal bond and history of past successes easily explains why Vermeil was Peterson's top choice for the Chiefs head coaching job, not only in 2001, but dating back to '89 when Peterson originally came to Kansas City to steer the franchise's fortunes.

"When I came to the Chiefs over 12 years ago, there was only one individual I wanted to hire as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs, Dick Vermeil," Peterson observed upon hiring Vermeil. "So it is with a great deal of pleasure that after 12 years I have finally been able to accomplish what I set out to do at that time. I'm not concerned about my bias — and I am biased — but I firmly believe that Dick Vermeil is the premier football coach in the entire National Football League."

Revered is perhaps not too strong a term to describe the level of esteem Vermeil has earned, not only from the likes of NFL executives such as Peterson, but also from his peers in the coaching profession. Unquestionably one of the finest innovators and motivators the game has ever known, Vermeil's one-of-a-kind style has truly stood the test of time. Whether it was coaching championship football and swimming teams as a young high school coach in California, re-establishing UCLA as a national football powerhouse during his collegiate days, or reaching the highest echelon of the pro football profession by coaching a club to a Super Bowl championship, there's been virtually no challenge Vermeil hasn't stepped up to during his illustrious career.

In 2001, Vermeil tackled the task of injecting his competitive fire into the Chiefs and returning the franchise to the success to which it has grown accustomed. The club quickly embraced its new field general a year ago and by season's end the results began to show as Kansas City claimed victories in three of its final four games. The 6-10 record compiled by the 2001 Chiefs was Vermeil's best in his first season leading a new NFL program. His '76 Eagles went 4-10 and his '97 Rams went 5-11; a pair of teams he would later lead to Super Bowl berths. Entering the 2002 campaign, Vermeil owns 82 regular season victories, a figure topped by only four other active coaches - Atlanta's Dan Reeves (178), San Diego's Marty Schottenheimer (153), Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (99) and Seattle's Mike Holmgren (99).

The national respect for Vermeil truly transcends football. In fact, it eclipses the sports world entirely. In addition to his impressive litany of accomplishments as a coach, he has served as a widely-acclaimed broadcaster and has long been a highly-coveted motivational speaker. Whether it means delivering an important pregame speech to an NFL locker room, providing color commentary to a national television audience or inspiring employees of America's most prestigious Fortune 500 companies, Vermeil has filled the bill with precision, wit and a reverberating passion.

It is precisely that passion, particularly his passion for coaching the NFL's finest athletes which Vermeil pinpointed as perhaps the biggest purpose behind his return to the coaching ranks with Kansas City. Yet even though he is just one of 20 NFL head coaches ever to claim a Super Bowl ring — joining Hank Stram as the only other Chiefs head coach to own that distinction — Vermeil approaches his present challenge with little bravado, much humility and a great appreciation of the individuals who fight in the trenches each and every day - his players and coaching staff.

"I have my number one obligation defined," Vermeil commented. "That is to provide talented, talented athletes to a very talented coaching staff in the frame of mind to be coached. And if they don't want to be coached and if they don't want to be worked, they probably won't stay here."

"My number two objective will be to build an environment within this building that makes it exciting for everybody to come to work and feel important and be a part of it. I'm not the most important person. To me, the most important people are your players and your coaching staff, your assistant coaches. They have their hands on the product — the players — each and every day."

In 2002, Vermeil continues his quest to become the only head coach in NFL history to lead three separate teams to the Super Bowl. He is currently just one of four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the "Big Game," joining the illustrious likes of Bill Parcells (Giants and Patriots), Dan Reeves (Broncos and Falcons) and Don Shula (Colts and Dolphins). Vermeil was granted entry into that elite group after leading St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season. He also guided Philadelphia to an appearance in Super Bowl XV at the conclusion of the '80 season. Vermeil is also just one of five active NFL head coaches (Bill Belichick - New England, Brian Billick - Baltimore, Mike Shanahan - Denver, and Mike Holmgren - Seattle) who have guided a club to a Super Bowl victory.

The Northern California native returned to the NFL in 2001 after announcing his retirement from the St. Louis Rams on February 1, 2000. During his one-year hiatus from the coaching profession, Vermeil's schedule would indicate "retirement" was the furthest thing from his mind. In the over 11 months spanning his departure from the Rams and his arrival in Kansas City, he was honored at no less than 16 award banquets. In addition, he orated at 60 separate speaking engagements and appeared at 33 different charity functions.

Nineteen years after winning the NFL Coach of the Year honor for the initial time with the '80 Philadelphia Eagles, Vermeil was once again honored as the NFL's Coach of the Year following the '99 season with St. Louis. Not surprisingly, Vermeil was a hot commodity on the banquet circuit following St. Louis' Super Bowl victory, receiving other "Coach of the Year" honors from virtually every major event in the country, including Kansas City's own "101 Banquet", as well as the Maxwell Club, the ESPYs, the Columbus Touchdown Club, the Victor Awards and the NFL Alumni Association. Vermeil was also a consensus "Coach of the Year" pick among pro football publications in '99, including Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, USA Today, Football News, Football Digest, as well as College and Pro Football Newsweekly.

That plethora of well-deserved accolades came following a remarkable '99 campaign with the Rams which culminated with a thrilling 23-16 victory vs. Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV on January 30th of 2000. Vermeil's '99 Rams produced a 13-3 regular season record, winning those 13 contests by an average margin of 22.9 points per game. In 11 of those games, the Rams topped the 30-point barrier. St. Louis contained its opponents to 21 points or less in all 13 of their wins as Vermeil guided the Rams to their first-ever Super Bowl victory and their first appearance in the NFL's title game since the club lost to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV following the '79 season.

Despite losing current Kansas City signal-caller Trent Green to a season-ending injury in the preseason, an unheralded former Arena League and NFL Europe quarterback named Kurt Warner emerged to lead St. Louis to the NFL's promised land. Warner enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons in NFL history in '99, completing 325 of 499 passes for 4,353 yards with 41 touchdowns and just 13 interceptions, good for a remarkable 109.2 passer rating. While Vermeil was unquestionably the season's most decorated coach, Warner was the league's most honored player, taking home both the NFL Most Valuable Player and Super Bowl MVP trophies.

After taking a 14-year sabbatical from the coaching profession from '83-96, Vermeil returned to the league as President of Football Operations and head coach of the St. Louis Rams on January 22, 1997. Vermeil took over a St. Louis team which had suffered seven consecutive losing seasons and hadn't been to the postseason since '88. In just his third season as head coach of that club in '99, he guided the Rams to a franchise-best regular season 13-3 record and the lone Super Bowl victory in that team's history.

In '76, Vermeil inherited a Philadelphia squad which had not produced a winning season since '66. In just his third season with the club in '78, he landed the Eagles in the playoffs for the first time since '61, earning NFC Coach of the Year for his efforts. After leading Philadelphia to a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 and taking the team on a trip to Super Bowl XV, he was named NFL Coach of the Year for the first time, a feat he later repeated with the Rams.

Vermeil enters his 12th season as an NFL head coach in 2002, after producing an 82-83 regular season record in his 11 previous campaigns. He went 22-26 with the St. Louis Rams ('97-'99), posted a 54-47 record with the Eagles ('76-'82) and produced a 6-10 slate in his initial season with the Chiefs (2001). He boasts a 6-4 career postseason record, including a perfect 3-0 mark during the '99 campaign with the Rams giving him an overall NFL record of 88-87 (.503). In total, Vermeil will embark on his 16th season as an NFL coach after originally entering the league with the L.A. Rams in '69.

In addition to being reunited with Peterson — as well as a host of former Rams players and coaches in Kansas City — Vermeil also joined forces with another longtime associate, Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles in 2001. The relationship shared by the football trinity of Peterson, Vermeil and Stiles dates back to '74 when Vermeil was named the head coach at UCLA. Peterson served as receivers coach and an administrative assistant, while Stiles served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

In '76, Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, while Peterson served as the club's receivers, tight ends coach and administrative assistant to the head coach. In '77, Peterson was named Philadelphia's Director of Player Personnel and became the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent for Vermeil. Just one year later in '78 the duo of Peterson and Vermeil helped lead the Eagles to their first playoff appearance in 18 seasons and landed the club in the Super Bowl in '80.

In six seasons together with the Eagles from '76-81, Peterson and Vermeil combined to engineer four playoff appearances. Stiles rejoined the trio in '79 as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. The highlight of that four-year playoff run came just one year later when Philadelphia claimed its first division title since the club won the NFL Championship in '60. The Eagles proceeded to win the '80 NFC Championship Game and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

After spending seven seasons ('76-82) with Philadelphia, Vermeil retired from coaching during an emotional farewell speech on January 10, 1983. He finished his Eagles career as the second-winningest head coach in that franchise's history, compiling a 54-47 (.535) record. Only Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Earl "Greasy" Neale produced more victories, getting 66 wins as the Eagles head coach from '41-50. In an ironic twist, Vermeil received the Earle "Greasy" Neale Trophy for his efforts with the Rams in '99, an honor bestowed annually by Philadelphia's Maxwell Club.

Vermeil didn't stray far from the gridiron when he left the Eagles, though. Shortly after departing the sidelines, he began a 14-year broadcasting career, serving as an NFL and college football analyst for CBS and ABC from '83-96. In addition to his national television work, Vermeil was a fixture at Chiefs training camp in River Falls. When he declined the opportunity to become Kansas City's head coach in '89, Peterson did convince him to provide color commentary for the Chiefs preseason television broadcasts from '89-96, working with play-by-play men Roger Twibell and Gary Bender.

Owning many distinctions during his football career, two of the most interesting include his involvement with the Rose Bowl. In addition to being the only head coach to lead his team to victories in both the Super Bowl and the Rose Bowl, he is also the only individual to coach a team in the Rose Bowl and later broadcast a Rose Bowl contest.

In addition, Vermeil owns the rare distinction of being named "Coach of the Year" on four levels: high school, junior college, NCAA Division I and the NFL. He began his coaching career at San Jose's Del Mar High School in '59 and received his initial head coaching assignment at Hillsdale High School in San Mateo, California in '60. After a one-year stint as an assistant at San Mateo College, he produced an 8-1 mark in his lone season as the head coach at Napa Junior College before entering the Division I ranks.

Vermeil began his NCAA Division I coaching tenure at Stanford from '65-68 working under head coach John Ralston. That star-studded staff included six future NFL head coaches: Vermeil (Philadelphia '76-82, St. Louis '97-99, Kansas City 2001-02); Ralston (Denver '72-76); Bill Walsh (San Francisco '79-88), Jim Mora (New Orleans '86-96, Indianapolis '98-01) and Rod Rust (New England '90), as well as longtime associate, friend and current Chiefs Director of Football Administration Mike White (Oakland '95-96).

He entered the pro ranks in '69 when he was designated as the first special teams coach in NFL history working for the L.A. Rams under Pro Football Hall of Famer George Allen. After a one-year stint on Tommy Prothro's staff as offensive coordinator at UCLA in '70, he moved with Prothro back to the Rams, where he served as offensive coordinator from '71-72. He then coached running backs and special teams for Rams head coach Chuck Knox in '73 before taking over the head coaching reigns at UCLA the following year. He compiled a 15-5-3 (.717) record in two seasons as head coach at UCLA ('74-75), including a 9-2-1 record in '75 when Vermeil led the Bruins to their first Pac 8 Championship.

During his many years in the Philadelphia area - where his family still maintains a residence - Vermeil has found the time to help many worthy causes, making an immediate impact on those around him. Numerous Philadelphia-area organizations have benefited from his involvement including: The Mary Campbell Center, The Second Mile Center and The Boy Scouts of Chester County whose golf tournament which bears Vermeil's name annually earns $100,000 for the organization.

Born in Calistoga, California at the northern end of the world-renowned Napa Valley in the heart of wine country, Vermeil was a four-sport star at Calistoga High School and was also employed in the auto repair garage of his father, Louis Vermeil. The younger Vermeil applied that work ethic learned in "The Garage" for one season at Napa Junior College, before moving on to San Jose State. He graduated from San Jose State with degrees in physical education (B.A. '58, M.A. '59) after serving as a collegiate quarterback for the Spartans. In 2000, he was inducted into the San Jose State Hall of Fame. True to his Napa Valley roots, Vermeil is scheduled to release a vintage of his own self-proclaimed "Garage Cabernet" in the near future.

Vermeil and his wife, Carol have three children and 11 grandchildren. Their son Rick and his wife Colleen are parents of grandchildren Kelly, Rick, Michael and Megan. Their son Dave and his wife Janet are parents of grandchildren Jack, Amy and Andy. Their daughter Nancy and her husband Steve Barnett are parents of grandchildren James, Tommy, Stevie and Christopher.

The Vermeils make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. When not in Kansas City, the entire Vermeil family enjoys spending time and working on "The Ranch," a 114-acre homestead located outside Philadelphia in rural Chester County, Pennsylvania.

COACHING STAFF

MIKE WHITE

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

14TH NFL SEASON (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Mike White enters his 14th NFL campaign and his second season with the Chiefs as the club's Director of Football Administration in 2002. Owning 42 years of football expertise as a coach, a talent evaluator and an administrator, White oversees numerous aspects of the Chiefs day-to-day football operation, working under the direction of head coach Dick Vermeil.

White and Vermeil are united for the third time during their careers in Kansas City. From '97-99, White served as assistant head coach with St. Louis under Vermeil where the tandem was responsible for helping resurrect a franchise which had not produced a winning season since '89. The culmination of those efforts came in '99 when the Rams went 13-3 and claimed a win in Super Bowl XXXIV. Prior to their association with the Rams, the duo had previously worked together as assistant coaches for Stanford from '65-68.

Before joining the Rams, White spent seven years coaching with the Oakland Raiders ('90-96), including two seasons as that club's head coach, compiling a 15-17 record from '95-96. The Berkeley, California native began his tenure with the Raiders as the club's quarterbacks coach from '90-92 and coached the offensive line from '93-94. The Raiders reached the playoffs in three of those five seasons, including an appearance in the '91 AFC Championship Game. Prior to joining the Raiders, White worked closely with former Dallas Cowboys President Tex Schramm from '88-89 to form the World League of American Football (now NFL Europe), which has grown into a valuable developmental league for the NFL.

In total, White owns 16 years of head coaching expertise, including collegiate head coaching posts at the University of Illinois ('80-87) and the University of California ('72-77). A two-time National Coach of the Year, White compiled a 47-38-3 record and three bowl appearances in eight years with the Fighting Illini. In '81 he led Illinois to its first winning record since '74 with a 7-4 mark after inheriting a team which had recorded just one winning season in its prior 14 campaigns. He then took the school to its first bowl appearance in 18 years the following season with a berth in the Liberty Bowl. His '83 squad was among the best in Illinois history, reaching the Rose Bowl and climbing to a Number 10 final AP ranking with a 10-2 record. The school also set a Big Ten record by becoming the first team ever to defeat all nine conference opponents as White earned Coach of the Year honors following the '83 campaign.

White began his NFL coaching career with San Francisco, spending two years as offensive line coach and administrative assistant to Pro Football Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh from '78-79. Before joining the 49ers, White spent 20 of his 28 seasons in college football in the state of California. He spent 12 years at his alma mater of the University of California, where he served as head coach from '72-77, posting a 35-30-1 record in six seasons at the helm of the Golden Bears. In '75 he was named Coach of the Year by The Sporting News following an 8-3 season in which Cal won the school's first Pac 8 championship. White originally launched his coaching career at Cal as a graduate assistant in '58, was elevated to freshmen coach in '59 and was a wide receivers coach from '60-63.

He left Berkeley for rival Stanford in '64 and served as offensive coordinator for eight seasons under John Ralston. The Stanford staff at the time included such future NFL coaches as Ralston, Vermeil, Walsh, Jim Mora and Rod Rust. With White directing the offense and Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett at quarterback, Stanford won consecutive Pac 8 titles and posted back-to-back Rose Bowl victories in '70 and '71.

A noted developer of quarterbacks in the collegiate ranks, White's many pupils included the likes of Plunkett and Don Bunce (Stanford); Steve Bartkowski, Vince Ferragamo, Joe Roth and Rich Campbell (California); Dave Wilson, Tony Eason, Jack Trudeau and Jeff George (Illinois).

White participated in four sports as an undergraduate at Cal. He played offensive end on the football team from '55-57 and was team captain as a senior. He also captained the rugby team while earning three letters in that sport and competed in the decathlon, hurdles and long jump for the Cal track team. In addition, White played guard on the Golden Bears basketball team under legendary coach Pete Newell.

Coaching Career: University of California 1958-63, 1972-77 (head coach); Stanford University 1964-71; San Francisco 49ers 1978-79; University of Illinois 1980-87 (head coach); Los Angeles/Oakland Raiders 1990-96 (head coach '95-96); St. Louis Rams 1997-99; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of California (B.S. '58). Born: January 4, 1936 in Berkeley, California. Family: Wife - Marilyn. The Whites have three children and four grandchildren. Their daughter Carrie and her husband Scott Chantos are parents of grandchildren Hannah (9) and Noah (6). Their son Matt and his wife Julie are the parents of grandchildren Harrison (3) and Dylan (2). Their son Chris is single.

AL SAUNDERS

ASST. HEAD COACH/OFF. COORDINATOR

20TH NFL SEASON (12TH WITH CHIEFS)

Regarded as one of the most accomplished offensive minds in all of football with experience as both a head coach and offensive coordinator, Al Saunders enters his second season as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Chiefs in 2002.

Embarking on his 33rd season in the coaching ranks this year, Saunders owns 20 years of NFL coaching experience and is beginning his 12th coaching campaign with Kansas City. He previously served a 10-year stint as assistant head coach/wide receivers coach under head coach Marty Schottenheimer from '89-98. During that 10-year span, he was part of a Chiefs coaching staff which helped guide Kansas City to three AFC West titles and seven playoff berths.

In his initial season as the Chiefs offensive coordinator in 2001, Saunders' offensive unit pulled off a rare triple play. For just the second time since the AFL-NFL merger, Kansas City finished the year ranked in the NFL's top 10 in rushing, passing and total offense as the Chiefs joined the Rams and Colts as the only teams that could boast top 10 finishes in all of those categories a year ago. Kansas City ranked fifth in the NFL in total offense (354.6 yards per game) with the club's 5,673 total yards coming just 19 yards shy of the club record of 5,692 yards set in '94. The team also ranked fifth in passing offense (229.1 ypg) and sixth in rushing offense (125.5 ypg).

Thanks to a trio of Pro Bowl performers - G Will Shields, TE Tony Gonzalez and RB Priest Holmes - Kansas City ranked fourth in the NFL averaging 5.59 yards per play and finished fourth in the AFC with 64 plays which went for 20 yards or more, including 53 passes, the league's sixth-best total. Kansas City also posted 63 running plays of 10 or more yards, up from the 26 the team accumulated just a year earlier. In Saunders' offensive scheme, Holmes broke six single-season offensive records and became just the second player in team history to lead the NFL in rushing with a franchise-record 1,555 yards, while Gonzalez led all NFL tight ends with 917 receiving yards.

Prior to rejoining the Chiefs, Saunders spent two seasons with St. Louis where he coached wide receivers and also served as associate head coach in 2000. During that two-year span, Saunders helped revitalize a Rams offense which helped the club steamroll its way to a 13-3 regular season record in '99 and a 23-16 triumph over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Owning an energetic and hands-on style, Saunders hopes to continue invigorating the Kansas City offense in much the same way he did in St. Louis.

Presiding over high-flying offenses is nothing new for this veteran coach. In 2000, Saunders was part of a St. Louis coaching staff which helped the Rams continue the offensive onslaught the club began a year earlier. The Rams scored 540 points, good for an average of 33.8 points per game, the third-highest single-season total in NFL history. The club also led the league with an NFL-record 442.2 yards of total offense per game and paced the NFL in passing offense (327.0 ypg) for the second straight season, setting another league record in the process. St. Louis amassed 7,075 yards of total offense and 5,232 passing yards, breaking the previous marks established by the '84 Miami Dolphins.

En route to their World Championship in '99, the Rams paced the NFL with 6,412 yards of total offense, good for a remarkable 400.8 ypg average. St. Louis also led the league in passing offense with 272.1 yards per game and topped the NFL in scoring by averaging 32.9 points per contest. The 526 total points amassed by the '99 squad ranked as the fourth-highest tally in NFL annals.

The St. Louis receiving corps under the direction of Saunders was responsible for a large portion of those record-setting numbers. WR Isaac Bruce made the Pro Bowl in each of his seasons working with Saunders and led the Rams in 2000 with 87 receptions, while garnering 1,471 yards and nine touchdowns. WR Torry Holt had a breakout year under Saunders' tutelage in 2000, leading the league in receiving yards (1,635) and yards per catch (19.9) while earning his first Pro Bowl appearance after grabbing 82 receptions and scoring six TDs. Holt also tied Denver's Rod Smith for the NFL lead with 30 catches of 20 or more yards while Bruce had 24.

WR Az-Zahir Hakim also made significant progress during Saunders' stay in St. Louis. After producing just 20 catches for 247 yards and one score as a rookie in '98, he quickly upped those totals to 36 receptions for 677 yards and eight TDs in his initial season under Saunders in '99. Hakim continued to flourish in 2000, grabbing 53 balls for 734 yards and four TDs.

Bruce, Holt and Hakim join a stellar list of receivers tutored by Saunders, a group that includes Pro Football Hall of Famers Charlie Joiner, Lynn Swann and Kellen Winslow. In Kansas City, Saunders was reunited with Joiner, who he coached in San Diego. Joiner later served as receivers coach on Saunders' staff with the Chargers when he became head coach and is teaming with on offense with Saunders once again in Kansas City.

Before initially joining the Chiefs in '89, Saunders served as head coach of San Diego from the midpoint of the '86 season through the '88 campaign. He guided the Chargers to an 8-7 record in '87, which was the team's first winning season in five years. Under his direction during the '87 campaign the Chargers won eight straight games, the club's longest winning streak in 26 seasons. He joined San Diego in '83 as receivers coach in what was one of the most exiting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. Behind Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Fouts and the Chargers electrifying receiving corps coached by Saunders, San Diego set numerous team records and led the league in passing and total offense in both '83 and '85.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California ('70-'71). He then coached receivers at Missouri ('72) before heading the offensive backfield at Utah State ('73-'75). He was an assistant head coach, quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at the University of California from '76-'81, leading an offense that set 32 national, conference, and school records. In '82, he served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the legendary Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee.

Born in London, England, he was one of only four foreign-born head coaches in NFL history after becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen in '60. A three-year starter, team captain, and Academic All-America pick as a defensive back at San Jose State ('66-'68), Saunders also played wide receiver for the Spartans and is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame. As a recipient of California's State Graduate Fellowship for Academic Excellence, he earned a Master's degree in education from Stanford University and was a doctoral candidate in athletic administration and sports management at USC.

Saunders has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community leadership and service in '89. A former All-America swimmer and national record holder, Saunders is also an accomplished distance runner. In '96, he competed in the Kansas City and Los Angeles Marathons, as well as the 100th running of the Boston Marathon and was also crowned the Road Runners Club of America's (R.R.C.A.) Masters 5K National Champion.

Coaching Career: University of Southern California 1970-'71; University of Missouri 1972; Utah State University 1973-'75; University of California 1976-'81; University of Tennessee 1982; San Diego Chargers 1983-'88 (head coach 1986-'88); Kansas City Chiefs 1989-'98; St. Louis Rams 1999-'00; rejoined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Stanford (M.A. '70), San Jose State (B.A. '69). Born: February 1, 1947 in London, England. Family: Wife - Karen; Children - sons Bob and Joe, and daughter Kori, who plays soccer at the University of Nebraska.

GREG ROBINSON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

13TH YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Respected as one of the most talented defensive tacticians in the game today, Greg Robinson enters his eighth year as an NFL defensive coordinator and his second season in that capacity for the Chiefs in 2002.

Owning 27 years of coaching expertise, the 50-year-old Robinson begins his 13th season in the NFL coaching ranks. Robinson came to Kansas City after a six-year stint ('95-'00) as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos.

Kansas City's defensive scheme frequently confounded opponents in 2001, a trend Robinson seeks to continue this season. The Chiefs established a franchise record with a six-game streak of first-quarter shutouts in 2001. On the year, Kansas City held opponents scoreless in the first quarter of eight games, including a string of seven straight contests without permitting a touchdown in the first 15 minutes. In total, Kansas City allowed just 43 points in the first quarter the entire season, the fourth-lowest total ever in a 16-game season in Chiefs history. While the Chiefs defense started fast under Robinson, his unit also finished strong with regularity. Kansas City permitted just one TD in the fourth quarter in seven of its final eight games in 2001, pitching fourth-quarter shutouts in five of those eight games.

Robinson joined the Chiefs after building his reputation as one of the league's top defensive coaches in Denver. With the Broncos he turned a struggling defense into a perennial championship contender. Robinson inherited a club which ranked last in total defense in '94 and made an immediate impact in his first season with the club, as the Broncos finished the '95 campaign 15th in the same category. By '96, he had turned the club into the league's fourth-rated defensive unit and by season number three in '97, the club was on its way to its first of two straight Super Bowl triumphs.

During his stellar six-season stay in Denver, the Broncos made four playoff appearances and claimed back-to-back World Championships with wins in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII, making them just one of six franchises in NFL history to accomplish a Super Bowl repeat. Over that six-year span, the Broncos compiled a 64-32 (.667) regular season record, including an NFL-best 33-15 (.688) mark against their divisional foes. Denver went 11-1 mark vs. Oakland and posted identical 9-3 ledgers against both San Diego and Seattle from '95-00. The only AFC West foe Denver had a losing record against during that span was Kansas City (4-8).

Robinson's experience, particularly against AFC West opponents, was a key factor in head coach Dick Vermeil's decision to bring the talented defensive coach to Kansas City, as well as his ability to consistently construct effective and opportunistic defensive squads. The Broncos produced a +28 turnover ratio in six seasons under Robinson and ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total defense during three of his six seasons at the club's defensive helm, finishing seventh in '99 (297.1 yards per game), fifth in '97 (291.9 ypg) and fourth in '96 (279.4 ypg).

The Broncos were among the NFL's top five teams in terms of turnover ratio three of his final four seasons with Denver. In 2000, the Broncos posted a +19 mark to rank second in the league behind only Baltimore (+23), while racking up 27 interceptions, just one shy of Miami's league-best total of 28. The Broncos defense was also responsible for scoring six touchdowns, the second-highest tally in team history. Five of those return scores came on interceptions, tying the team mark set by Robinson's '97 Denver squad.

Denver's defenses were also stingy in the scoring column during Robinson's reign with the Broncos, producing three top 10 rankings in the all-important scoring defense category - eighth in '98 (19.3 ppg), sixth in '97 (17.9 ppg) and seventh in '96 (17.2 ppg). The team's pass defense also ranked among the league's top 10 teams in four of Robinson's six seasons with Denver, finishing eighth in '99 (188.5 ypg), fifth in '97 (179.3 ypg), 10th in '96 (196.2 ypg) and ninth in '95 (206.1 ypg).

Most dominant defensive units typically begin with the ability to stop the run, something Robinson's units did with regularity in Denver. The Broncos run defense ranked in the league's top 10 three times during Robinson's tenure with the club. In '96, Denver led the NFL by permitting just 83.2 ground yards per game. Denver ranked third in the NFL in rushing defense in '98, allowing just 80.4 yards per game, breaking the single-season franchise record Robinson's troops had established just two years earlier. Over the final 11 games of the '98 regular season and playoffs, Denver allowed just 56.6 rushing yards per game and permitted just two individual 100-yard rushers.

The performance of Robinson's defense throughout the '98 playoffs was paramount to Denver's quest for a second straight title. The Broncos allowed opponents just 53.0 rushing yards per game in the postseason and forced a remarkable 13 turnovers in just three games, giving the Broncos an impressive +12 playoff turnover ratio. Including the +10 takeaway/giveaway ratio the club posted in the regular season, Denver boasted a +22 ratio for all of '98. In each of the Broncos first two postseason games, the defense allowed opponents a team playoff record low of 14 rushing yards. Over the course of the entire postseason, the Broncos defense allowed just 25 points, culminating with a 34-19 victory in Super Bowl XXXIII vs. Atlanta.

The Broncos defense was equally impressive in '97, when Denver won its first Super Bowl. Robinson crafted the gameplan in Super Bowl XXXII which controlled the explosive Green Bay offense, resulting in a 31-24 win. Robinson's defensive unit rose to the occasion when most challenged, limiting the Packers to an 0-of-8 showing on third and fourth down attempts.

Robinson's defenses in Denver also displayed a propensity for putting pressure on the passer. In '99, the Broncos amassed 50.0 sacks, the third-highest tally in team history and the most by the club since '92. From '97-00, Denver led the AFC with 185.0 sacks, a total which ranked third in the NFL behind only New Orleans (217.0) and St. Louis (196.0).

A number of current NFL standouts owe Robinson a debt of gratitude for his involvement in their development. During his tenure in Denver, Robinson's defense produced a host of Pro Bowl performers. Defensive tackle Trevor Pryce led the Broncos sack charge with 13.0 QB takedowns in '99 to earn his initial Pro Bowl berth and followed that up with another All-Star campaign in 2000 after posting a team-best 12.0 sacks. Robinson's '96 Denver defense produced five Pro Bowl performers, including LB Bill Romanowski, S Steve Atwater, S Tyrone Braxton, DT Michael Dean Perry and DE Alfred Williams.

Robinson joined the Broncos after a five-year stint with the N.Y. Jets ('90-94). He coached the defensive line from '90-93 and served as defensive coordinator in '94 when the Jets ranked eighth in the league by permitting just 20.0 points per game. Turnovers and a stingy run defense were also a staple of Robinson's defense at his first NFL stop. During his last four years in New York, the Jets defense forced 151 turnovers, most in the AFC and second-most in the NFL during that span. They also improved from 27th in the league in total defense in '89 to eighth in '93. New York's rush defense also showed significant improvement, jumping to a fifth-place ranking (92.1 ypg) after allowing 133.5 yards per game in '89.

The Los Angeles native spent his first 15 years of coaching in the collegiate ranks and entered the NFL after an eight-year stint at UCLA ('82-89). Robinson was a member of three Rose Bowl champion squads during his tenure with the Bruins, following the '82, '83 and '85 seasons. He joins the trio of the Chiefs President Peterson, head coach Dick Vermeil and Vice President of Football Operations Lynn Stiles as former UCLA coaches now with the Chiefs who were part of a Bruins victory in the Rose Bowl. Robinson was the Bruins defensive line coach from '82-88 before switching sides of the ball and serving as offensive coordinator in '89. He had been promoted to assistant head coach for the '90 season, but opted to join the Jets instead.

Robinson began his collegiate playing career as a linebacker at Bakersfield Community College from '70-71 before moving on to play center, tight end and linebacker at the University of the Pacific ('72-74). After earning his bachelor's degree in political science in '75, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pacific in '75-76. He made stops at Cal State Fullerton ('77-79) and North Carolina State ('80-81) before moving on to UCLA in '82.

Coaching Career: University of the Pacific 1975-76; California State University - Fullerton 1977-79; North Carolina State University 1980-81; University of California - Los Angeles 1982-89; New York Jets 1990-94; Denver Broncos 1995-00; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of the Pacific (B.S. '75). Born: October 9, 1951 in Los Angeles, California. Family: Wife - Laura; Children - Dominic, Lindsay and Leslie Ann.

IRV EATMAN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

4TH YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Owning five years of experience as a Chiefs player, Irv Eatman returned to Kansas City in 2001 as the team's assistant offensive line coach and enters his second season in that capacity this year. Eatman spent five seasons as an offensive tackle for the Chiefs from '86-90 after originally being drafted by the club in '83.

Eatman is now in his fourth year as a pro coach and returned to Kansas City to help Mike Solari tutor the Chiefs offensive front. In 2001, Kansas City's offensive line helped pave the way for Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes, who won the NFL's rushing title with 1,555 yards. Prior to joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Eatman spent the 2000 campaign as an assistant offensive line coach with Pittsburgh after serving in the same role for Green Bay in '99. With Eatman's assistance, Pittsburgh's ground attack ranked fourth in the NFL in 2000, averaging 140.5 yards per game, a 16.1 yards per game improvement from '99 when the Steelers ranked 10th in the league.

The 41-year-old Eatman provides a valuable resource for the Chiefs offensive line, owning 14 years of professional playing experience, including 11 seasons in the NFL. Originally drafted by Kansas City in the eighth round of the '83 NFL Draft, Eatman signed with the USFL and was a three-time All-Pro offensive tackle ('83-85) for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars where Chiefs President Carl Peterson was President/General Manager at the time.

During his three-year run with the Stars, Eatman was part of a squad which posted a league-best 48-13-1 overall record, including a remarkable 7-1 postseason mark. The Stars appeared in all three of the league's championship games and claimed the final two USFL titles in '84 and '85. In addition, Eatman was named the USFL Man of the Year for his charitable efforts following the '84 campaign.

Following his tenure in the USFL and a five-year stay in Kansas City, Eatman went on to play with the N.Y. Jets ('91-92), L.A. Rams ('93), Atlanta Falcons ('94) and Houston Oilers ('95-96). In total, the Birmingham, Alabama native played in 149 regular season NFL contests and saw postseason duty with both the Chiefs in '90 and the Jets in '91.

Eatman attended UCLA where he was a two-time Lombardi Award semi-finalist, three-time honorable mention All-America selection and a two-time All-Pac 10 pick. As a senior in '82, he played on the Bruins squad which claimed a 24-14 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl victory. Current Kansas City defensive coordinator Greg Robinson was also at UCLA at the time, serving as the Bruins defensive line coach.

Coaching Career: Green Bay Packers 1999; Pittsburgh Steelers 2000; joined Chiefs in 2001.

Education: University of California - Los Angeles. Born: January 1, 1961 in Birmingham, Alabama.

Family: Wife - Maureen; Children - Joshua, Emma and Lucas.

FRANK GANSZ, JR.

SPECIAL TEAMS

4TH YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Frank Gansz, Jr. enters his second season with Kansas City serving as the club's special teams coach. Embarking on his 15th season in the coaching profession, Gansz is in his fourth NFL campaign after serving a two-year stint directing Oakland's special teams from '98-99.

Under his direction in 2001, Kansas City's specialty units blocked two punts and partially blocked another, marking the first time the club had registered a pair of punt blocks in a single season since '97. Meanwhile, the Chiefs extended their streak of games without allowing a blocked punt to 32 games, while Kansas City's five touchbacks on punts were the club's fewest since '98. P Dan Stryzinski registered 27 punts inside the 20, the fourth-highest single-season tally in Chiefs history and K Todd Peterson connected on 27 FGs, which tied as the third-highest seasonal mark in Kansas City annals.

In addition, Kansas City's Dante Hall developed into one of the league's most exciting young return threats in 2001. During his tenure with the Raiders, Gansz tutored some of the league's top return threats in Desmond Howard, Darrien Gordon and Napoleon Kaufman. In '98, Howard ranked fifth in the AFC with a 12.0-yard punt return average.

The 39-year-old Gansz joined Oakland following a five-year stay at the University of Houston ('93-97) where he served as the club's tight ends and special teams coach. In '96 under Gansz the Cougars established a school single-season record for highest kickoff return average. Thanks in part to Gansz's special teams unit, Houston claimed a share of the Conference USA title while appearing in the Liberty Bowl following the '96 season.

Gansz's first job in the professional ranks came in '92 where he was the special teams coach for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (now NFL Europe). During his lone season with the Knights, Gansz's kickoff coverage, kickoff return and punt return units led the league as his squad tallied four special teams scores.

Prior to joining the Knights, Gansz served a pair of two-year stints at the collegiate level, coaching at both Pittsburgh ('88-89) and Army ('90-91). At Pitt, Gansz was part of a staff which helped guide the Panthers to a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the '89 John Hancock Bowl. Gansz broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas ('87). Prior to embarking on his coaching career, Gansz was a four-year performer as a defensive back at The Citadel.

Gansz's father, Frank Sr. retired following the 2001 season following 24 seasons in the NFL coaching ranks, most recently as the special teams coordinator for Jacksonville from 2000-01. The elder Gansz was twice named the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year ('89, '99) and spent five seasons ('81-82, '86-88) on the Chiefs coaching staff, including a two-year stint ('87-88) as Kansas City's head coach. It was thanks in large part to Gansz's instruction that the Chiefs blocked or deflected an NFL-record 10 kicks in '86 as the team ended a 15-year playoff drought. In the only head-to-head regular season meeting between Gansz, Jr. and his father, the younger Gansz and the Chiefs prevailed by a 30-26 margin at Jacksonville in 2001.

Coaching Career: University of Kansas 1987; University of Pittsburgh 1988-89; Army 1990-91; New York/New Jersey Knights 1992; University of Houston 1993-97; Oakland Raiders 1998-99; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: The Citadel (B.A. '85). Born: August 8, 1962 in Greenville, South Carolina. Family: Single.

PETER GIUNTA

DEFENSIVE BACKS

12TH YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Beginning his 12th NFL season and his 22nd year in the coaching profession overall, Peter Giunta enters his second season as the Chiefs defensive backs coach in 2002. The 45-year-old coach joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons ('97-00) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in '98-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in '97.

During his initial season with the Chiefs in 2001, Kansas City was the only team in the NFL that did not permit a pass play of 50 yards or more, while the club's secondary allowed six fewer TD passes than it did in 2000. As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's remarkable run to a World Championship in '99. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record that year and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in '99, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking sixth in total defense by permitting a mere 293.6 yards per contest.

The Rams '99 defense led the NFC with 29 interceptions, a figure which ranked second in the NFL behind only Seattle (30). CB Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the NFL lead with six pickoffs, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven INTs and two fumbles) for touchdowns in '99. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Jacksonville for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 QB takedowns.

Giunta also has a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs under his jurisdiction and stifling opponents' passing attacks. In 2000, Rams CB Dexter McCleon registered eight interceptions, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay S Jamie Sharper, who had nine. During his first season as the Rams defensive coordinator in '98, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in '97 the Rams snared 25 INTs, a figure topped only by the Giants (27). Giunta's star pupil that season was CB Ryan McNeil, who led the league with nine interceptions.

Prior to joining the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the N.Y. Jets from '95-96. In his initial campaign with that club, the Jets defense led the league in pass defense (171.3 ypg). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of CB Aaron Glenn, who would go on to become the only Pro Bowl corner in Jets history, getting All-Star nods in '97 and '98.

A native of Salem, Massachusetts, Giunta's first NFL coaching position came coaching defensive backs for Philadelphia from '91-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 ypg), rushing defense (71.0 ypg) and total defense (221.8 ypg). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since '75 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State ('81-83). During his first year on Joe Paterno's staff, Giunta was a defensive assistant before coaching the tight ends for his final two seasons. While at Penn State, the Nittany Lions claimed the '82 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. In all, Penn State would claim three bowl victories during Giunta's tenure ('82 Fiesta, '83 Sugar and '83 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved on to Brown ('84-87) where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator ('86-87). Giunta then moved onto Lehigh ('88-90) where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers. After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern ('74-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he guided Swampscott High School from '78-80.

Coaching Career: Penn State University 1981-83; Brown University 1984-87; Lehigh University 1988-1990; Philadelphia Eagles 1991-94; New York Jets 1995-96; St. Louis Rams 1997-00; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Penn State University (M.A. '83), Northeastern University (B.S. '79). Born: August 11, 1956 in Salem, Massachusetts. Family: Wife - Cindy; Children - Christina, John and D.J.

CARL HAIRSTON

DEFENSIVE LINE

8TH YEAR NFL COACH (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

A familiar face in the Chiefs organization, Carl "Big Daddy" Hairston returned to Arrowhead Stadium for his second tour of duty on the Kansas City coaching staff in 2001. Entering his eighth season as an NFL defensive line coach, Hairston previously coached Kansas City's defensive front from '95-96.

Hairston's return to the Arrowhead sidelines produced substantial dividends for the Chiefs in 2001. The penetration of Kansas City's defensive line was a key factor in stopping 74 rushing plays behind the line of scrimmage, a total which ranked as the NFL's second-highest mark a year ago. DEs Eric Hicks and Duane Clemons continued to evolve with Hairston's assistance, while rookie DT Eric Downing benefited greatly from Hairston's 15 years of NFL playing experience at the position. The winner of the club's 2001 Mack Lee Hill Award winner, Downing appears to hold plenty of promise after starting the final nine games a year ago.

The 49-year old coach rejoined the Chiefs following a four-year stint ('97-00) as the defensive line coach for St. Louis under head coach Dick Vermeil. In 2000, Hairston tutored a pair of players who each topped the double-digit sack mark, DEs Kevin Carter (10.5) and Grant Wistrom (11.0). Miami, New Orleans, Tampa Bay and Washington were the only four other clubs to boast a pair of defensive linemen with 10.0 or more QB takedowns that season.

During the Rams 13-3 season in '99 when the club claimed the Super Bowl XXXIV title, St. Louis tied Jacksonville for the league lead with 57.0 sacks, thanks in large part to Hairston's front four. Carter led the league with 17.0 sacks and joined teammate DT D'Marco Farr in the Pro Bowl. Behind Carter's 12.0 sacks in '98, only the N.Y. Giants (54.0), Seattle (53.0) and San Francisco (51.0) produced more sacks than St. Louis (50.0). In '97, Hairston's defensive front was anchored by DE Leslie O'Neal who produced 10.0 sacks, marking the seventh double-digit sack tally of his illustrious NFL career.

Hairston began his coaching career as the defensive line coach under then-Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer in '95. In his two years on the Chiefs staff ('95-96), Hairston helped guide one of the fiercest defensive fronts in football. The Chiefs compiled a 13-3 record and won the AFC West title in '95, ranking second in the AFC and third in the NFL with 47.0 sacks. Under the watchful eye of Hairston, Kansas City DE Neil Smith lead the team with 12.0 QB takedowns to earn a Pro Bowl nod, while DT Dan Saleaumua also received a Pro Bowl invitation for his efforts.

Hairston originally joined the Chiefs in '94 as a pro scout in the club's player personnel department and also assisted with the defensive line coaching duties during training camp that season. Prior to his time in Kansas City, Hairston spent three seasons ('91-93) as a college scout for the Arizona Cardinals.

One of the finest defensive ends of his era, Hairston enjoyed a stellar 15-year pro playing career. He appeared in 224 NFL contests (184 starts), registering 1,141 tackles and 94.0 sacks. He played eight seasons in Philadelphia ('77-83), six years in Cleveland ('84-89) and one season with Arizona ('90) during his tenure in the league.

A seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) of the Philadelphia Eagles and first-year NFL head coach Dick Vermeil in '76, Hairston went on to start all eight seasons he was in Philadelphia, captaining the defense from '79-83 and racking up 100 or more tackles five straight years ('77-81). In '79, he led the Eagles and the NFC with a career-best 15.0 sacks. A year later, Hairston served as a starting defensive end for Vermeil's Eagles in Super Bowl XV against the Oakland Raiders. In total, the Martinsville, Virginia product participated in 15 career playoff contests, including four conference championship games ('80 NFC, '86 AFC, '87 AFC and '89 AFC).

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive end at Maryland-Eastern Shore, Hairston earned collegiate All-Conference honors on three occasions and also played one season of basketball.

Coaching Career: Kansas City Chiefs 1995-96; St. Louis Rams 1997-00; rejoined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of Maryland Eastern Shore (B.A. '85). Born: December 15, 1952 in Martinsville, Virginia. Family: Children - Carl, Jr. and Crystal.

JEFF HURD

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

8TH YEAR NFL COACH (5TH WITH CHIEFS)

Jeff Hurd returns to the Chiefs this season for his fifth campaign as Kansas City's head strength and conditioning coach. A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Hurd owns 19 years of experience in the health and fitness field. He joined the Chiefs in '98 after spending the previous three seasons ('95-97) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars under head coach Tom Coughlin.

In his position with the Chiefs, Hurd is responsible for overseeing one of the league's most highly-attended NFL off-season conditioning programs which puts an emphasis on not only improving strength and cardiovascular endurance, but also enhancing speed and flexibility. He also supervises the club's personalized in-season training regiment designed to maintain those off-season gains.

The 44-year-old Hurd was already a familiar face in the Chiefs weight room before joining Kansas City's coaching staff on a full-time basis in '98. He worked under the direction of former Chiefs and current San Diego Chargers strength coach Dave Redding for three seasons ('90-92) as a strength and conditioning assistant during training camp and also served as an intern with the Kansas City strength coaches in '93 and '94.

Raised in Parker, Arizona, Hurd was a two-year baseball letterman at Imperial Valley Junior College in El Centro, California before transferring to Fort Hays (Kansas) State where he earned two more letters and graduated with a degree in physical education in '81. He also received a master's degree in physical education from Fort Hays with an emphasis in exercise physiology in '84, the same year he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant strength coach for the Tigers. After leaving Fort Hays, Hurd served as the head strength coach for Delta State ('85-86), Western Michigan ('87-93) and Tulsa ('94), in addition to a stint as the assistant strength and conditioning tutor at Clemson ('86-87) before joining the Jaguars in '95.

Coaching Career: Fort Hays State University 1984; Delta State University 1985-86; Clemson University 1986-87; Western Michigan University 1987-93; University of Tulsa 1994; Jacksonville Jaguars 1995-97; joined Chiefs in 1998. Education: Fort Hays State University (B.S. '81), (M.S. '84). Born: April 24, 1958 in Pomona, California. Family: Wife - Kathy; Children - Eric, Austin and Audra.

CHARLIE JOINER

WIDE RECEIVERS

16TH YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Charlie Joiner brings 33 years of expertise as an NFL player and coach to the Chiefs organization. He embarks on his second season as the club's wide receivers coach in 2002, entering his 16th year as an NFL coach. Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2001, he spent nine seasons ('92-00) coaching wide receivers for the Buffalo Bills. During that span, Buffalo merited six playoff berths, won two AFC Championships and made appearances in Super Bowls XXVII and XXVIII with Joiner on the club's coaching staff.

In his initial season with the Chiefs in 2001, Joiner worked with a Kansas City receiving corps that saw five different players start due to a myriad of injuries. However, Joiner is credited with the rapid development of 2001 third-round draftee, Marvin Minnis, whose 33 catches were the fifth-highest tally ever posted by a Chiefs rookie wide receiver. Joiner also quickly integrated mid-season acquisition Eddie Kennison into the line-up and should have an influx of new talent at his disposal in 2002, including free agent signee Johnnie Morton and WR Sylvester Morris who is expected to return after missing the entire 2001 season with a knee injury.

Two of Joiner's star pupils during his nine-year stay in Buffalo were Eric Moulds and Andre Reed. Moulds earned a pair of Pro Bowl appearances under Joiner's guidance, getting his initial bid in '98 when he recorded 67 catches for a team-record 1,368 yards and nine TDs. In 2000, he was selected to his second Pro Bowl after breaking Reed's single-season reception record with 94 catches for 1,326 yards and five scores. Reed, who played with Buffalo from '85-99, holds Bills career records for receptions (941), receiving yards (13,095) and receiving TDs (86). He ranks second in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice in both receptions and seasons with 50 or more catches (13).

Prior to joining the Bills, Joiner served five seasons ('87-91) as the San Diego Chargers receivers coach upon concluding his playing career with the club in '86. In Kansas City he is reunited with Chiefs offensive coordinator Al Saunders, who began his NFL coaching career tutoring Joiner and the rest of the Chargers wideouts in '83. Joiner succeeded Saunders as the club's receivers coach in '87 when Saunders was promoted to head coach during the midpoint of Joiner's final campaign as a player in '86.

Among the receivers tutored by Joiner in San Diego was Anthony Miller, who earned back-to-back Pro Bowl berths following the '89 and '90 seasons. Miller enjoyed one of the finest campaigns of his 10-year NFL career under Joiner in '89, hauling in 75 passes for a career-high 1,252 yards and 10 TDs for the Chargers.

An 18-year NFL playing veteran, Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '96 following a career which included stints with the Houston Oilers ('69-72), Cincinnati Bengals ('72-75) and Chargers ('76-86). He played in 239 career regular season contests, the most ever by an NFL wide receiver. He also saw action in nine career postseason contests, including the '80 and '81 AFC Championship Games. He ended his career with 750 catches for 12,146 yards (both NFL all-time records at the time) and 65 TDs. Joiner earned Pro Bowl honors following the '76, '79 and '80 seasons. He was named the Chargers Most Inspirational Player seven times and was twice honored by the City of San Diego on "Charlie Joiner Day" in '84 and '86.

Joiner produced four 1,000-yard seasons during his tenure in San Diego and topped the 70-catch barrier three straight seasons from '79-81. Part of one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, Joiner's biggest years came in the heyday of the "Air Coryell" offense playing along with fellow Pro Football Hall of Famers QB Dan Fouts and TE Kellen Winslow, as well as fellow Pro Bowl wideouts, Wes Chandler and John Jefferson.

The Many, Louisiana native was a four-year letterman at Grambling from '65-68. He was selected in the fourth round of the '69 draft by Houston as a defensive back and was traded to Cincinnati midway through the '72 campaign for RBs Fred Willis and Paul Robinson. He was traded to San Diego in '76 in exchange for DE Coy Bacon. Joiner was inducted into the Louisiana Hall of Fame in '90 and was officially enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 27, 1996, becoming just the 13th post-World War II receiver to be honored in Canton.

Coaching Career: San Diego Chargers 1987-91; Buffalo Bills 1992-00; joined Chiefs in 2001.
Education: Grambling State (B.A. '69). Born: October 14, 1947 in Many, Louisiana. Family: Wife - Dianne; Children - Jynaya and Kori.

BOB KARMELOWICZ

DEFENSIVE LINE

11TH YEAR NFL COACH (6TH WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 11th season in the NFL and his 28th year overall in the coaching profession, Bob Karmelowicz begins his sixth campaign as Kansas City's defensive line coach in 2002. Prior to joining the Chiefs staff in '97, he spent three years with the Washington Redskins ('94-96) and two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93).

A former collegiate nose tackle, Karmelowicz brings a wealth of expertise, as well as a unique and enthusiastic style to his post. Among the many novel coaching techniques utilized by the ever-crafty Karmelowicz is an off-season training regiment which has included the use of the martial arts to enhance the footwork, hand-eye coordination and the leverage abilities of his linemen.

Thanks in large part to the play of Kansas City's defensive front, the Chiefs ranked second in the NFL forcing 74 negative rushing plays in 2001, a total topped only by Tennessee (75). DEs Eric Hicks and Duane Clemons also continued their productive ways. Clemons led the club with 7.0 sacks in 2001 after racking up a career-high 7.5 sacks the previous year, while Hicks followed up a stellar effort in 2000 with a career-high 93 tackles and a team-high 11 QB pressures a year ago.

The Chiefs defensive line also included the club's 2001 Mack Lee Hill Award winner, DT Eric Downing. The contribution of the third-round draft choice out of Syracuse became vital when veteran DT John Browning was lost to injury just six games into the season. Karmelowicz and Carl Hairston quickly assimilated Downing into the defense and he responded by making rapid strides and starting the club's final nine games, the highest tally by a Chiefs rookie DT since '84.

In addition to Downing, Karmelowicz has molded other young players into productive performers. After joining the Chiefs as a rookie free agent in '98, Hicks started all 16 games for the club at right defensive end in '99. Under Karmelowicz's guidance in 2000, the Maryland product made another substantial leap. Despite missing five starts due to a knee injury, the upstart defensive end still ranked sixth in the NFL with a team-high 14.0 sacks, the seventh-highest single-season total in Chiefs history. Karmelowicz is also highly regarded for his development of former Chiefs DT Tom Barndt, who started 40 games at defensive tackle for Kansas City from '97-99 after originally being drafted by the club as an offensive line prospect in '95.

Impressive play on the defensive line has long been a Kansas City trademark. That production was evident when Karmelowicz's corps helped the Chiefs produce 51.0 sacks in 2000, an improvement of 11.0 QB takedowns from the previous year. The Chiefs defensive line was responsible for 40.0 of those sacks, matching the total produced by the entire team in '99, an amazing feat considering the rash of injuries on the club's defensive front in 2000. Those 51.0 sacks also ranked fourth in the NFL and were the third-highest tally in Kansas City history. In Karmelowicz's previous five seasons with the club, the Chiefs produced two of the three highest sack counts in team history, totaling 54.0 sacks in '97 in addition to the 51.0 produced in 2000.

In his initial season with the Chiefs in '97, the club's revamped defensive front coached by Karmelowicz was a key element of NFL's stingiest scoring defense. The club racked up 54.0 sacks, the second-highest total in franchise history, a figure which also tied for third-best mark in the league. That pass rush was led by Dan Williams who paced the team with a career best 10.5 sacks in just his first year with the club. The team improved in stuffing the run as well in '97, yielding just 101.3 yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and seventh in the league.

Karmelowicz has traditionally maximized the talents at his disposal, something he has done in his previous coaching assignments. In three seasons with Washington ('94-96), he worked with the likes of tackle Sean Gilbert and current Chiefs defensive end Rich Owens, who led the Redskins with 11.0 sacks in '96, just his second pro campaign. During his three years ('89-91) coaching the defensive line at the University of Miami (Fla.), he helped produce a pair of top-three overall draft picks in Russell Maryland (first overall in '91) and Cortez Kennedy (third overall in '90). His defensive line was also a key link in a Hurricanes squad which led the nation in total defense in '89 and topped the country in scoring defense in '91.

The Plainville, Connecticut product began his career in the professional ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93) after spending 16 seasons on the collegiate level. Prior to his three years at Miami, Karmelowicz enjoyed stints at Massachusetts ('80), Texas-El Paso ('81), Illinois ('82-86) and Washington State ('87-88). A three-year starter and a consensus Little All-America nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, Karmelowicz began his coaching career under Frank Kush at Arizona State in '75 and went on to spend five seasons ('75-79) with the Sun Devils.

Coaching Career: Arizona State University 1975-79; University of Massachusetts 1980; University of Texas - El Paso 1981; University of Illinois 1982-86; Washington State University 1987-88; University of Miami (Fla.) 1989-91; Cincinnati Bengals 1992-93; Washington Redskins 1994-96; joined Chiefs in 1997. Education: Arizona State University (M.A. '77); University of Bridgeport (B.A. '72). Born: New Britain, Connecticut. Family: Wife - Olga; Children - Liz, Marissa and Dave.

BILLY LONG

ASST. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

2ND YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his second full season in the NFL, Billy Long serves as the Chiefs assistant strength and conditioning coach. Long assists Jeff Hurd in the implementation of Kansas City's year-round conditioning and training regiment. He came to the Chiefs in 2001 following a nine-year stay ('92-00) at Southern University where he served as the school's strength and conditioning coach and also coached the club's offensive line.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, Long served as a longtime consultant to the St. Louis Rams organization. He originally worked with the club as the team's minority coaching intern in '94 and served as a consultant to the club since '95, working primarily during the club's training camp held at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Illinois. His arrival in Kansas City reunited Long with Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil, who served as the Rams head coach from '97-99.

While working with the Rams, Long became a mainstay in the locker room and was credited with initiating the "Gotta go to work!" mantra, which became a battle cry for the Rams during their Super Bowl XXXIV championship season in '99. In addition to his training camp assistance, Long frequently traveled to St. Louis to help the team prepare prior to regular season contests.

Owning 20 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, Long spent four years serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator and coaching the offensive line at Arkansas - Pine Bluff from '87-91. A collegiate guard at Alabama State, Long began his coaching career at his alma mater in '81, serving as defensive line coach and as the club's strength and conditioning coach. From '82-86 he coached the offensive line in addition to his weight room duties with Alabama State.

Coaching Career: Alabama State University 1981-86; University of Arkansas - Pine Bluff 1987-91; Southern University 1992-00; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Alabama State University (B.S. '81). Born: June 23, 1959 in Phenix City, Alabama. Family: Wife - Marshelle; Children - Tekia and Kyler.

KEITH ROWEN

TIGHT ENDS

19TH YEAR NFL COACH (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 19th season in the NFL ranks and his 28th year in the coaching profession, Keith Rowen enters his fourth season as the Chiefs tight ends coach in 2002. Rowen came to Kansas City in '99 after spending the previous two years as the offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders.

While Rowen has a long history of tutoring blocking skills in the NFL, he has also shown a propensity for getting pass-catching production out of the tight end position. By far the brightest pass receiver this veteran coach has tutored is Chiefs TE Tony Gonzalez, who has enjoyed three consecutive Pro Bowl campaigns, all of which have come under Rowen's guidance.

A consensus All-Pro selection the past three years, Gonzalez became the first-ever Chiefs tight end to receive a Pro Bowl invitation after catching 76 passes in '99, the second-highest total by any player in Kansas City annals. Gonzalez's 11 TD catches ranked just one shy of the franchise single-season record, as well. In 2000, Gonzalez took his game to an even higher level, again earning a starting role in the Pro Bowl. The fourth-year tight end shattered the franchise single-season record with 93 receptions and had 1,203 yards, the most ever by a Chiefs tight end, the fourth-highest total by a tight end in NFL annals and the fourth-best mark of any player in the Kansas City books. Gonzalez also established an NFL record for tight ends in 2000 by producing six 100-yard receiving games, a mark which tied as the most ever by any Chiefs receiver.

In 2001, Gonzalez led the club in receptions for the third consecutive year and tied for the NFL lead among tight ends with 73 receptions, while his 917 receiving yards led the Chiefs and were the best total by any tight end in the league.

During his two seasons with the Raiders, the 49-year-old Rowen helped rejuvenate Oakland's ground game, as running back Napoleon Kaufman racked up 2,215 yards those two years, including a career-high 1,294 yards in '97, while guard Steve Wisniewski earned a Pro Bowl berth under his tutelage that same year.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rowen spent three years as an offensive line coach with the Minnesota Vikings from '94-96 and four seasons ('90-93) in that same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. During Rowen's three-year tenure with the Vikings, guard Randall McDaniel earned All-Pro honors and started in three Pro Bowls. He was also instrumental in the development of future Vikings Pro Bowl offensive linemen Jeff Christy and Todd Steussie. In '91, Falcons tackle Chris Hinton received Pro Bowl recognition under Rowen's tutelage after receiving that same honor four straight seasons ('85-88) with Rowen serving as the offensive line/special teams coach for the Indianapolis Colts. In '90, Rowen also coached special teams for the Falcons, whose specialty units ranked as the best in the league by The Dallas Morning News. During his first stint as an NFL tight ends coach with New England in '89, Rowen helped rookie TE Eric Sievers from Maryland lead the Patriots in receiving with 54 catches.

A native of New York, New York, Rowen began his pro career as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the USFL's Boston/New Orleans Breakers for two seasons ('83-84). He then entered the NFL ranks in '84 as the running backs coach for the Cleveland Browns, where he worked with current Chiefs defensive assistant/quality control coach Darvin Wallis.

A three-year letterman as a tackle at Stanford from '72-74, Rowen earned All-America honors during his senior campaign. Rowen then began his coaching career at his alma mater in '75 as the team's assistant defensive line coach. After a two-year stint ('75-76) at Stanford, Rowen moved to Long Beach State as the offensive line coach for two years ('77-78) before spending the '79-82 seasons in that same capacity at the University of Arizona.

An 11th-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in '75, Rowen remained with the Eagles until that year's final cut before beginning his coaching career at Stanford. An academic All-America at Stanford, Rowen earned a master's degree from that institution in '77 and also holds a doctorate in athletic administration from the University of Southern California. He comes from a football background as his father, Vic, served as the longtime head football coach at San Francisco State.

Coaching Career: Stanford University 1975-76; Long Beach State University 1977-78; University of Arizona 1979-82; USFL Boston/New Orleans Breakers 1983-84; Cleveland Browns 1984; Indianapolis Colts 1985-88; New England Patriots 1989; Atlanta Falcons 1990-93; Minnesota Vikings 1994-96; Oakland Raiders 1997-98; joined Chiefs in 1999. Education: University of Southern California (Ph.D. '80), Stanford University (M.A. '77), (B.S. '75). Born: September 2, 1952 in New York, New York. Family: Children - Mandee, Holly and Kelly.

JAMES SAXON

RUNNING BACKS

3RD YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Former Chiefs running back James Saxon begins his third season as an NFL coach in 2002 as he embarks on his second year of tutoring Kansas City's running backs. Entering his sixth season of coaching overall, Saxon spent 2000 as the running backs coach of the Buffalo Bills. He returned to Kansas City in 2001 after enjoying a four-year playing career with the club from '88-91.

Saxon's debut as a member of the Chiefs coaching staff coincided with the finest season ever constructed by a Kansas City running back as Priest Holmes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher since Barry Word in '91 and the club's first Pro Bowl RB since Marcus Allen in '93. Under Saxon's tutelage, Holmes shattered the club's single-season rushing record with 1,555 yards, becoming just the second player in team history to lead the league in rushing. Ironically, Saxon also had a hand in Christian Okoye's league-leading effort in '89, serving as the lead blocker for Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee who paced the NFL in rushing with a then-team record 1,480 yards.

However, Holmes' performance wasn't limited to just ground superiority. He broke six different Chiefs single-season records, including total yards from scrimmage (2,169) and registered 614 receiving yards - the most ever in a season by a Chiefs running back. Behind Holmes and immensely talented FB Tony Richardson, Kansas City finished the season third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in rushing, producing 125.5 yards per game.

Prior to joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Saxon began his NFL coaching career on a full-time basis with Buffalo in 2000. He originally joined the Bills in '99 as part of the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Coaching Fellowship, which is designed to give deserving minority coaches the opportunity to gain pro coaching experience. Saxon received his initial pro coaching experience serving in a similar training camp capacity with the Chiefs in '98.

Prior to entering the pro ranks, Saxon coached the running backs at Rutgers from '97-98, where current Chiefs quarterbacks coach Terry Shea served as head coach at the time. While with the Scarlet Knights, Saxon mentored RB Jackie Crooks who finished his career as the fifth-leading rusher in school history (2,434 yards). In '99, Saxon served as an volunteer assistant at Menlo College in Atherton, California, before joining the Bills.

An eight-year NFL playing veteran, Saxon was drafted in the sixth round (139th overall) of the '88 draft by the Chiefs. As a rookie with Kansas City, he made an immediate impact and received the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award, which is bestowed annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer. During his time with the Chiefs ('88-91), Saxon played in 54 games (six starts), rushing 127 times for 497 yards with five TDs. He also accumulated 37 receptions for 323 yards and had 14 kickoff returns for 193 yards with Kansas City.

Saxon joined Miami as a "Plan B" free agent in '92. In three seasons with the Dolphins ('92-94), he played in 48 games (seven starts), registering 17 carries for 36 yards to go with 32 catches for 192 yards. He also amassed 24 tackles on special teams for the Dolphins. He returned to the Chiefs for training camp in '95, but was acquired by Philadelphia prior to the start of the regular season and played in nine contests for the Eagles.

During the course of his 111-game NFL career, the versatile Saxon was utilized as a fullback, halfback, receiver, blocker, kickoff returner and special teams coverage man. He concluded his career with 533 rushing yards on 145 carries with five TDs while also hauling in 69 receptions for 515 yards.

A native of Beaufort, South Carolina, Saxon was an honorable mention All-America fullback at San Jose State, where he produced 118 carries for 609 yards and nine TDs, as well as 78 receptions for 732 yards and four scores. He also threw four TD passes and returned 22 kickoffs. Saxon was a prep standout at Battery Creek High School in Burton, South Carolina before entering the collegiate ranks.

Coaching Career: Rutgers University 1997-98; Menlo College (volunteer) 1999; Buffalo Bills 2000; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: San Jose State. Born: March 23, 1966 in Beaufort, South Carolina. Family: Wife – Shannon; Child – Devin.

TERRY SHEA

QUARTERBACKS

2ND YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Owning an extensive offensive resume with 33 years of coaching experience, Terry Shea embarks on his second season as Kansas City's quarterbacks coach in 2002. Shea comes from the offensive school of Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh and has been particularly adept at grooming players at the quarterback position during his distinguished coaching career.

In 2001, Shea turned his talents to tutoring Chiefs QB Trent Green, whose 3,783 passing yards ranked as the third-highest season tally in team history. Green led the AFC by averaging 12.78 yards per completion in 2001, a mark topped by only St. Louis' Kurt Warner (12.88). The Chiefs signal-caller also recorded two of the top three single-game completion percentages in team history this past year, including a 17-of-21 (80.95%) effort in a 45-13 victory at Washington (9/30/01).

During his collegiate coaching career, Shea was instrumental in the tutelage of numerous signal-callers who went on to enjoy productive NFL careers. Shea's most recent pupil to burst upon the NFL scene is San Francisco's two-time Pro Bowl QB Jeff Garcia, who played for Shea during his two-year stint as head coach at San Jose State in '90-91.

In total, Shea owns a total of seven seasons of experience as a collegiate head coach. He came to Kansas City in 2001 after spending five years ('96-00) as the head coach at Rutgers University. He also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Scarlet Knights. In '98, he was named the Big East Coach of the Year after orchestrating the second-biggest one-year turnaround in NCAA Division I history by taking a team which finished 0-11 in '97 and producing a 5-6 mark just a year later. During two of his seasons at Rutgers ('97-98) current Chiefs running backs coach James Saxon served in the same capacity for Shea.

Prior to a one-year stint as the quarterbacks and running backs coach of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions in '95, Shea spent three seasons ('92-94) as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator under head coach Bill Walsh at Stanford. In Shea's initial season with the Cardinal, Stanford won its first conference title since '71 and earned a berth in the '93 Blockbuster Bowl against Penn State. The Cardinal would go on to conclude the year with a 10-3 mark, the first 10-win season the institution had seen since '40, thanks in large part to Shea's offensive unit which produced a 24-3 postseason victory over the Nittany Lions.

Shea joined the Cardinal after his two-year head coaching stint at San Jose State from '90-91 where he compiled a 15-6-2 record and led the school to a pair of Big West titles. In his initial year as head coach at San Jose State in '90, he guided the team to a 9-2-1 record and was named Pro Football Weekly's "National Coach of the Year." Shea is part of a distinguished list of Chiefs personnel with connections to San Jose State, where head coach Dick Vermeil played quarterback from '56-58, Director of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles served as head coach from '76-78 and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders played wide receiver and defensive back from '66-69.

Shea had previously served as offensive coordinator at San Jose State from '84-86. In '86, his Spartan offense led the nation in both total offense and passing offense. Between his stints at San Jose State, he spent three years ('87-89) as the offensive coordinator at the University of California under head coach Bruce Snyder.

The San Mateo, California native began his Division I coaching career at Utah State and coached the secondary, special teams, quarterbacks and receivers during his tenure with that team from '76-81. Two of his star quarterbacking pupils at Utah State were Eric Hipple and Bob Gagliano who each went on to pursue NFL playing careers. Shea joined Utah State after a six-year stint at Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham, Oregon from '70-75, where he coached the passing game, the secondary and special teams.

Shea served as a college quarterback at the University of Oregon from '65-67. Following his graduation, he inaugurated his coaching career with a two-year tour of duty ('68-69) as a graduate assistant for the Ducks. He is also credited with authoring "The Quarterback" and producing an instructional video, "The Making of a Quarterback."

Coaching Career: University of Oregon 1968-69; Mt. Hood J.C. (Ore.) 1970-75; Utah State University 1976-81; San Jose State University 1984-86; 1990-91 (head coach 1990-91); University of California 1987-89; Stanford University 1992-94; British Columbia Lions 1995 (CFL); Rutgers University 1996-00 (head coach); joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of Oregon (B.S. '68), (M.A. '70). Born: June 12, 1946 in San Mateo, California. Family: Wife - Susan; Children - Jennifer, Garrett and Daniel.

MIKE SOLARI

OFFENSIVE LINE

14TH YEAR NFL COACH (6TH WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 14th season as an NFL coach, Mike Solari begins his sixth campaign in Kansas City guiding the Chiefs offensive line. The 47-year-old Solari joined the club in '97 after spending the previous five seasons as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers.

In 2001, Solari worked in close conjunction with offensive coordinator Al Saunders in developing and implementing Kansas City's game plans in the running game. Those efforts by Solari and Saunders paid tremendous dividends as the Chiefs finished the year sixth in the NFL in rushing offense, gaining an average of 125.5 ground yards per game. That total was due in large part to the production of Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes, who won the NFL's rushing crown and shattered the Chiefs single-season rushing record with 1,555 yards running behind Solari's well-schooled offensive front.

Thanks to the protection provided by Solari's offensive linemen, Kansas City enjoyed the second-highest offensive output in team history in 2001, as the club averaged 354.6 yards per game to rank third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL. Kansas City's 5,673 yards of total offense a year ago were just 19 yards shy of the franchise record of 5,692 established in '94. Making that accomplishment even more impressive was the fact that the Chiefs were implementing the services of a new center in 2001, Casey Wiegmann, who thrived under Solari's guidance. Meanwhile, a pair of other starters - LG Brian Waters and RT Marcus Spears - did the majority of their work at positions other than the ones where they opened the year.

Maintaining consistency despite constant changes in personnel and offensive emphasis has been one of Solari's trademarks since coming to Kansas City. In 2000, the Chiefs ranked eighth in the league, averaging 350.9 yards of total offense per game. The Chiefs permitted just one sack every 17.1 pass attempts to also rank eighth in the league and tied a franchise record by going three consecutive games without giving up a sack a year ago. With plenty of time to throw the ball, Kansas City finished the year fifth in the NFL by averaging 259.3 passing yards per game.

Through the years, Kansas City's offensive line has been flexible enough to adapt no matter the circumstances under Solari's direction. Despite having just one running back record over 100 yards in a single game in '99, Kansas City ranked fourth in the league in rushing with 130.1 yards per game and led the NFL in rushing attempts (521). In large part, those numbers were testimony to Solari's troops who toiled on the Chiefs offensive front.

Whether it has been establishing the ground game or protecting the passer, Kansas City's offensive trenchmen have thrived in both areas under Solari. Since he joined the club in '97, the Chiefs have permitted an average of just 32.0 sacks each season and have twice ranked among the league's top five clubs in rushing ('97 and '99).

Solari's offensive line group is headlined by guard Will Shields who started all 16 games for the eighth consecutive season in 2001 and earned his seventh straight Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City also owns one of the league's finest offensive tackle tandems. Seven-time Pro Bowl left tackle Willie Roaf was acquired in an off-season trade with New Orleans and will pair with '99 first-round draft choice John Tait, who will make the move to right tackle in 2002. In addition to his work with offensive tackles, Solari has also had success in molding interior linemen. In '99, veteran Tim Grunhard became the first Chiefs center to earn a Pro Bowl nod since Jack Rudnay in '77, while Dave Szott received All-Pro recognition following the '97 campaign.

In '98, Solari's offensive linemen captured all of the Chiefs most prestigious individual awards, a major feat considering that the unit saw its line-up shuffled significantly several times due to injuries. Shields was Kansas City's only Pro Bowl selection, while Glenn Parker started at three different offensive line positions to merit team MVP honors and Riley earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award which goes to the Chiefs top first-year performer. Despite an injury which sidelined Szott for the club's final 15 games, the club's offensive front still only permitted one sack for every 16.1 pass attempts, the fifth-lowest ratio in the AFC that season.

In his first season with the club in '97, Solari successfully integrated a pair of new starting tackles (Parker and Jeff Criswell) into the Chiefs line-up while maintaining the team's tradition of excellence in the trenches as the club generated 135.7 rushing yards per game, a 10.1-yard improvement from the previous season.

During his tenure in San Francisco, Solari was largely responsible for assisting in the emergence of Brent Jones as one of the league's preeminent tight ends. During his stay with the 49ers ('92-96), Jones made four Pro Bowl appearances and set a franchise record for receptions by a tight end with 68 catches in '93. As a member of San Francisco's coaching staff in '94, Solari helped the 49ers offense amass 31.2 points per game during the regular season, the sixth-highest tally in NFL history. The club upped that average to 43.7 points per game in the playoffs, en route to a 49-26 victory over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with a two-year stint under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys ('87-88) where he served as an assistant offensive line and special teams coach. In '89, he joined Gene Stallings' staff as the offensive line coach with the Phoenix Cardinals and then moved on with Stallings for two seasons at the University of Alabama before beginning his tour of duty with the 49ers in '90. He initially embarked on his coaching career at Mission Bay (Cal.) High School in '76, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College ('78) and U.S. International ('79). He joined Boise State in '80 and helped lead the Broncos to the NCAA Division I-AA championship. After stints at the University of Cincinnati ('81-82) and Kansas ('83-85), Solari spent one season as the offensive coordinator at Pitt ('86) before joining the NFL ranks.

Coaching Career: Mission Bay High School 1977; Mira-Costa J.C. 1978; U.S. International University 1979; Boise State University 1980; University of Cincinnati 1981-82; University of Kansas 1983-85; University of Pittsburgh 1986; Dallas Cowboys 1987-88; Phoenix Cardinals 1989; University of Alabama 1990-91; San Francisco 49ers 1992-96; joined Chiefs in 1997. Education: San Diego State University (B.A. '76). Born: January 16, 1955 in Daly City, California. Family: Wife - Patti; Children - Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

JASON VERDUZCO

OFFENSIVE ASST./QUALITY CONTROL

3RD YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Jason Verduzco embarks on his second season as the Chiefs offensive assistant/quality control coach in 2002. He enters his third year as an NFL coach after serving as an offensive assistant for the Washington Redskins in 2000. Verduzco is responsible for analysis and self-scouting of the club's offense, as well as the evaluation of video and computer data. He is also engaged in compiling research on Kansas City's offensive efficiency and tendencies.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, the 32-year-old Verduzco spent six seasons as a coach on the collegiate level, including a three-year stint from '97-99 as a defensive assistant at his alma mater, the University of Illinois. Verduzco assisted head coach Ron Turner's staff which inherited an 0-11 program and quickly transformed them into '99 MicronPC.com Bowl champions with a 63-21 victory against Virginia. Verduzco joined the Fighting Illini coaching staff following a three-year stay as the offensive coordinator at New York's Hamilton College ('94-96).

Verduzco, who spent his prep career at Antioch (California) High School, played one season at quarterback for the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions ('93) after a stellar four-year career as the signal caller for Illinois ('89-92), where he led the Fighting Illini to a 30-17-1 record. At the conclusion of his college career, Verduzco ranked second in the Illini annals in pass attempts (1,083), completions (678), passing yards (7,532) and TDs (42) trailing only Jack Trudeau. With Verduzco at the controls of the Illinois offense, the Illini participated in four consecutive bowl games ('90 Florida Citrus, '91 Hall of Fame, '91 John Hancock and '92 Holiday Bowl).

During his senior campaign in '92, Verduzco was named second team All-Big Ten while taking home Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors twice. An honorable mention All-America selection by Football News, Verduzco ended his career as just the eighth player in Big Ten history to top the 7,000-yard plateau in career passing yards. Upon graduation from Illinois in '93, Verduzco ranked sixth on the Big Ten's all time passing list, just behind Ohio State's Art Schlichter (7,547).

Coaching Career: Hamilton College (N.Y.) 1994-96; University of Illinois 1997-99; Washington Redskins 2000; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Illinois (B.A. '93). Born: April 3, 1970 in Walnut Creek, California. Family: Single.

JOE VITT LINEBACKERS

24TH YEAR NFL COACH (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 24th season of service as an NFL coach, Joe Vitt returns for his third season as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2001. He joined Kansas City in 2000 after spending the '99 campaign coaching defensive backs for the Green Bay Packers.

The 48-year-old Vitt has helped continue the Chiefs long tradition of production from the linebacker position. That linebacker group is headlined by the venerable 13-year NFL veteran Marvyn Patton who has averaged 138.7 tackles per season during his past three campaigns with Kansas City. A consistent force and consummate professional for the Chiefs, Patton paired with Donnie Edwards to become the first Kansas City linebacking tandem to each post over 100 tackles in three consecutive seasons. Vitt is also credited with aiding the rapid rise of Mike Maslowski, who vaulted into the starting lineup in 2000 and earned a spot on USA Today's All-Joe team before being slowed by a knee injury a year ago.

But turning young players into immediate contributors is nothing new for Vitt. Given a trio of rookie cornerbacks (Antuan Edwards, Fred Vinson and Mike McKenzie) and a starting free safety in just his third pro campaign (Darren Sharper) to work with in Green Bay in '99, Vitt helped the Packers youthful secondary mature quickly. McKenzie, a third-round draft choice, quickly earned a starting spot and led the club with six interceptions and 18 passes defended, while Sharper paced the Packers with 113 tackles. The development of those performers in the secondary was a key reason Green Bay ranked third in the NFC with 26 interceptions, a figure which doubled the club's '98 total of a mere 13 pickoffs.

Vitt is no stranger to getting solid play out of the linebacker post, either. Prior to joining the Packers, he served four seasons ('95-98) as linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. During the '98 campaign, his linebacking corps helped the Eagles become the league's top pass defense, permitting an NFL-low 170.0 passing yards per game. In his first season with Philadelphia in '95, he oversaw the development of linebacker William Thomas, who produced seven interceptions, was named the club's defensive MVP and earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Under Vitt's continued guidance, Thomas returned to the Pro Bowl the following year and received team defensive MVP honors the next two seasons.

From '92-94, Vitt served as assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Los Angeles Rams under head coach Chuck Knox. He joined the Rams after accruing 10 seasons of AFC West coaching experience with Seattle. He began his tenure with the Seahawks as the club's strength coach in '82 before spending the next nine years ('83-91) as Seattle's secondary coach. During that nine-year span, the Seahawks made four playoff appearances as S Kenny Easley and CB Dave Brown each earned Pro Bowl nods under Vitt's jurisdiction.

Vitt originally entered the NFL ranks as a strength coach with the Baltimore Colts under Ted Marchibroda in '79 and spent two more years with the Colts before joining the Seahawks in '82. A collegiate linebacker at Towson University, Vitt played four seasons with the Tigers before embarking on his pro coaching career.

Coaching Career: Baltimore Colts 1979-81; Seattle Seahawks 1982-91; Los Angeles Rams 1992-94; Philadelphia Eagles 1995-98; Green Bay Packers 1999; joined Chiefs in 2000. Education: Towson University (B.A. '78). Born: August 23, 1954 in Syracuse, New York. Family: Wife - Linda; Children - Joe Jr. and Jennifer. Joe Jr. is currently serving on the coaching staff at Towson University after an injury curtailed his playing career as a wide receiver for the Tigers.

DARVIN WALLIS

DEFENSIVE ASST./QUALITY CONTROL

21ST YEAR NFL COACH (14TH WITH CHIEFS)

Darvin Wallis, a 31-year coaching veteran, is now in his 14th year of service with the Chiefs as a defensive assistant/quality control coach. Wallis owns 20 years of NFL coaching experience, all of which have been spent in the AFC. He has also been a member of 12 playoff teams (seven with Kansas City and five with Cleveland), the most postseason appearances of any current member of the Kansas City coaching staff. Wallis joins former Chiefs assistants Tom Pratt (21 years), Tom Bettis (13 years) and Kurt Schottenheimer (12 years) as one of only four assistant coaches in Chiefs history to serve more than one full decade with the club. Wallis has served in his present role with the Chiefs since '89. In addition, Wallis was one of only 19 coaches in NFL history to work for a team in all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City produced a 102-58 record from '90-99.

Wallis carries out a myriad of responsibilities in his role with the Chiefs. In addition to assisting with the club's defensive backs, he is also charged with the team's defensive game analysis, where he compiles comprehensive weekly scouting reports on opposing offenses including a complete breakdown of their formations, schemes, concepts and tendencies based on hours of research and video study. Wallis also serves as the club's defensive quality control coordinator where his duties include self-scouting, the organization of computer data, as well as the design and analysis of video cut-ups. He is also responsible for special research projects in addition to compiling the club's comprehensive defensive playbook on an annual basis. Before joining the Chiefs, the 53-year-old Wallis served in a similar capacity for seven years under Marty Schottenheimer with the Cleveland Browns ('82-88) before coming to Kansas City in '89.

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, the Fort Branch, Indiana, native tutored tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi ('80-81), served as offensive line and strength coach at Tulane University ('78-79), and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State College ('76-77) in Alamosa, Colorado. Wallis began his coaching career at Wilcox High School in Wilcox, Arizona ('72) before taking the head coaching reigns at Ajo High School in Ajo, Arizona ('73-75). In '99, Wallis completed his doctorate degree in Sport Administration from the University of Kansas joining fellow Chiefs assistant Keith Rowen who also holds a Ph.D.

Coaching Career: Adams State College 1976-77; Tulane University 1978-79; University of Mississippi 1980-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: University of Kansas (Ph.D. '99), Adams State College (M.A. '78), University of Arizona (B.A. '72). Born: February 14, 1949 in Ft. Branch, Indiana. Family: Wife - Vicky; Children - Darvin, Jr., Tyson and Austin.

BILL KUHARICH DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Bill Kuharich, regarded as one of the most respected evaluators of talent in the NFL, joined the Chiefs as Director of Pro Personnel in May of 2000 after spending 14 seasons with the New Orleans Saints. He spent his last three seasons with the Saints as that club's President, General Manager and Chief Operating Officer. Kuharich oversees Kansas City's scouting of all players with professional experience, including NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, as well as the NFL and all other professional leagues.

The 49-year-old Skokie, Illinois native owns 17 years of pro football experience. Kuharich previously worked with Chiefs President Carl Peterson in the USFL and also learned the trade from the late Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Finks in New Orleans.

Kuharich began his career under Peterson with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '83 and was promoted to Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel the following year. During the league's three-year existence, the Stars compiled a 48-13-1 overall record, made three championship game appearances and won two league titles.

In '86, he began his tenure under Finks with New Orleans as Director of Player Personnel, serving in that role until '93. Finks and Kuharich inherited a Saints franchise which had never had a winning season or been to the playoffs, and proceeded to construct a squad which earned four postseason berths over a six-year span from '87-92. Kuharich later served as New Orleans' Vice President of Football Operations ('94-95) and Executive Vice President/General Manager ('96) before being named the franchise's top executive in '97.

Kuharich began his football career as a graduate assistant at Brown in '76 before moving to the University of Hawaii in '77. The following year he went to work for the U.S. Department of Defense, while still serving as a volunteer assistant at Georgetown. In '79 he returned to coaching at St. Lawrence. He also served as an assistant at Columbia from '80-81 before joining Peterson in the USFL.

Education: St. Lawrence (M.E. '81), Middlebury College (B.A. '76). Family: Wife - Betsy; Children - Megan, Alexis and Kelli. Kuharich's father, the late Joe Kuharich, served as a college head coach at San Francisco ('48-51), and Notre Dame ('59-62). The elder Kuharich also served as an NFL head coach with the Chicago Cardinals ('52) and Washington Redskins ('54-58), in addition to a stint as the head coach/general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles ('64-68).

DICK CURL PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Dick Curl enters his third season as pro personnel assistant for the Chiefs in 2002. In addition to evaluating players with pro experience, he also serves as the club's scout during the NFL season. Curl joined the Chiefs after spending the previous three seasons as the head coach of the Frankfort Galaxy of NFL Europe. The Galaxy won the World Bowl in '99 and also made the game in '98 as Curl was named the coach of the year both of those seasons.

Before being named head coach in Frankfort, Curl served as offensive coordinator of the Barcelona Dragons since '91. The Dragons made a World Bowl appearance in '91 before winning the league title in '97.

The Chester, Pennsylvania native amassed 30 years of coaching experience prior to his tenure in NFL Europe, enjoying a 19-year college stint serving at Boston College, Rutgers, Virginia and Trenton State, where he served as head coach in '74. He was instrumental in recruiting Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinee S. Deron Cherry to Rutgers during his time with the Scarlet Knights. A former quarterback at Richmond, Curl joined the collegiate coaching ranks in '73 after spending 11 years at the high school level.

Education: University of Richmond (B.A. '62). Family: Wife - Beverly; Children - Debbie, Karen and Susan, in addition to 10 grandchildren.

JIM CRINER PRO/COLLEGE SCOUT

Jim Criner enters his first year evaluating both college and pro talent. Prior to coming to Kansas City in 2002, he spent one season as the head coach of the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws and enjoyed a six-year stint as head coach of the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe from '95-00. In '96, he guided the Claymores to a 32-27

World Bowl victory over Frankfort. He also served as the offensive line coach of the World League's Sacramento Surge in '91-92.

Prior to serving as head coach at Iowa State ('83-86), the Lorton, Arkansas native spent a five-year stint in the same role at Boise State ('76-82) where he guided the Broncos to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship in '80. He previously enjoyed a three-year tenure as an assistant at UCLA in '73-75, serving on head coach Dick Vermeil's staff which also included Carl Peterson and Lynn Stiles.

Before joining the Bruins, he held assistant coaching posts at Utah ('67), Cal State - Hayward ('68), California ('69-71) and BYU ('72). Criner began his coaching career with a four-year stint in the California high school ranks from '63-66.

Education: Cal Poly Pomona (B.A. '63).
Family: Wife - Ann; Children - Mark and Kelli.

CHUCK COOK DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Now in his 19th season as a valued member of the Kansas City Chiefs personnel department, Chuck Cook enters his sixth season as the Chiefs Director of College Scouting. He was promoted to that post in May of '97 after serving 13 years as a Regional Scout for the club, spending the majority of his efforts scouring the country's Southeast region for college talent.

The 42-year-old Andalusia, Alabama native coordinates Kansas City's college scouting efforts with his primary focus being the preparation of the club for the annual NFL draft. Thanks to the efforts of Cook and his scouting staff, the Chiefs have selected an impressive resume of college performers during his tenure, including recent first-round picks DT Ryan Sims (2002), WR Sylvester Morris (2000) and T John Tait (1999).

Cook originally joined the Chiefs staff in '84 after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers ('82-83). He began his coaching career under Al Kincaid at the University of Wyoming in '80 and also worked with the Cowboys in '81. Cook played wide receiver, running back and defensive back at Southern Mississippi. He was in the training camps of both the Giants and Jets prior to embarking on his coaching career. He was inducted into the Southern Miss Hall of Fame in '93. His father, Hamp, served as a longtime scout with the New Orleans Saints.

Education: Southern Mississippi (B.A. '80).
Family: Wife - Carla; Children - twin daughters Carley and Cori, and a son, Colby.

BRUCE LEMMERMAN REGIONAL SCOUT/ SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Bruce Lemmerman enters his third season in the Chiefs personnel department. Lemmerman is responsible for evaluating talent in the West region for Kansas City and coordinates the efforts of the club's other college scouts. He joined the Chiefs in 2000 after spending six seasons as Director of College Scouting for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his stint with the Saints, Lemmerman served as Director of Operations for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos from '89-94 after two years with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. He had also previously served as an offensive coach with the Eskimos from '81-82. The Los Angeles native coached receivers, tight ends and offensive backs for the Houston Oilers from '84-85 after serving as offensive coordinator of the USFL's Los Angeles Express in '83.

Also a collegiate baseball standout at California - Northridge, Lemmerman served as a pro quarterback for the Atlanta Falcons ('68-70), as well as Edmonton ('71-79) and Hamilton ('80) in the CFL ranks.

Education: University of California - Northridge (B.A. '68). Family: Wife - Brigitte; Children - Lisa and Jennifer.

DON GREGORY REGIONAL SCOUT

Don Gregory enters his second year with Kansas City and his first as a regional scout in the South. He joined the Chiefs after serving as the Director of Player Personnel for the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws in 2001. Prior to the XFL, he worked under former Chargers GM Bobby Beathard as a scout for

San Diego ('95-99), evaluating college talent and professional free agents.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Gregory also enjoyed player personnel stops in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos ('94) and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers ('93-94) scouting the West. He scouted the Northwest for the San Antonio Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF) from '90-91.

Gregory played collegiately at Wenatchee Valley College ('74-75), Portland State University ('76) and Whitworth College ('77-78). Born January 15, 1956 in Pearl City, Hawaii, Gregory moved to Great Falls, Montana in the sixth grade.

Education: Whitworth College (B.S. '79)
Family: Single.

JOHN BONAVENTURA AREA SCOUT

John Bonaventura enters his first year with the Chiefs evaluating college talent on a national level for the club. Prior to coming to Kansas City, Bonaventura spent the 2001 season as a football administrator for the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws.

Owning a background in coaching at both the collegiate and high school level, Bonaventura served as an assistant coach at Sweetwater High School in National City, California for three seasons prior to joining the XFL. The Canastota, New York native also served as an assistant at Sonoma State University in Rohnert Park, California from '94-95 and at San Francisco State in '89. A collegiate wide receiver at San Francisco

State, Bonaventura also served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Nevada from '90-92.

Education: San Francisco State University (B.A. '90); National University (M.A. '00). Family: Wife - Annette.

JEFF FOSTER AREA SCOUT

Jeff Foster enters his second year with the Chiefs and his first year evaluating talent in the Big 10 and the Midwest after scouting on a national level for the club in 2001.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, he spent the previous six seasons ('95-00) with the East-West Shrine Game. Foster served his last three years with that organization as Executive-Vice President. As an annual host of one of the nation's premier all-star contests, Foster was in charge of all executive decisions as they related to player and personnel selections for a contest which showcases some of the top senior college talent. He helped recruit 43 All-America picks and two Heisman Trophy winners to take part in the game from '96-98.

The Redding, California native joined the Shrine Game after serving as a standout safety for Arizona State ('90-94), where he was an All-Academic Pac 10 selection for the Sun Devils as a senior.

Education: Arizona State University (B.S. '94). Family: Single.

GREG OLEJACK AREA SCOUT

Greg Olejack enters his third year as an area scout for Kansas City, evaluating college talent in the Southeast. A native of Whitehall, Pennsylvania, the 46-year-old Olejack owns an extensive resume of collegiate coaching experience, most recently serving as offensive line coach at Hawaii from

'97-99. He previously spent four years as head coach of Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pennsylvania. He also has enjoyed college coaching stints at Richmond, Brown, Villanova and Tulane. A former collegiate player, Olejack began his collegiate career at New Mexico Military Institute before spending two seasons at the University of Louisville.

He began his coaching tenure with stints at Clarksville High School in Clarksville, Indiana and Garden City Community College in Garden City, Kansas before joining the Green Wave of Tulane in '81.

Education: Tulane University (M.E. '84), University of Louisville (B.S. '77). Family: Wife - Meg; Children - Emily and Andrew.

FRONT OFFICE

WALLACE BENNETT VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING

Wallace Bennett, now in his eighth full season with the Chiefs organization, was promoted to Vice President of Sales and Marketing in March of '99. He had previously served as the club's Director of Sales and Marketing since February of '96 after originally joining the team as Director of Sales in October of '94. The 47-year-old Bennett oversees all areas of sales, marketing, promotions, advertising, gameday production and hospitality events for the Chiefs and Kansas City Wizards soccer team. In addition, he supervises the sales and marketing efforts for all official team publications, as well as the clubs' internet sites.

Under his direction in '95, the Chiefs and their fans enjoyed a $3 million renovation of Arrowhead's concession stands. Those improvements included the addition of eight in-stadium NFL Pro Shop locations which feature a wide selection of official Chiefs merchandise.

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Bennett came to Kansas City with 18 years of experience in the IBM Corporation. He began his career with the Fortune 500 company in '76 as a marketing representative and rose through the corporate ranks prior to joining the Chiefs organization in '94.
Education: Clemson University (B.S. '76).
Family: Wife - Laurie; Children - Trey and Rick.

ANITA BAILEY DIRECTOR OF CORP. SPONSORSHIP SALES

Anita Bailey begins her 14th year with the Chiefs and her seventh season as Director of Corporate Sponsorship Sales. In that role she is responsible for the sale of all major corporate partnerships along with development and implementation of Chiefs promotions. As of February of '99, Bailey also oversees corporate sales for the Kansas City

Wizards. Before assuming her current role in March of '96, the New Cambria, Missouri native spent six years as the organization's Promotions Manager. She originally joined the Chiefs in '89 as a member of the club's PR department.

Prior to her appointment with the Chiefs, Bailey spent six seasons ('82-87) in the Kansas City Royals public relations department before taking a post as the Director of Convention Services for the Adam's Mark Hotel in Kansas City.
Education: Northeast Missouri State University.
Family: Husband - Bob Gretz; Children - Eric and Scott.

KEN BLUME DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

Ken Blume begins his 14th year as the club's Director of Development. He is responsible for the sales and service of all premium seating areas for both the Chiefs and the Kansas City Wizards soccer team, as well as overseeing the Pavilion at Arrowhead and the Arrowhead Club. He coordinates the Chiefs various volunteer organizations (Chiefs Club, Red Coaters, and Alumni Ambassadors). He also oversees new construction, stadium renovations, special projects and Chiefs Travel - an in-house travel service.

The 47-year-old Blume served as the team's Director of Marketing for two years and Sales Manager for two years before taking his present post. Previously, he was Administrator with Colonial Presbyterian Church, Vice President of Regan Supply Company, and Asst. to the President at Total Engineering Services Team in New Orleans.
Education: Rockhurst College (M.B.A. '87), Texas Christian University (B.S. '77).
Family: Wife - Elizabeth; Children - Dayton and Rebekah.

JULIE DORN DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL EVENTS

Julie Dorn enters her third season as the Chiefs Director of Special Events after joining the club in February of 2000. She is responsible for the development, implementation and execution of all special events held at Arrowhead Stadium.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Dorn previously served as Director of Events for the Big 12 Conference in Dallas, Texas, where she assisted in the coordination of the Big 12 Football Championship, as well as Big 12 Basketball Tournaments. Prior to her tenure at the Big 12, she enjoyed stints at the Big Eight Conference office in Kansas City and at the University of Missouri.

A two-time All-America gymnast at Missouri ('89-90), the Minneapolis, Minnesota native was named Big Eight Conference Female Athlete of the Year in '91 and was inducted into the University of Missouri Athletic Hall of Fame in '96.

Education: University of Missouri (M.S. '94), (B.S.W. '91). Family: Single.

CHIEFS PUBLIC RELATIONS AND MEDIA POLICIES

kcchiefs.com: In-depth information on the Kansas City Chiefs for both fans and media can be found at the club's official website at www.kcchiefs.com, which contains weekly news releases, statistics, rosters, depth charts, injury reports, quotes, feature articles and player bios. The site is updated daily during training camp and the regular season.

chiefsmedia.com: New for 2002, this password-protected, media-specific site provides game releases, updated bios, additional stats, practice schedules, credential request forms, press clips and a host of other media information. Registered media users can also download segments of the media guide, player photos and weekly media packets. Contact Morgan Shaw for further details.

Home Credential Requests: Only accredited members of the media who cover the Chiefs and the NFL on a regular basis may apply for credentials. ALL credential requests must be made ONLINE at chiefsmedia.com a minimum of one week in advance of the game, including preseason contests. Written credential requests will no longer be accepted. Credentials are confirmed on a week-by-week basis on Thursdays preceding Sunday games. Failure to utilize an issued credential without notifying the PR department will result in revocation of credential privileges. All non-season media MUST pick up their credentials in person at Media Will Call on game day. No exceptions. Two forms of ID are required.

Road Credential Requests: If you are a regular member of the Chiefs media corps and wish to cover the team on the road, ALL requests must be submitted to Director of Public Relations Bob Moore no later than one game previous to a road contest. The Chiefs will then place a request to the opponent the Monday prior to a Sunday road game. Note that opponent credential availability may be limited.

Interview Requests: Associate Director of Public Relations Pete Moris coordinates all network TV and national media requests. Brad Kuhbander handles print interviews and Patrick Herb of the Chiefs PR staff handles radio requests. ALL radio requests must be made via fax, including names of producers and talent, studio numbers and show times.

Head Coach Availability: Head Coach Dick Vermeil is available daily during the season. Please consult PR for times and location. Coach Vermeil conducts a weekly press conference on Tuesdays during the season. This briefing begins at 11:45 AM and is available via satellite Tuesday afternoons at kcchiefs.com. Please consult Morgan Shaw for satellite coordinates.

Assistant Coach/Staff Availability: Chiefs assistant coaches are available for interviews provided PR is notified in advance. Please consult Bob Moore or Pete Moris.

Locker Room Policy/Player Availability: During the regular season players are available to the media after the conclusion of practice. The Chiefs locker room is open to the media for a maximum of 45 minutes following the conclusion of practice each day. Any additional interviews should be coordinated through Chiefs PR. The Chiefs locker room is NOT open on the players' day off (typically Tuesdays.) QB Trent Green is scheduled to be available to the media at lunch on Thursdays during the regular season.

Media access to other areas of Arrowhead is limited to ONLY the fourth floor press box which serves as a work area, the PR office, and the first floor auditorium for media functions. All other areas are off-limits unless accompanied by a member of the PR staff.

Open Practice: All practices are open to accredited local media provided they are cleared through the PR department. Visiting team media are NOT permitted at practice. Videotaping is permitted ONLY during stretching, warm-up, individual drills and the cool-down periods. Consult Chiefs PR for practice times.

Conference Calls: The Chiefs will make Coach Vermeil and a player available to the visiting team media each Wednesday during the regular season. Consult Chiefs PR for times.

Radio Actualities: Throughout the season daily broadcast-quality radio actualities are made available to the media. They can be accessed at www.kcchiefs.com.

Player Appearance Requests: Requests for player appearances should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance to Community Relations Coordinator Chuck Castellano. Player availability is limited during the regular season and no requests are accepted during postseason play.

Donation Requests: The Chiefs make a limited number of donations to select charitable causes in the five-state region of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Requests should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance of an event to Community Relations Assistant Janet Feltham. Such donations are strictly limited to Chiefs articles. Requests for monetary contributions or tickets are not accepted.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the 13th consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a seven-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Illinois. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus, handles the play-by-play duties for the ninth straight year. Named Kansas SportsCaster of the Year for the eighth time in 2001, Holthus served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from '83-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he is also the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for Fox Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference. Adding the color analysis is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the Chiefs broadcast scene since the club's first year in Kansas City, will also provide expert commentary. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pre-game and post-game comments for the 13th straight season, in addition to in-game sideline updates.

BORN: JUNE 11, 1977

NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

GP/GS: (3/0) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Powerful run blocker and steady pass protector entering his third campaign in Kansas City ... Could be a prospect to see duty at either guard or tackle for the Chiefs this season ... Will most likely compete for a reserve role at right guard behind seven-time Pro Bowler Will Shields in 2002 ... Spent the spring learning the finer points of the game playing for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe ... Played both right and left tackle during his tenure at Boston College, but worked primarily at the right tackle post for the Chiefs his first two seasons ... Has seen duty in three career regular season NFL contests ... Owns a wealth of talent and continues to hone his technique working on the offensive front ... Provides the Chiefs with yet another talented, young offensive lineman ... Is reunited in Kansas City with former college teammate, RB Michael Cloud, who the Chiefs tabbed in the second round of the '99 NFL Draft ... Joined the Chiefs as the club's sixth-round selection (188th overall) in the 2000 draft. NFL Europe (2002): Started nine games at right tackle for the Berlin Thunder, missing one game with a knee injury ... Helped the Thunder offense lead the NFL in total yards (3,704) and passing yards (2,667) ... A member of the Berlin squad that advanced to the World Bowl and posted a 26-20 victory vs. the Rhein Fire (6/22). 2001: Saw duty in two games ... Was inactive for the season's first nine games before playing on the placement protection team vs. Seattle (11/25) and vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Was inactive for the club's final five games. 2000: Was active for four games, playing in one contest ... Was active at Tennessee (9/3), but did not play ... Took one snap at left guard in place of an injured Jeff Blackshear vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Was active vs. Denver (12/17) and at Atlanta (12/24), but did not play.

College: Started 31 of 33 career games during his three seasons at Boston College ... Was one of the key components in a Boston College offensive line that helped Cloud become the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards ... In three collegiate seasons recorded 147 knockdown blocks ... Started all 11 games at right tackle in '99 ... Earned first team All-Big East Conference accolades ... Registered a career-best 63 knockdowns ... Returned to the roster in '98 after a one-year absence and made a powerful impact ... Started the first nine games at left tackle as he totaled 40 knockdown blocks on the season ... Helped clear the path for Cloud who ranked third in the nation with a 156.9 yards-per-game rushing average ... Sat out the '97 season for personal reasons ... Started all 11 games at right tackle in '96 ... Posted 44 knockdown blocks on the season ... Redshirted as a true freshman in '95 ... Majored in Human Development at Boston College.

Personal: Earned All-State, All-Region, All-District and All-Area accolades as a senior at Chancellor High School in Fredericksburg, Virginia ... Was named to the Richmond Times-Dispatch Top 30 and the Roanoke Times Top 25 teams ... Captured All-District basketball honors after leading his team in scoring and rebounding ... Also lettered in track, setting a school record in the shot put with a toss of 53' 6" ... Full name: Darnell LaShawn Alford ... Married, wife Kathy ... The Alfords reside in Lee's Summit, Missouri.

Games Played/Games Started: 2000 (1/0), 2001 (2/0) — 3/0.

40TH FACT

The Chiefs first regular season game after moving to Kansas City was a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7/63). The 59 points scored and the 52-point margin of victory remain franchise records.

40TH FACT

The Chiefs produced a convincing 66-24 preseason victory vs. Chicago (8/23/67) at Municipal Stadium in the first-ever game played in Kansas City against an NFL opponent.

Booming left-footed kicker has stood the test of time and is entering his 21st NFL campaign ... Those 20 seasons of prior NFL experience tie him with fellow K Gary Anderson for the longest tenure in the NFL among players who were active in 2001 ... Only Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinee George Blanda (26) and Earl Morrall (21) have completed more NFL seasons than Andersen and Anderson, who have 20 years to their credit along with Jim Marshall and Jackie Slater ... Ranks second in NFL history with 2,036 career points, trailing only Anderson (2,133) ... Joins Anderson and Blanda (2,002) as one of only three players in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau in their career ... Has been selected to seven Pro Bowls, the most invitations gained by a kicker in the game's history ... Was selected to make the trip to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl following the '86-89, '91, '93 and '96 seasons ... Combines with tackle Willie Roaf and guard Will Shields to make the Chiefs the only team in the NFL with a trio of players boasting seven or more Pro Bowl nods this season ... Has earned the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week award eight times in his career ... Embarks on his first season of kicking in the AFC after spending his first 20 campaigns tormenting the NFC competition ... Will be 42 years, 21 days old on Opening Day, which will make him the second-oldest player to wear a Chiefs uniform in a regular season contest ... Trails only QB Warren Moon who was the oldest player to appear in a game in Chiefs annals when he started a contest at age 44 years, eight days in 2000 ... An extremely durable performer who has played in 308 games and has missed only one contest in his NFL career with an injury ... Trails only Blanda (340) and Anderson (309) in NFL annals in terms of games played ... Has played in 234 consecutive games to tie with Jim Bakken and Anderson for the third-longest such streak in league history ... Only longtime Vikings Marshall (282) and Mick Tingelhoff (240) played in more consecutive contests ... Is reunited in Kansas City with P Dan Stryzinski, his holder on placement kicks during his tenure in Atlanta ... The future Hall of Famer has converted 464 of 590 field goals (78.6%) and 644 of 653 PATs for a total of 2,036 points ... Has also played in eight postseason games during his illustrious career, converting 16 of 19 field goals (84.2%) and all 13 of his PATs for a total of 61 points ... DRAFT (NO. 3B - 1999)

NFL: 4 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: JULY 21, 1975

SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA

GP/GS: (36/0) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Fourth-year performer who made the switch from safety to linebacker in 2001 ... Spent the 2001 campaign working at the right outside "WILL" linebacker post behind veteran Mike Maslowski ... Is also a reliable special teams performer ... Started his collegiate career at UCLA playing outside LB before moving to safety for the Bruins ... Could play either of those positions in nickel or dime situations if necessary ... Still expected to be a major contributor on special teams after emerging as one of the club's top performers in the kicking game in 2000 ... Battled foot and hamstring injuries last season that slowed his on the field progress ... Aggressive, hard-hitting performer has the size to play LB and the mobility to work in the secondary ... Possesses the size and skill to shed blocks and stuff the run at the line of scrimmage, but can also run with potential receivers ... Joins a host of other Chiefs players, coaches and front office personnel who honed their skills at UCLA, including fellow LB Marcus Patton ... Has fully recovered from a sprained MCL in his left knee suffered in the Rose Bowl vs. Wisconsin as a senior which hampered his rookie campaign ... Worked his way into Kansas City's line-up on special teams in nine games in '99 and finished the season with five tackles in the kicking game ... Has seen action in a total of 36 games on special teams and 12 games on defense for Kansas City, producing a tackle, a special teams fumble recovery and 32 special teams tackles ... Joined the Chiefs as the club's second of two selections (84th overall) in the third round of the '99 draft. 2001: Played in 12 games on special teams and five games on defense ... Had 14 special teams stops to rank fourth on the squad ... Also added one tackle on defense ... Was inactive vs. Oakland (9/9), vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) and at Washington (9/30) with a foot injury suffered during training camp ... Saw his first action of the season on special teams at Denver (10/7) ... Made a special teams stop vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Played his first game of the season as a reserve LB and made a special teams tackle at Arizona (10/21) ... Had a special teams stop vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Recorded two tackles on the kickoff and punt coverage units at San Diego (11/4) ... Registered his first career NFL tackle on defense as a reserve LB at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Made a special teams tackle vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Saw reserve action at LB and on the kickoff coverage team vs. Philadelphia (11/29), producing a special teams tackle ... Made two special teams tackles vs. Denver (12/16) ... Played at reserve LB and registered two special teams stops vs. San Diego (12/23) ... Saw action as a reserve LB at Jacksonville (12/30) and tied a career high with three special teams tackles ... Was inactive at Seattle (1/6/02) with a hamstring injury. 2000: Saw action on special teams in 15 games and on defense in seven games, totaling 13 special teams tackles and a fumble recovery on a muffed punt ... Saw action on short yardage defense and special teams at Denver (9/24), recording a career-high three special teams stops ... Had two of special teams stops vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Registered two stops on kickoff coverage vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Was inactive due to a hamstring injury at San Francisco (11/12) ... Recovered his first career fumble on a muffed punt and made two special teams stops at San Diego (11/26). 1999: Saw duty in nine games exclusively on special teams, recording five tackles on kickoff coverage ... Was inactive for seven games ... Was inactive at Chicago (9/12) before making his NFL debut vs. Denver (9/19), collecting two tackles on kickoff coverage ... Saw special teams action vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3) ... Was inactive vs. New England (10/10), at Baltimore (10/21), vs. San Diego (10/31), at Tampa Bay (11/14) and vs. Seattle (11/21) ... Had one special teams stop at Oakland (11/28) and also took the field at Denver (12/5) ... Made one special teams tackle vs. Minnesota (12/12) and also played in the club's final three games vs. Pittsburgh (12/18), at Seattle (12/26) and vs. Oakland (1/2/00).

College: Began his collegiate career as an outside linebacker before settling in at the safety spot as a sophomore ... Carried on the Bruins tradition of stellar safety play, a pedigree which has included previous NFL Pro Bowl performers such as Kenny Easley and Eric Turner ... Started his final two collegiate seasons, seeing action in a total of 45 contests (26 starts) ... Career tally at UCLA included 185 tackles (121 solo), 10 fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles and a pair of blocked kicks ... Also corralled 10 interceptions for 231 yards and 20 passes defended ... A second team All-America pick and first team All-Pac 10 performer as a senior ... Started all 12 games at strong safety for the Bruins, leading the club with 94 tackles (64 solo), including three for loss ... Had a team-high five fumble recoveries and produced four interceptions for 77 yards ... Contributed three forced fumbles and a career-high 10 passes defended, as well ... Had nine tackles in the Rose Bowl despite missing the entire second half with a knee injury ... Earned second team All-America and first team All-Pac 10 honors by Football News as a junior ... Also was named a third team All-America selection by AP ... Opened all 12 games at strong safety, totaling 44 tackles (32 solo) to go along with a team-high six INTs (154 yards) and a pair of blocked FGs ... Tied for the club lead with three fumble recoveries and was fourth with 4.0 sacks (-38.0 yards) ... In his sophomore campaign in '96, he played in 11 games with one start as a strong safety vs. Arizona State ... Finished the year with 25 tackles (15 solo), with a 12-yard sack and four passes defended ... Saw extensive action as a reserve outside linebacker as a redshirt freshman in '95 ... Played in all 12 games on special teams and played in 10 contests on defense with one start ... Finished the year with 22 tackles, one sack, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble ... Redshirted as a true freshman in '94 ... Majored in History at UCLA.

Personal: A two-year letterman at Venice High School in Venice, California ... Named honorable mention All-State by Cal-Hi Sports ... Voted first team All-City 4A as a defensive back, earning All-Coastal Conference as both a junior and senior ... Tallied 25 solo tackles, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries on defense as a senior ... OKLAHOMA

DRAFT (NO. 2 - 2000)

NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: JUNE 25, 1977

DAYTONA BEACH, FLORIDA

GPI/GS: (32/8) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Third-year corner is arguably the most gifted natural athlete in Kansas City's talented secondary ... Although entering his third pro season, is in just his fourth year of playing the cornerback position ... Hopes to follow in the footsteps of a fellow Big 12 alum, fifth-year pro Eric Warfield from Nebraska, who also played predominately at safety during his college career before making the successful transition to a starting NFL corner ... Penciled in as the club's starter at the left CB post and appears confident in that role entering training camp ... Received his initiation into the NFL game in 2000 after working a portion of one season at corner with Oklahoma ... Began his tenure with the Sooners at free safety before switching to cornerback midway through his senior campaign ... That experience at safety has likely also contributed to his fearless demeanor in run support ... His versatility makes him a prime candidate to work in a variety of different packages in the Chiefs defensive scheme ... Size, speed and strong upper body allow him to match up well with the league's bigger receivers ... His progress will continue to be determined by his ability to pick up the nuances of the position ... Continued to make strides a year ago, starting five contests and is expected to make even more progress in 2002 ... Has also been a key contributor on special teams the past two campaigns ... Owns 32 games of NFL experience with eight starts ... Has recorded 68 tackles (49 solo) to go along with 23 special teams tackles ... Also has 12 passes defended and 2.0 sacks (-17.0 yards) ... Originally entered the league as a second-round draft choice (54th overall) of the Chiefs in 2000. 2001: Played in 16 games (five starts) at corner and on special teams ... Opened four games at left CB in place of an injured Ray Crockett and also started one contest when the club opened in its nickel package ... Established career highs with 38 tackles (27 solo) and eight passes defended ... Also added a tackle for loss, a sack (-9.0 yards) and 11 special teams stops ... Produced two tackles vs. Oakland (9/9) ... Had one stop vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Broke up a pass at Washington (9/30) as the club's nickel back ... Registered three tackles at Denver (10/7) ... Left the game with a neck strain on the first defensive series vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), but returned to produce a tackle ... Started his first game of the season at left CB at Arizona (10/12) in place of Crockett, amassing five tackles and a pass defended ... Started at left CB vs. Indianapolis (10/25), registering a career-high seven tackles ... Started at left CB at San Diego (11/4), recording three tackles and a pass defended ... Recorded a tackle as the club's nickel CB and made two stops on the punt coverage unit at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Opened at left CB vs. Seattle (11/25), amassing three tackles and a special teams stop ... Collected a tackle on both defense and special teams vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Started when the club opened in the nickel at Oakland (12/9), producing one tackle and a special teams stop ... Made a tackle on both defense and special teams vs. Denver (12/16) ... Tallied two tackles and defended two passes on the final drive vs. San Diego (12/23) ... Registered a sack (-9.0 yards) of Mark Brunell to go with five defensive tackles and two special teams stops at Jacksonville (12/30) ... Recorded two tackles at Seattle (1/6/02). 2000: Saw action in 16 games on special teams and saw duty at CB in 12 contests (three starts) ... Tallied 30 tackles (22 solo), 1.0 sack (-8.0 yards), four passes defended and 12 special teams tackles ... Saw first NFL action vs. Indianapolis (9/3), taking snaps on defense and special teams ... Played as a reserve on defense and special teams at Tennessee (9/10), totaling two tackles and a special teams stop ... Posted a pair of special teams tackles at Denver (9/24) ... Saw action as the nickel CB vs. Oakland (10/15), recording three tackles and getting his first NFL sack by taking down Rich Gannon (-8.0 yards) ... Made his first career start when the club opened in the nickel vs. St. Louis (10/22), collecting four solo tackles, a special teams tackle and a pass defended ... Started at nickel CB at Seattle (10/29), making a season-high six solo tackles and one stop on punt coverage ... Saw action as the nickel CB at Oakland (11/5), producing one pass defended and two tackles on special teams ... Compiled three tackles at San Francisco (11/12) ... Registered four tackles and one pass defended vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Had one tackle and two tackles on punt coverage at San Diego (11/26) ... Contributed four tackles at New England (12/4) ... Started as the nickel CB vs. Carolina (12/10), tallying one pass defended and one tackle on KO coverage ... Saw action as the nickel CB vs. Denver (12/17) ... Registered three tackles and a stop on punt coverage at Atlanta (12/24).

College: Versatile competitor who saw action at both free safety and corner at Oklahoma in 17 games (11 starts) ... Spent two years at Oklahoma after beginning his college career as a junior college standout at Butler County Community College in El Dorado, Kansas ... Totaled 60 tackles (41 solo), getting two INTs to go with two fumble recoveries and a pair of forced fumbles ... Also registered seven tackles for loss, 12 passes defended and an eight-yard sack ... Started all 11 games his senior year and was a second team All-Big 12 selection ... Finished the year with 51 tackles (34 solo), an INT and 12 passes defended ... Added a fumble recovery, a forced fumble, six tackles for loss and a blocked FG ... Appeared in six games his junior season, his first season of major college football ... Battled nagging hamstring and ankle injuries to record nine tackles (seven solo), one INT, an eight-yard sack and a pair of tackles for loss ... Registered one fumble recovery and a forced fumble, as well ... Played JUCO ball at Butler County Community College in El Dorado, Kansas ... Recorded four interceptions and scored one touchdown as a sophomore in '97 when he was named team Defensive Player of the Week five times ... Helped lead Butler County to a 7-4 record and a bowl berth as a freshman in '96 ... Majored in Sociology and Criminology at Oklahoma.

Personal: Lettered in football at Atlantic High School in Daytona Beach, Florida ... Competed as a running back, earning team MVP honors after rushing for over 1,000 yards as a senior ... Full name: William Anthony Bartee ... Single ... Resides in Leawood, Kansas.

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (2000)

NFL: 7 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: MAY 23, 1974

RIVERSIDE, CALIFORNIA

GP/GS: (86/43) PLAYOFFS: (5/2)

Pro Career: Top-flight pass rusher landed in Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from Minnesota on March 24th of 2000 ... Entering his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Chiefs ... Immediately stepped into a starting role for the club at right defensive end, where he will work once again in 2002 ... Former first-round draft choice has unquestionably made an impact since his arrival in Kansas City, registering 14.5 sacks in his first two seasons with the Red and Gold ... High-intensity performer possesses a lethal combination of speed, power and long arms which allows him to create havoc coming off the edge ... Is adept at the art of the sack and strip, a talent that he has displayed with regularity in Kansas City as evidenced by his career-high four forced fumbles in 2001 ... Known for getting a good jump off the ball in pass rushing situations, but is also a staunch run defender ... Has registered 70+ tackles each of the past two years and has 7.0 sacks or better in four of his six previous pro campaigns ... Pairs with fellow defensive end Eric Hicks to give the Chiefs a solid pair of starters at that position ... Certainly has the potential to become a double-digit sack artist, particularly when he is working in tandem with Hicks ... Was poised for a run at the 10.0-sack barrier in 2000 after getting a career-high 2.5 sacks in the season's second game, but suffered a hip injury which hampered him for the remainder of the campaign ... Despite missing a quarter of the season, still racked up a career-high 75 tackles, more than double his previous personal-high of 32 he set with Minnesota in '99, in addition to 7.5 QB takedowns ... Has finally found his NFL niche at defensive end in Kansas City ... Played defensive end in the collegiate ranks and was moved to linebacker by Minnesota, but was then switched back to defensive end by the Vikings midway through his rookie campaign ... Frequently gets his sacks in bunches, owning eight contests with 1.5 or more sacks, including three such games with the Chiefs ... Interestingly, owns three contests where he has sacked two different QBs in the same game ... Has seen action in 86 games (43 starts) during his six NFL seasons, collecting 33.0 sacks (-198.0 yards), 238 tackles (143 solo), 15.5 tackles for loss, 123 QB pressures, eight fumble recoveries, 10 forced fumbles and 11 passes defended ... Playoff tested, played in the postseason each of his last three seasons with the Vikings, seeing action in five playoff games with two starts ... Owns six tackles, a sack, four QB pressures and a pass defended in postseason play ... Originally entered the NFL in the first round of the '96 draft (16th overall) out of California, where he was a teammate of Chiefs Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez. At Kansas City (2000-01): Has seen duty in 28 games (27 starts), owning 148 tackles (82 solo) with 15.5 for loss,

14.5 sacks (-105.0 yards), two fumble recoveries and five forced fumbles ... Also has registered six passes defended and 48 QB pressures. 2001: Played in 16 games (15 starts) at right defensive end ... Led the team with 7.0 sacks (-68.5 yards) and four forced fumbles ... Recorded 73 tackles (43 solo), was second on the club with 10 QB pressures and also added a fumble recovery ... Ranked third on the club with eight tackles for loss ... Recorded five tackles with one for a loss and a QB pressure vs. Oakland (9/9) ... Had three tackles vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Made four tackles, including two for a loss and a sack (-9.0 yards) of Tony Banks at Washington (9/30) ... Did not start due to a knee injury at Denver (10/7), but still amassed five tackles and a QB pressure ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), registering two tackles ... Recorded four tackles and a pair of QB pressures at Arizona (10/21) ... Collected seven tackles, two for a loss, as well as a sack (-18.0 yards) and strip of Peyton Manning vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Registered his 200th career tackle as part of a five-stop effort at San Diego (11/4), in addition to a sack (-11.0 yards) of Doug Flutie that knocked the Chargers QB out of the game with a concussion ... Recorded two tackles and a QB pressure at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Had a sack (-9.0 yards) of Matt Hasselbeck vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Racked up seven tackles and a QB pressure vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Pro Career: Seasoned eighth-year signal-caller entering his fifth season with the Chiefs in 2002 ... Expected to once again serve as Kansas City's number two QB behind starter Trent Green ... Worked as Kansas City's top backup in all 16 contests a year ago, seeing the first regular season game action of his Chiefs career in a 45-13 victory at Washington (9/30/01) ... Has a solid grasp of the club's offensive system and is more than capable of stepping under center if called upon ... Owns 29 games of regular season experience in the NFL ranks, including 28 contests with Buffalo from '95-'97 ... Started 17 games during his three-year tenure with the Bills from '95-'97, including 13 opening nods during the '97 campaign ... Possesses all the physical tools to become a successful NFL signal-caller with a strong arm and excellent mobility ... An accurate passer who has displayed the instincts to perform under fire both at the collegiate and pro level ... A true student of the game who is frequently found studying the game's finer points in the film room ... Despite seeing limited regular season duty with the Chiefs, has finished two of the past three preseasons as Kansas City's highest rated passer, including a 106.3 preseason efficiency rating in '99 when he hit on 21 of 34 passes for 270 yards and two TDs ... Claimed off waivers from Buffalo on August 26th of '98, just 10 days before the season opener ... Spent two seasons serving as the understudy of 2002 Pro Football Hall Fame inductee Jim Kelly before taking over the starting reigns for the Bills in '97 ... In 29 career games (17 starts) has completed 277 of 523 (53.0%) passes for 3,258 yards with 16 touchdowns and 19 interceptions ... Owns a 67.6 career rating ... Has also rushed 62 times for 149 yards ... Completed one of four passes for seven yards in his lone playoff appearance with the Bills in '96 ... Originally entered the league as a second-round draft choice (45th overall) of Buffalo in '95. At Kansas City (1998-01): Joined the Chiefs on August 26th of '98 after being waived by Buffalo the previous day ... Has seen one game of regular season game action in a Chiefs uniform in his four years with the club, completing three of four passes for 40 yards, good for a 106.2 rating ... In preseason play with the Chiefs the past four seasons has connected on 82 of 140 attempts (58.6%) for 842 yards with four TDs and one INT, good for an 82.7 rating. 2001: Was listed as the club's backup QB in all 16 games, seeing action in one contest ... Completed three of four passes for 40 yards at Washington (9/30) in his initial regular season duty with Kansas City. Produced a 106.2 rating and added two rushes for six yards. Got his first completion in a Chiefs uniform on a 26-yard completion to TE Mikhael Ricks. 2000: Did not take any snaps during the regular season ... Was listed as the second QB in five games and was the third quarterback for 11 contests ... Was listed as the backup QB at San Diego (11/26), at New England (12/4), vs. Carolina (12/10), vs. Denver (12/17) and at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Did not take any snaps during the regular season and was listed as the club's third QB in all 16 contests ... Hit on 21 of 34 passes for 270 yards, a pair of scores and a 106.3 rating in preseason play ... Led the Chiefs back from a 34-27 fourth quarter deficit for a 37-34 win in the preseason finale at San Diego (9/3), hitting six of seven passes for 82 yards on a pair of scoring drives in the final frame. 1998: Did not see any regular season game action ... Connected on six of 12 attempts for 49 yards in his lone preseason appearance with Kansas City vs. St. Louis (8/28) ... Listed as the team's third quarterback for 13 contests ... Designated as the squad's back-up quarterback behind Rich Gannon at Jacksonville (9/13), vs. San Diego (9/20) and at Philadelphia (9/27) due to a right shoulder injury suffered by Grbac in the season-opener vs. Oakland (9/6). Did not see action in any of those outings. At Buffalo (1995-97): Took the field in 28 games over a three-year span with Buffalo making 17 starts ... Completed 284 of 519 (54.7%) passes for 3,218 yards, good for 16 TDs and 19 INTs and a 68.5 rating ... Also saw brief duty in one postseason contest, hitting on one of four passes for seven yards in '96. 1997: Earned the Bills starting job at QB after beating out Alex Van Pelt and Billy Joe Hobert in camp ... Saw duty in 14 games, getting the starting nod in 13 of those contests ... Was true on 215 of 391 passes (55.0%), good for 2,367 yards with 12 TDs, 13 INTs and a 69.5 rating ... BORN: SEPTEMBER 16, 1978

AHOSKIE, NORTH CAROLINA

GP/GS: (15/9) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Powerful defensive tackle entering his second campaign in Kansas City in 2002 ... Was thrust into the starting spotlight six games into his rookie season and did not relinquish that post for the remainder of the season ... Opened the final nine games of the season a year ago and is expected to compete for a starting role once again ... Expected to pair with 2002 first-round draft pick Ryan Sims to give the club a formidable young defensive tackle tandem ... The soft-spoken North Carolina native was recognized by his teammates as the club's 2001 Mack Lee Hill award recipient, given to the Chiefs most outstanding rookie or first-year player ... Looks to improve on an already quick start to his NFL career and benefitted greatly from an entire spring in the club's off-season strength and conditioning program ... Began last season as the primary back-up to John Browning at the left defensive tackle spot, but took over the top position after Browning suffered a season-ending injury to his right knee ... Found himself in Kansas City's starting lineup for the season's final nine games, the most by a Chiefs rookie defensive tackle since '84 ... Continued to grow into the position as the season progressed, steadily improving his technique under the direction of Chiefs defensive line coaches Bob Karmelowicz and Carl Hairston ... Finished the year with 36 tackles, 1.5 sacks, three QB pressures, a forced fumble and batted down a pair of passes ... The culmination of his season-long learning experience was a career-high six tackle effort at Seattle (1/6/02) including one tackle for loss ... Originally entered the NFL as Kansas City's first overall pick, when he was selected as the first of Kansas City's two picks in the third round (75th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft. 2001: Played in 15 games (nine starts) at DT ... Voted by his teammates as the club's Mack Lee Hill Award recipient as the Chiefs outstanding rookie or first-year player ... Was inactive one game ... Had 36 tackles (20 solo), three tackles for loss, three QB pressures, a forced fumble, 1.5 sacks (-11.0 yards) and two passes defended ... EASTERN KENTUCKY

FREE AGENT (2000)

NFL: 6 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: NOVEMBER 15, 1973

HARRODSBURG, KENTUCKY

GP/GS: (70/34) PLAYOFFS: (1/1)

Pro Career: Tremendously talented tight end entering his sixth pro campaign and his third year in the Red and Gold ... Originally inked with Kansas City as a free agent on July 11th of 2000 ... Attempting to construct an injury-free campaign for the first time since his rookie season with the Eagles in '96 ... Successfully rebounded from a knee injury which cost him the entire '99 season, only to be hindered by an injured clavicle during the 2000 preseason with the Chiefs ... Bounced back from that injury to see duty in 14 games in his initial season with Kansas City ... Saw action in the first 15 contests of 2001 before an elbow injury kept him out of the season finale ... Is once again expected to work as the Chiefs second tight end behind three-time Pro Bowler Tony Gonzalez ... A massive target for quarterbacks, giving Kansas City a whopping one-two punch when he and Gonzalez align in two-TE sets ... The Chiefs frequently utilized that arrangement in 2001 when he started six contests ... Has yet to fully tap his vast potential, but when healthy has shown the ability to be one of the league's most dynamic players at his position ... Has the size and strength to be a truly dominating blocker at the point of attack ... Frequently does his best work blocking linebackers and defensive backs down the field and played an important role in helping Priest Holmes claim the NFL's rushing crown in 2001 ... Although not a frequent target in the passing game, is a dependable pass catcher who is truly tough to bring down once he gets the ball in his hands ... Has seen action in 70 regular season games (34 starts) with the Eagles and Chiefs ... Owns 46 career receptions for 637 yards (13.8 avg.) with five touchdowns ... Also started one postseason game with Philadelphia as a rookie ... Originally entered the league as the second-round selection (54th overall) of the Eagles in the '96 NFL Draft. At Kansas City (2000-01): Has seen duty in 29 games with eight starts for the Chiefs, producing six catches for 80 yards (13.3 avg.) with one TD. 2001: Appeared in 15 games (six starts) as the club's second TE ... Produced four receptions for 54 yards (13.5 avg.) and one TD ... Also returned two kickoffs for 34 yards ... Served as the club's second TE vs. Oakland (9/9), catching one pass for six yards and returning his first two career kickoffs for 34 yards ... Worked in a reserve role vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23), at Washington (9/30), at Denver (10/7) and vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Started his first game of the year when the team opened in a two-TE formation at Arizona (10/21) ... Caught a season-long 28-yard pass vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Saw reserve action on offense and on the kickoff return team at San Diego (11/4) and at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Started vs. Seattle (11/25), vs. Philadelphia (11/29) and at Oakland (12/9) when the team opened in a two-TE package ... Was the club's second TE vs. Denver (12/16) ... Caught two passes for 20 yards with a three-yard TD reception vs. San Diego (12/23), marking his first TD with the Chiefs and first scoring reception since '97 with Philadelphia. Also caught a 17-yard pass on the club's game-winning drive ... Started the game as the club's second TE at Jacksonville (12/30), but left the game in the third quarter after hyperextending his right elbow and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on January 4th. 2000: Played in 14 games at TE (two starts) ... Finished the year with two receptions for 26 yards and one tackle on special teams ... Was inactive vs. Indianapolis (9/3) and at Tennessee (9/10) with a clavicle injury suffered in the preseason ... Saw his first action in a Chiefs uniform in a reserve role at TE vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Caught one pass for six yards vs. Buffalo (11/19) and had a tackle on a blocked FG attempt ... Saw action as the club's second TE at San Diego (11/26) and at New England (12/4) ... Had one reception for 20 yards vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Started at TE vs. Denver (12/17) and at Atlanta (12/24) when the team opened in a two-TE set. At Philadelphia (1996-98): Was cut by the Eagles on June 17th of '99 after failing a team physical ... Appeared in 41 games (25 starts) during his tenure with the Eagles ... Caught 40 passes for 557 yards (13.9 avg.) with four TD receptions. 1998: Started 10 games before suffering a season-ending knee injury ... Registered 18 receptions for 132 yards (13.2 avg.) ... Hauled in a career-best four passes at Washington (10/11) ... Tore the posterior cruciate ligament in his left knee at Green Bay (11/29) and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on December 1st. 1997: Played in 15 games (four starts) despite the fact that he was slowed in the preseason by a knee injury suffered during mini-camp ... Totaled seven receptions for 93 yards (13.3 avg.) and four TDs ... Started four of the first six contests before seeing his role reduced when the offense went to a three WR set ... Ran over three would-be tacklers for a 31-yard TD vs. Pittsburgh (11/23) ... Added another 31-yard TD grab in the season finale at Washington (12/21). 1996: Emerged as one of the league's most promising tight ends during his rookie season when he played in all 16 games (12 starts) ... Recorded 15 receptions for 332 yards (22.1 avg.) with two touchdowns ... Capped the season by earning NFL All-Rookie Team honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News, and Pro Football Newsweekly ... Six of his 15 catches during his rookie year covered 24 yards or more ... In the season opener at Washington (9/1), set up a TD when he snared a 54-yard pass from Rodney Peete ... Hauled in a career-long 58-yard pass to set up another score vs. Atlanta (9/22) ... Registered his first TD as a pro vs. Carolina (10/27) as he connected on a nine-yard pass from Ty Detmer ... Went on to set up TDs with a 21-yard, highlight-film catch vs. Washington (11/17) and a 32-yard reception at Arizona (11/24) ... Hauled in his second career TD on a 14-yard reception vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/1).

College: Played at Eastern Kentucky where he worked at TE and was also utilized as a part-time pass rusher as a defensive lineman ... Despite playing in a run-oriented offense, completed his career with 41 receptions for 615 yards and three TDs, plus 19 rushes for 199 yards (10.5 avg.) including two touchdown runs of 68 and 55 yards ... During his senior campaign, had 20 receptions for 221 yards (11.0 avg.) and two TDs ... On defense he registered 4.0 sacks and five tackles, while forcing one fumble and recovering two others ... REMEMBERING SEPTEMBER 11TH

After a one-week hiatus following the the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, the NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City on September 23rd when the Chiefs hosted the Giants. NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which proceeded to greet the Giants with a rousing ovation during introductions as the citizens of Kansas City proudly honored their brethren from New York City. Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil was among the many misty-eyed Americans moved by the patriotic pregame ceremony, which included a presentation of NYPD

NFL: 6 (6TH WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: FEBRUARY 27, 1976

TORRENCE, CALIFORNIA

GP/GS: (79/63) PLAYOFFS: (1/0)

Pro Career: After just five professional seasons with Kansas City, this three-time Pro Bowl tight end has already established himself as one of the elite offensive performers in the entire National Football League ... At the ripe young age of 26 is already poised to become the all-time leading pass catcher in Chiefs history ... Owns 334 catches in the Red and Gold, needing just 83 more receptions in 2002 to overtake WR Henry Marshall for the number one position on the franchise's career receiving chart ... Currently ranks sixth in team annals with 3,958 career receiving yards and is a mere 42 yards away from becoming just the sixth Chiefs player to ever reach the 4,000-yard plateau ... Despite the host of accolades he has already assembled, the best days for this sensationally talented competitor would seemingly still lie ahead ... Lines up in a variety of different formations for the club, starting on the line of scrimmage, split out and even in the backfield ... Will likely continue to be utilized in a multitude of formations as opponents attempt to slow him down ... Poses match-up problems for defensive backs and linebackers alike with his combination of speed, size and athleticism ... Can stretch a defense vertically with his speed, but also takes great pride in his blocking skills at the point of attack on the offensive line ... Endowed with outstanding leaping ability, which, combined with an amazingly flexible six-foot, four-inch frame, permits him to stretch out to make some sensational snags ... Possesses outstanding body control and a fluid running style after the catch ... Credits many of his moves on the gridiron to his basketball background, which included a stint on Cal's '97 "Sweet 16" NCAA Tournament team during his collegiate career ... Those roundball attributes are especially apparent when he goes up in the crowd to pull down a "rebound" or when he pivots and "blocks out" defenders to establish pass-catching position ... Is a truly devoted hoops junkie who has spent a good portion of his previous off-seasons playing in elite pro summer leagues with NBA stars ... Typically celebrates touchdown receptions by emphatically slam-dunking the pigskin over the crossbar ... Became the first Pro Bowl tight end in Chiefs history following the '99 season and earned a starting spot in that game for the AFC each of the past two years, although a knee injury prevented him from playing in that contest following the 2001 campaign ... Selected as a consensus first team All-Pro selection for the third consecutive year in 2001, including a berth on Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro squad, as well the All-Pro units of the AP, USA Today, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, in addition to College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest ... Also earned All-AFC accolades from Pro Football Weekly and Football News ... Possesses an unquenchable thirst to be considered the very best at his position, which helps explain both his relentless work ethic and passionate quest for excellence ... Takes extra repetitions after practice, whether in the off-season, training or regular season and is almost always the last member of the squad off the field ... Is not satisfied with the success he has enjoyed thus far in the league and is constantly pushing himself and his teammates to strive for perfection ... Brings an upbeat, yet humble personality to practice every day and typically one of the last players off the field following practice ... Is unquestionably one of the brightest stars on the Chiefs roster, but is always quick to put team aspirations ahead of his personal accomplishments ... Entered uncharted territory in numerous career sections of the Kansas City record books in 2001 ... Bypassed Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Fred Arbanas (198 receptions for 3,101 yards) as the most prolific tight end in franchise history with 334 career catches for 3,958 yards ... Has produced 50+ receptions each of the past four seasons and could join FB Kimble Anders ('94-99) as just the second player in team history to construct five consecutive years with 50 or more catches ... His 169 catches over the past two campaigns are the highest two-year tally of any player in Chiefs annals ... No player in Kansas City history reached the 300-catch plateau quicker than Gonzalez, who got there in 71 games, breaking the previous standard of 76 set by Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee

Chris Burford ... Only four other Chiefs players (Burford, Otis Taylor, Stephone Paige and Arbanas) have amassed 25 TD receptions quicker than Gonzalez, who did it in his 66th career game ... While his 334 career receptions put him in position to unseat Marshall for the club's all-time lead in receptions in 2002, can also overtake other illustrious performers on that chart such as Taylor (410), Burford (391), WR Stephone Paige (377), Anders (369) and WR Carlos Carson (351) ... Owns 184 career points and is 16 shy of becoming the 16th player in team records to crack the 200-point barrier ... Ranks seventh in team history with 30 touchdown catches, needing four more to overtake Marshall and Carson (33) who are tied for fifth and would surpass Arbanas' total of 34 for fourth place with five more scores in 2002 ... Has caught those 30 career TDs courtesy of three quarterbacks: Elvis Grbac (23), Trent Green (six) and Rich Gannon (one) ... Owns two separate streaks of four straight games with a TD catch, both of which are just one game shy of the team record of five ... In terms of single-season records, shattered several NFL records for tight ends and broke an abundance of Chiefs single-season standards during his fourth pro season in 2000 ... Recorded 93 catches that season, abolishing Carson's previous mark of 80 in '83 ... His 1,203 receiving yards were both the fourth-highest tally in Kansas City history and the fourth-highest mark by a tight end in NFL annals ... Paired with WR Derrick Alexander to become the first duo of Kansas City pass catchers to each amass over 1,000 yards in a single-season as Alexander established a franchise record with 1,391 aerial yards ... Combined with Alexander to total 171 catches for 2,594 yards, both single-season team records for a receiving tandem, breaking the previous marks held by Andre Rison and Anders (131 receptions in '97) and Carson and Marshall (2,139 yards in '83) ... Had three games with 10 or more catches in 2000, breaking Burford's previous club standard of two 10-catch contests in '63 ... Is the only player in franchise annals to produce double-digit receptions in back-to-back games, doing so at New England (12/4/00) and vs. Carolina (12/10/00) ... Was one of just five NFL players and the only TE to top the 10-catch plateau three times in 2000, joining Keenan McCardell (Jacksonville), Muhsin Muhammed (Carolina), Marvin Harrison (Indianapolis) and Joe Horn (New Orleans) ... In 2000 became the first Chiefs player other than a running back to lead the club in receptions in consecutive seasons since Paige in '89-90 ... In 2000, posted six 100-yard receiving games, the highest single-season mark in NFL history by a tight end, a tally which also tied a Kansas City record shared by Taylor ('88), Carson ('83) and Alexander (2000) ... That streak included four straight 100-yard outings, which gave him sole possession of both the NFL record for tight ends and the Kansas City single-season mark in that department ... Gonzalez and Alexander each had six 100-yard games, meaning the only other pair of NFL teammates to each have six individual 100-yard outings were Randy Moss (eight) and Cris Carter (six) of the Vikings. He and Alexander also became the first duo in team history to each have four or more 100-yard outings in a single year ... Owns seven career 100-yard outings, needing five more to tie Burford and Alexander who are tied for third in team history with 12 ... Has established a blistering pace during his first five pro seasons, seeing action in 79 games (63 starts), racking up 334 catches for 3,958 yards (11.9 avg.) with 30 TDs ... Those numbers from the first five seasons of his pro tenure are better than any amassed by any other Pro Bowl tight end who was active in 2001. Shannon Sharpe came the closest with 250 catches for 3,066 yards (12.3 avg.) and 17 TDs with Denver from '90-94 ... Gonzalez's stats from his first five NFL seasons also stack up very favorably against the five tight ends currently enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Mike Ditka, John Mackey, Jackie Smith, Ozzie Newsome and Kellen Winslow) and are topped only by the player whom he most frequently draws comparisons to, Winslow. The former University of Missouri and San Diego Chargers luminary played in just 64 games during his initial five pro seasons ('79-83), but still piled up 344 receptions for 4,513 yards (13.1 avg.) with 35 TDs, giving just 10 catches, 555 more yards and just five more touchdowns than the Chiefs TE over that span ... Based on career per-game averages - which provides a more meaningful comparison - Winslow is the only Hall of Fame tight end with better marks than Gonzalez. In 109 career regular season contests, Winslow averaged 5.0 catches, 61.8 yards, 12.5 yards-per-catch and 0.41 TDs per game. In 79 career regular season games, Gonzalez has averaged 4.2 catches, 50.1 yards, 11.9 yards-per-catch and 0.38 touchdowns per game ... In 2001, bypassed the first of those five Canton enshrinees in receptions, overtaking longtime Colts stalwart Mackey's tally of 331 ... Needs 94 more catches to overtake Ditka's tally of 427 career receptions ... Racked up 20 TD catches from '99-00, a marked topped in team history only by the total of 21 amassed by Burford ('62-63) and Paige ('85-86) ... Went four straight games with a TD catch in 2000, just one shy of the team record of five shared by Burford ('62) and Taylor ('66) ... Owns 46 career receptions of 20 or more yards, the third-highest career total since the club began recording that stat in '90 ... Needs just eight more to overtake WR Willie Davis (53) for second place ... Established himself as the league's finest tight end with a spectacular '99 campaign which saw him catch 76 passes for 849 yards in 15 games, totals which ranked the highest by any player at his position in the NFL that year ... Got hot down the stretch of the '98 campaign when he produced 24 of his 59 catches (40.7%) and both of his touchdowns during the season's final five weeks and carried that momentum over to '99 ... Moved into the starting lineup in '98 after an impressive rookie campaign in '97 ... Received the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player after compiling 33 catches for 368 yards and two TDs during his initial pro season ... Has seen action in a total of 79 regular season NFL contests with 63 starts ... Only contest he missed was the '99 season opener at Chicago (9/12/99) due to a preseason knee injury ... Enters the 2002 campaign with a streak of 47 consecutive starts dating back to the second game of the '99 campaign, the second-longest active string on the roster behind Will Shields (127) ... Has recorded 334 receptions for 3,958 yards (11.9 avg.) with 30 TDs and a long reception of 73 yards ... Completed his initial NFL pass attempt for a 40-yard gain to fellow TE Mikhael Ricks at San Diego (11/4/01) ... Also used those athletic skills to block a punt in '97 and recover an onside kick in '98 and had one rush for nine yards in 2001 ... Owns one career postseason appearance, getting three catches for 27 yards and a 12-yard TD in '97 ... Ranked atop Kansas City's wish list heading into the NFL's annual selection meeting in '97 and the Chiefs moved up five spots in the first round to select this highly-coveted tight end with the 13th overall selection in a draft-day trade with Houston. The Chiefs obtained the Oilers first-round pick (13th overall - used on Gonzalez) and their fourth-round pick (110th overall - used on QB Pat Barnes) in exchange for Kansas City's original first-round selection (18th overall - used on DE Kenny Holmes), a third-round pick (81st overall - used on T Scott Sanderson), a fourth-round pick (116th overall - subsequently traded by Houston to New Orleans) and a sixth-round selection (181st overall - used on LB Dennis Stallings) ... Declared for the draft following his junior season. 2001: Started all 16 games at TE for the third time in his career, leading the team with 73 receptions for 917 yards (12.6 avg.) and six TDs ... Selected as a starter to his third consecutive Pro Bowl, although he did not play in the game due to a knee injury ... Was a consensus All-Pro and All-AFC pick for the third consecutive year, as well ... Became the first player since FB Kimble Anders ('94-'96) to lead the team in receiving three consecutive seasons ... His 73 catches tied Baltimore's Shannon Sharpe for the NFL lead among TEs, while his 917 receiving yards led all players at his position ... Also completed a pass for 40 yards and added a rush for nine yards ... His 13 catches of 20+ yards trailed only Indianapolis' Marcus Pollard (14) for the NFL lead among TEs ... Grabbed a team-high five passes for 81 yards vs. Oakland (9/9), bypassing Fred Arbanas (3,101) for the most receiving yards by a TE in Chiefs history on a 15-yard reception in the fourth quarter ... Had five receptions for 43 yards vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Recorded a team-high five catches for 88 yards with a three-yard TD at Washington (9/30) ... Caught a season-best eight passes for 129 yards at Denver (10/7), his seventh career 100-yard receiving game and one of just four such games by an NFL tight end in 2001. Made a spectacular 35-yard reception while literally sitting on the ground along the sideline after it had bounced off of two Broncos defenders ... Led the club with five catches for 46 yards vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) and caught a two-point conversion from Trent Green ... Totaled four receptions for 58 yards at Arizona (10/21) ... Produced three catches for 75 yards with a 35-yard TD vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Caught four passes for 42 yards and completed his first NFL pass for 40 yards to fellow TE Mikhael Ricks to set up a TD at San Diego (11/4). With a 14-yard catch in the third quarter he became the fastest Chief to reach the 300-catch plateau (Chris Burford - 76 games) and the second-fastest TE in NFL history (Kellen Winslow - 57 games) to reach that milestone in only his 71st game ... Led the team with five catches for 43 yards at the N.Y. Jets (11/11), including a six-yard TD catch ... Caught a team-high six passes for 71 yards vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Hauled in four passes for 28 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Caught four passes for 51 yards at Oakland (12/9) with a 24-yard TD reception ... Had three receptions for 53 yards vs. Denver (12/16), including a season long 36-yard reception ... Produced two receptions for 22 yards vs. San Diego (12/23) ... Tied a season-high with eight receptions for 78 yards at Jacksonville (12/30) and tied a career high with two TDs, getting them from one and 12 yards out. Added his first career rush for nine yards ... Had two receptions for nine yards at Seattle (1/6/02) before suffering an injury to the MCL of his left knee on a "Hail Mary" play at the end of the first half. 2000: Started 16 games at TE, catching a Chiefs single-season record 93 passes for a personal-best 1,203 yards (12.9 avg.) and nine TDs ... A consensus All-Pro and All-AFC selection ... His 1,203 receiving yards were the fourth-highest single-season total in team history and the fourth-highest by a TE in NFL history ... Those 93 catches were the third-highest total by a TE in NFL history, coming just three receptions shy of Ben Coates' mark of 96 established with New England in '94 ... Became the first player other than a RB to lead the team in receptions in consecutive seasons since WR Stephane Paige did it in '89-'90 ... Led all NFL TEs in receptions, yards and TDs ... Ranked sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL in receptions ... Recorded double-digit receptions in three contests, a first in team history ... Had 13 catches of 20+ yards, the most of any NFL TE on the season ... Caught two passes for 34 yards vs. Indianapolis (9/3) and two passes for 16 yards at Tennessee (9/10) ... Had four receptions for 43 yards vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Produced 10 receptions for 127 yards, including a 15-yard TD at Denver (9/24). That contest marked his first 10-catch game and the initial 100-yard outing of his career ... Snared three passes for 34 yards, including a 15-yard TD vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Caught seven passes for 100 yards and a 14-yard TD vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Grabbed five passes for 117 yards and a nine-yard TD vs. St. Louis (10/22). It was his fourth straight game with a TD, the second-longest streak in team history. It was also the first back-to-back 100-yard games by a NFL TE since Shannon Sharpe did it vs. San Diego (10/6/96) and vs. Baltimore (10/20/96). Eclipsed the club's career mark for receptions by a TE (198 - Fred Arbanas) and moved into eighth place on the all-time receptions list with a 14-yard pass in the third quarter, as well. Also reached the 200-catch plateau on a 30-yard pass in the third quarter, a milestone which came in his 54th NFL game, making him the second-quickest Chief to reach the milestone (Chris Burford - 52 games) ... Secured eight passes for 101 yards at Seattle (10/29). Surpassed Walter White (2,396) for second place among Chiefs TEs all-time in receiving yards ... Became the first TE in NFL history to record four consecutive 100-yard receiving games at Oakland (11/5), catching nine passes for 134 yards ... Totaled four catches for 46 yards at San Francisco (11/12) ... Had nine catches for 76 yards and a career-high tying two TDs (nine and 13 yards) vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Had a streak of 44 consecutive games with a reception dating back to 12/7/97 vs. Oakland snapped at San Diego (11/26) when Warren Moon started at QB. That streak is tied as the third-longest in team history with Carlos Carson (12/20/81 - 9/12/85) ... Set career highs for both receptions and yards with an 11-catch, 147-yard outburst which included a four-yard TD in a Monday Night Football contest at New England (12/4). Set a NFL record for TEs and tied a club mark with his sixth 100-yard game of the season. His 11 catches tied as the second-highest single-game total in Chiefs history ... TRENT GREEN

QUARTERBACK - 6-3 - 217

INDIANA

TRADE - ST. LOUIS (2001)

NFL: 9 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: JULY 9, 1970

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA

GP/GS: (40/35) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Highly-talented triggerman of the Chiefs offense returns for his second season with Kansas City in 2002 ... Joined the club on April 20th of 2001 when he was acquired after lengthy trade negotiations with St. Louis ... Kansas City consummated the deal for Green just hours before the start of the 2001 NFL Draft the next day, landing the talented passer on the western side of the Show Me State after a two-year stint on Missouri's eastern bank in St. Louis ... The Chiefs received Green along with the first of the Rams two selections in the fifth round (150th overall - used by Kansas City on RB Derrick Blaylock) in exchange for Kansas City's first-round selection (12th overall - used by St. Louis on DT Damione Lewis) ... Polished, poised, professional and popular are perhaps the best descriptors to capture the essence of this highly-affable and highly-coveted signal-caller ... A charismatic figure in both the Arrowhead locker room and the Kansas City community, Green embarks upon his ninth NFL season and his second in the Red and Gold in 2002 ... Enters this season hoping to build on a strong finish to the 2001 campaign which saw Kansas City win three of its final four contests as the club finished fifth in the NFL in both total (354.6 ypg) and passing offense (229.1 ypg) ... In terms of individual performance, concluded his debut season in Kansas City with 523 pass attempts and 3,783 aerial yards, both of which ranked as the third-highest single-season tallies in team annals ... His 296 completions were fourth on the club's seasonal passing chart, while his 51 passes of 20 or more yards were the second-highest tally by a Chiefs QB since the team began keeping that stat in '90 ... After previous pro stints in San Diego ('93), Washington ('95-98) and St. Louis ('99-00), the Chiefs hope Green's fourth NFL stop will be both a long and prosperous stay, as well as his final stop of his pro football journey ... Was reunited with head coach Dick Vermeil and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders in Kansas City and seeks to continue the offensive progress the club made a year ago ... Born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa (the same city where current Rams starting QB Kurt Warner attended high school), Green spent the majority of his youth in Missouri, prepping at Vianney High School in Kirkwood, Missouri just outside of St. Louis ... Started all 16 contests for the first time in his career a year ago, completing a remarkable comeback odyssey which began following a devastating knee injury that cost him the entire '99 regular season and his starting job in St. Louis ... What was envisioned to be a happy homecoming to Missouri for Green in '99 took a painful turn shortly after he inked with the Rams as an unrestricted free agent from Washington on February 16th of '99 ... Was poised to lead St. Louis as that club's starting QB in '99, but his hopes for the year were dashed before the start of the regular season ... In just his third appearance with the Rams in the '99 preseason vs. San Diego (8/28), suffered a devastating knee injury when he tore the ACL, MCL and lateral meniscus in his left knee ... While the Rams would recover from Green's loss and complete a remarkable march to Super Bowl XXXIV with Warner at the club's helm, Green spent two seasons overcoming lingering effects of injuries ... Came back to play in eight games with five starts for St. Louis in 2000, but those injuries did require further surgery prior to his arrival in Kansas City ... Thanks in large part to a vigorous rehabilitation regiment, was able to join the club for training camp a year ago after being forced to sit out the bulk of the club's off-season work ... Is well-versed in the Chiefs offensive scheme which came from St. Louis along with Vermeil and Saunders ... Saunders was schooled in this offensive philosophy during his days working in San Diego's "Air Coryell" offense in the '80s, while Green's hands-on familiarity with this high-octane offensive framework dates back to his time with both Washington and St. Louis ... With the Redskins was tutored by the likes of current Miami offensive coordinator Norv Turner who was Washington's head coach at the time, as well as current Rams head coach Mike Martz who served as the Redskins quarterbacks coach and was the head coach in St. Louis in 2000 with Saunders serving as the Rams associate head coach/wide receivers coach ... Is a seemingly perfect fit for this scheme which puts more of a premium on accuracy and precision than sheer arm strength ... Displayed that passing precision by recording two of the top three single-game completion percentage marks in Kansas City history a year ago ... Also ranked second in the NFL with a 12.78 yards-per-completion average, trailing only Warner, who produced a 12.88 mark ... During his last campaign with the Rams in 2000, led the NFC with a 101.8 efficiency rating which is a testament to the quick-witted decision making this offense demands ... Has seen action in 40 regular season NFL contests with 35 starts ... Has completed 719 of 1,273 (56.5%) of his passes for 9,287 yards with 56 touchdowns and 40 interceptions, good for an 81.3 rating ... Boasts an impressive 4.4 career TD percentage ... Has also rushed 97 times for 344 yards (3.5 avg.) with three TDs ... Has a 14-21 (.400) record as an NFL starter (6-8 with Washington, 2-3 with St. Louis and 6-10 with Kansas City) ... Owns eight career 300-yard passing games, including three last season with Kansas City, in addition to three with St. Louis in 2000 and two with Washington in '98 ... Had a brief, two-week stint on the roster of the CFL's British Columbia Lions in '94 ... Originally entered the league as an eighth-round draft pick (222nd overall) by the Chargers in the '93 NFL Draft. At Kansas City (2001): Started all 16 games, completing 296 of 523 passes (56.6%) for 3,783 yards with 17 TDs and 24 INTs, good for a 71.1 rating ... Added 35 rushes for 158 yards (4.8 avg.) ... His 523 attempts and 3,783 passing yards both ranked as the third-highest single-season total in Chiefs history, while his 296 completions ranked fourth in team annals ... His 3,783 passing yards ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL ... Tied for second in the AFC and seventh in the NFL with 51 passes of 20+ yards, the second-highest seasonal total in KC annals, just four shy of the team record of 55 in 2000 ... Completed 67 of 132 passes for 903 yards on third down with five TDs and three INTs, good for a 76.0 rating to rank eighth in the AFC ... Connected on 112 of 161 passes (69.6%) for 1,498 yards with seven TDs and six INTs in the club's six victories, good for a 97.8 rating. That rating would have led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL behind Kurt Warner of St. Louis (101.4) ... Completed 60.0% of his passes or better in five of KC's six victories ... Averaged an AFC-best 12.78 yards per completion ... Was fourth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL with a 7.23 yards-per-attempt average ... Completed a pair of two-point conversion passes to tie Randy Duncan and Len Dawson for the most in a season by a Chiefs QB ... Made his first start in a Chiefs uniform vs. Oakland (9/9), hitting 16 of 37 passes for 222 yards with a TD and an INT, getting his initial completion on a one-yard pass to himself on a batted ball. Also rushed four times for 11 yards, including a 12-yard scramble on a key fourth-and-10 play in the fourth quarter ... Completed 17 of 34 passes for 184 yards with one INT vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) and he also rushed three times for 17 yards ... Connected on 21 of 26 passes for 307 yards with three TDs at Washington (9/30), marking his sixth career 300-yard game and his first as a member of the Chiefs. Compiled a 154.3 QB rating, just four points shy of a "perfect" 158.3 rating. In addition, his 80.77 completion percentage was the third-best single-game mark in Chiefs history ... Completed 25 of 40 passes for 283 yards with four INTs (all by Deltha O'Neal) at Denver (10/7) ... Connected on 16 of 33 passes for 127 yards with one INT vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) and threw a two-point conversion pass to TE Tony Gonzalez ... Completed 21 of 44 passes for 352 yards with one TD and two INTs at Arizona (10/21), marking his seventh career 300-yard outing and his second of the season ... Connected on 22 of 43 passes for 324 yards with three TDs and three INTs, good for a 70.3 QB rating vs. Indianapolis (10/25). Rushed three times for 19 yards and converted a two-point play on the ground ... Completed 13 of 25 passes for 146 yards with an INT at San Diego (11/4) ... Connected on 16 of 31 passes for 143 yards with a TD and three INTs at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Completed 16 of 26 passes for 256 yards vs. Seattle (11/25), good for a 94.4 rating ... Was true on 21 of 35 throws for 213 yards with a TD and an INT vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Completed 15 of 32 passes for 253 yards with two TDs and an INT at Oakland (12/9), including a season-long 67-yard TD pass to Priest Holmes ... Connected on 17 of 21 passes for 292 yards with a TD and an INT, good for a 114.8 rating vs. Denver (12/16). Completed a 56-yard pass to Marvin Minnis in OT to set up the game-winning FG. His 80.95 completion percentage tied Dave Krieg (at N.Y. Jets on 11/29/92) for the top single-game mark in Chiefs history ... Completed 19 of 28 passes for 203 yards with a TD and two INTs vs. San Diego (12/23), guiding the the Chiefs to a 25-20 victory, marking the third time he led the team to a win when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter. Also established season highs with five rushes for 36 yards ... Had a season-high 26 completions on 35 attempts, getting 294 yards with two TDs and two INTs at Jacksonville (12/30), good for a 94.2 rating ... Completed 15 of 33 throws for 184 yards with a TD and an INT at Seattle (1/6/02). At St. Louis (1999-00): Played in eight games with five starts with all of that regular season duty coming with the club in 2000 ... Completed 145 of 240 (60.4%) passes for 2,063 yards with 16 touchdowns and five interceptions, good for a 101.8 rating ... Also rushed 20 times for 69 yards and one touchdown ... Compiled in 2-3 record in his five starting efforts. 2000: Saw duty in eight games (five starts) in place of an injured Kurt Warner ... Completed 145 of 240 passes (60.4%) for 2,063 yards, 16 touchdowns, and five interceptions good for a 101.8 rating ... That 101.8 rating topped the NFC and was just nine-tenths of a point behind Denver's Brian Griese (102.9), who led the league ... Did not play in first four games of season vs. Denver (9/4), at Seattle (9/10), vs. San Francisco (9/17) and at Atlanta (9/24) and listed as the Rams number two QB behind Warner ... Saw his first regular season action as member of the Rams vs. San Diego (10/1), completing three of four passes for 75 yards and one touchdown, a 48-yard completion to RB Marshall Faulk ... Did not play vs. Atlanta (10/15) ... Entered the game in third quarter vs. Kansas City (10/22) after Warner left the contest with a broken finger. Completed 15 of 21 passes, good for season-high completion percentage (71.4) to go with 205 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. Connected on scoring passes of 31 yards to TE

Roland Williams, as well as 22-yard and four-yard TD passes to WR Isaac Bruce ... Made his first start in a St. Louis uniform the following week at San Francisco (10/29), registering his third career 300-yard passing game. Completed 22 of 39 passes for 310 yards and two touchdowns ... Started vs. Carolina (11/5) completing a season-high 29 of 42 passes for a career-high 431 yards and two touchdowns, good for an 118.3 passer rating. Those 431 yards were the seventh-highest single-game passing mark in the NFL on the year. ... Started at the N.Y. Giants (11/12), tying a career high by throwing four touchdown passes (one yard to Williams, five yards to WR Torry Holt, eight yards to WR Ricky Proehl and 34 yards to Bruce) after completing 27 of 45 passes (60.0%) for 272 yards and rushing for an 18-yard score ... Started his fourth straight game vs. Washington (11/20), completing 23 of 38 passes for 366 yards with two TDs and firing a season-long 64-yard pass to Holt in second quarter ... Started vs. New Orleans (11/26), hitting the mark on 20 of 41 passes for 289 yards with TD passes of 35 yards to Az-Zahir Hakim and 19 yards to Proehl ... Played in second half of regular season finale at New Orleans (12/24) after Warner left the contest with concussion and completed six of 10 passes for 115 yards. Led the Rams to a pair of pair of scoring drives in a 26-21 victory which propelled St. Louis into the playoffs ... Did not play in the NFC Wild Card game at New Orleans (12/30) the following week. 1999: Missed entire regular season after tearing ACL, MCL and lateral meniscus in left knee in the third preseason game vs. San Diego (8/28) when he was tackled by SS Rodney Harrison ... Completed 28 of 32 passes for 406 yards with two touchdowns in three preseason contests, good for a 126.8 rating ... His completion percentage of 87.5 was highest among NFL quarterbacks who had at least 30 attempts in the preseason. At Washington (1995-98): Played in 16 games with 14 starts in two seasons with the Redskins ... Completed 278 of 510 passes for 3,441 yards with 23 touchdowns and 11 INTs, good for an 81.6 rating ... Produced a 6-8 record as a starter for the Redskins with all of those opening nods coming in '98. 1998: Saw action in 15 games (14 starts), completing 278 of 509 passes (54.6%) with a career-high 23 touchdowns and 11 interceptions ... His 509 pass attempts are still third most in Redskins history, trailing only Jay Schroeder (541 in '86) and Brad Johnson (519 in '99) ... Led Washington to a 6-3 record over the final nine games of the year ... Stepped in for an injured Gus Frerotte at the N.Y. Giants (9/6), hitting on 17 of 25 passes for 208 yards and two touchdowns ... Made his first NFL start following week vs. San Francisco (9/14), completing 14 of 25 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown ... Completed 27 passes on a career-high 54 attempts for 383 yards at Seattle (9/20) ... Launched a career-long 75-yard TD pass to WR Michael Westbrook vs. Denver (9/27) ... Only game he did not see action in came at Minnesota (10/18) ... Completed 21 of 31 passes for 225 yards with one TD pass and scored his first rushing touchdown on a one-yard run vs. the N.Y. Giants (11/1) ... Started vs. Arizona (11/22), completing a career-high 30 of 49 passes for 382 yards establishing a career high with four touchdowns (15, 12 and 11 yards to Westbrook and a 16-yarder to WR Leslie Shepherd), as well as a two-yard rushing touchdown ... Started at Carolina (12/13), completing 23 of 42 passes for 257 yards and two touchdowns in a 28-25 win ... Guided the club to a 20-16 win at Tampa Bay (12/19) with the deciding margin coming on a 15-yard TD pass to Stephen Alexander in the fourth quarter ... Had 223 yards in a season-ending 23-7 loss at Dallas (12/27). 1997: Saw duty in one game, attempting one pass ... Served as the third quarterback for the first 15 games of the season ... Saw his first regular season NFL game action vs. Philadelphia (12/21) with his lone pass attempt falling incomplete. 1996: Was listed as the third QB for all 16 regular season games and did not see game action. 1995: Did not take a regular season snap the entire season as Washington's third quarterback. Canadian Football League (1994): Signed with British Columbia of the Canadian Football League on October 28th of '94 ... Dressed for two games, but did not see any action and was subsequently released on November 10th. At San Diego (1993): Earned a spot on San Diego's roster as the club's third quarterback ... Was inactive for all 16 games after joining the club as an eight-round (222nd overall) draft choice.

WIDE RECEIVER - 5-8 - 187

TEXAS A&M

DRAFT (NO. 5A - 2000)

NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: SEPTEMBER 1, 1978

LUFKIN, TEXAS

GP/GS: (18/0) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Shifty third-year performer who is unquestionably one of the speediest players on the Kansas City squad ... Is listed as a wide receiver, but is a true triple-threat performer who can make a difference as a receiver, runner or return man ... Captured the club's punt and kickoff return duties a year ago and should continue to handle those chores once again ... Enjoyed a solid debut in that role a year ago, particularly in terms of kickoff returns ... His 43 KO returns were the third-highest seasonal total in team annals, while his 969 KO return yards were the fourth-highest single-season tally in Chiefs history ... In addition to his return duties, is expected to make a push for more playing time on offense in 2002 ... Can line up in the backfield or split out, making him a candidate to become more involved in third-down situations ... Worked with the club's receiving corps during the off-season where he is expected to take snaps during training camp ... Is an elusive runner with breakaway speed and a natural pass catcher, a combination which the Chiefs believe will be a potent mix for defenders once he hits the open field ... Joins a growing list of NFL Europe alumni playing in the NFL after spending the spring of 2001 playing for the Scottish Claymores ... Has seen duty in 18 regular season contests, taking snaps on offense in five games ... Owns 60 kickoff returns for 1,327 yards (22.1 avg.) with a long of 71 to go along with 38 punt returns for 272 yards (7.2 avg.) with a long of 26 ... Has two rushes for 10 yards, as well ... Already ranks fourth on the Chiefs career KO return yardage chart and can bypass Noland Smith (1,822) for third with 496 more yards ... Is also just 905 yards shy of overtaking Dave Grayson (2,231) for second place ... His 60 KO returns are the sixth-best tally in franchise history with Jeff Smith (62), Anthony Hancock (64) and Noland Smith (68) looming just ahead ... Needs 25 more kickoff runbacks to move past Grayson (84) for second place in that category, as well ... Was selected by the Chiefs in the fifth round (153rd overall) of the 2000 draft. 2001: Appeared in 13 games as the club's return specialist and took snaps in five games on offense ... Registered 43 kickoff returns for 969 yards to finish ninth in the AFC with a 22.5-yard average ... Those 43 kickoff returns were the third-highest tally in team history, while his 969 kickoff ranked fourth ... Returned 32 punts for 235 yards (7.3 avg.) and had two rushes for 10 yards ... Ran back punts and kickoffs for the club in the season's initial five games ... Returned a career-high four punts for 27 yards including a career-long 26-yarder at Denver (10/7) ... Was inactive vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), at Arizona (10/21) and vs. Indianapolis (10/25) with a shoulder injury he suffered vs. the Broncos ... Returned to the lineup as the club's return man at San Diego (11/4) and remained there for the final eight games of the year ... Registered his first career NFL carry for six yards at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Tied a career high with four punt returns for 24 yards vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Had five KO returns for a career-high 131 yards with a long of 59 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/29), as well as one rush for four yards ... Returned three kickoffs for 106 yards including a career-long 71 yard return at Oakland (12/9). That kickoff return was the longest by a Chief since Tamarick Vanover had a 77-yarder vs. Denver (11/16/97). Also tied a career-high with four punt returns for 26 yards ... Had a career-high six KO returns for 108 yards vs. Denver (12/16) ... Took back five KOs for 122 yards at Jacksonville (12/30). NFL Europe (2001): Played in nine games with nine starts for the Scottish Claymores ... Missed one game with a groin injury ... Ranked sixth in the NFL with 34 receptions and was eighth with 462 yards for five scores ... Led the league with 26 kickoff returns for 635 yards (24.4 avg.) and was second in punt returns with 15 for 177 yards (11.8 avg.) ... Finished second in NFL Europe with 1,286 combined net yards. 2000: Played on special teams in five games, returning 17 KOs for 358 yards (21.1 avg.) and six punts for 37 yards (6.2 avg.) ... Was inactive for the first three games due to a back injury ... Made his NFL debut at Denver (9/24), returning five KOs for 108 yards (21.6 avg.) ... Returned three KOs for 81 yards (27.0 avg.), including a 35-yarder vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Took back three KOs for 84 yards (28.0 avg.), including a season-long 36-yarder vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Returned two KOs for 24 yards vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Took back four KOs for 61 yards at Seattle (10/29) ... Was inactive for the final eight games of the season.

College: Finished his career at Texas A&M with 4,707 all-purpose yards, the second-highest tally in school history, trailing only Darren Lewis, who racked up 5,138 yards from '87-90 ... Also ranked second in Aggies history with 943 career punt return yards ... Established the Texas A&M single-season punt return record with 573 yards on 43 runbacks (13.3 avg.) as a freshman in '96 ... Saw action in 43 career games (25 starts), registering 522 rushing attempts for 2,818 yards (5.4 avg.) and 22 TDs ... Those 2,818 rushing yards rank seventh in school history ... Finished his career with eight 100-yard rushing contests ... Also caught 22 passes for 260 yards ... Had 78 career punt returns for 943 yards (12.1 avg.) and two TDs ... Returned 32 kickoffs for 686 yards (21.4 avg.), as well ... Final collegiate tally showed 654 total touches for 4,707 yards and 24 TDs ... Appeared in six games, starting four contests before being ruled ineligible for the remainder of the season in '99 ... Finished the year with 53 carries for 179 yards (3.4 avg.) and a pair of touchdowns ... Added five receptions for 59 yards (11.8 avg.) ... Produced 134 yards on 11 punt returns (12.2 avg.) and 34 yards on three kickoff returns (11.3 avg.) ... Played in all 13 games, starting nine contests his junior year in '98 ... Led the team in rushing with 243 carries for 1,024 yards (4.2 avg.) and eight touchdowns ... Caught six passes for 92 yards (15.3 avg.) ... Returned eight kickoffs for 172 yards (21.5 avg.) and had seven punt returns for 28 yards (4.0 avg.) ... Played in 12 games with 11 starts as a sophomore ... Led the team with 134 carries for 973 yards (7.3 avg.) and nine touchdowns ... His 7.3 yards-per-carry average established a school season-record ... Grabbed eight passes for 97 yards (12.1 avg.) ... Gained 208 yards with a score on 17 punt returns and had 156 yards on seven kickoff returns (22.3 avg.) ... Played in all 12 games with one start as a redshirt freshman ... Ranked third on the team with 92 carries for 642 yards (7.0 avg.) and three touchdowns ... Set school season-records with 43 punt returns for 573 yards (13.3 avg.) and a score ... Added 324 yards on 14 kickoff returns (23.1 avg.) and 12 yards on three catches (4.0 avg.) ... Amassed 212 all-purpose yards vs. North Texas ... Majored in Sociology at Texas A&M.

Personal: An All-America selection as a senior at Nimitz High School in Houston, Texas ... Despite playing in only seven games due to a knee injury as a senior, still rushed for over 900 yards that year ... Full name: Damieon Dante Hall ... Single ... Resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

Pro Career: Remarkable NFL success story who seemingly overcomes every obstacle thrown his way, whether on or off the field ... Enters his fifth campaign with Kansas City in 2002 and his fourth as the club's starter at left defensive end ... Is one of the cornerstones the Chiefs are building their defensive unit around ... A true talent who gives all-out effort on every snap and is regarded as one of the club's leaders in the locker room ... Is arguably the club's biggest impact performer on the defensive side the ball, owning the ability to single-handedly change the course of a game with a big play ... Has registered 17.5 sacks (-100.5 yards) over the past two seasons, the most over a two-year span since the late Derrick Thomas had 19.0 from '98-'99 ... Already has a grand total of 21.5 QB takedowns over his young career, ranking 11th all-time in Chiefs history and can break into the top 10 with 2.0 more ... With 3.5 more sacks in 2002, can become just the eighth player in franchise annals with 25.0 or more sacks and requires just 8.0 more to supplant Dan Saleaumua (29.0) for seventh on the club's all-time chart ... Possesses a lethal combination of speed, power and agility ... Is continually adding new moves to his pass-rushing repertoire ... Typically receives extra attention from opposing pass protectors and is adjusting to the double teams he frequently faces ... Started receiving that type of respect from the rest of the league after accumulating 14.0 sacks in just 11 starts during the 2000 campaign ... That sack tally tied as the seventh-highest seasonal mark in Kansas City history, ranking third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL last season ... Became just the fourth Chiefs player to ever top the 14.0-sack mark, joining the elite company of the late Derrick Thomas ('90, '92), Neil Smith ('92-'93) and Art Still ('80, '84) ... Was also named to USA Today's All-Joe team for his efforts in 2000, a honor which is bestowed annually to the league's top blue-collar performers ... Received second team All-Pro honors from Football Digest, as well ... Has enjoyed a remarkable rise to his present status as one of the league's most promising young pass rushers after initially coming to the Chiefs as a relatively obscure and undersized rookie free agent in '98 ... Became the only rookie free agent to make the club's Opening Day roster in '98 ... Packed on plenty of muscle mass the following off-season after weighing in with the Chiefs at 261 pounds ... With that extra bulk, quickly rose through the ranks the following year ... Earned the starting spot at left defensive end in '99 after John Browning was lost for the year with an injury in training camp ... Won that starting job despite learning during camp in River Falls that his infant daughter Shayla was diagnosed as having a severe heart condition. Eventually left camp for a brief time to be with his wife and daughter as Shayla underwent open-heart surgery ... With Shayla given a clean bill of health in 2000, entered his second season as a starter only to be faced with his own medical obstacle ... Was off to a phenominal start to the 2000 campaign, getting 7.0 sacks in the Chiefs first six games, only to be felled by a right knee sprain vs. St. Louis (10/22/00) ... That injury was diagnosed as a condition which would keep him out of the lineup a minimum of six weeks, but returned to the Chiefs lineup just four games later vs. Buffalo (11/19/00) ... Rebounded from that temporary setback to start the final four games of the year ... Has the ability to get sacks in big bunches, owning eight career multi-sack contests ... Is particularly effective at Arrowhead, where seven of those eight multi-sack efforts have come ... In total, has racked up 16.5 of his 21.5 career sacks (76.7%) in front of the home crowd ... Has registered 7.0 of his sacks against San Diego, by far his highest total against any single opponent ... Also has shown a penchant for producing big plays in prime time contests ... Racked up a career-high 3.0 sacks in a 24-17 Monday Night Football win vs. Seattle (10/2/00) and got his first NFL score on a pivotal 44-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter of a 31-28 win vs. Minnesota (12/12/99) in a Sunday night contest ... Has spent his entire pro career with Bob Karmelowicz serving as his defensive line coach, who he is quick to credit for much of his success ... Has seen action in 48 career regular season games with 43 starts ... All of those starts have come over the past three years after appearing in three games on special teams for the Chiefs in '98 ... Has racked up 224 tackles (109 solo), 21.5 sacks (-125.5 yards), five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a 44-yard TD ... Owns 85 QB pressures and five passes defended, as well ... Had a forced fumble and two tackles in three games of special teams action as a rookie ... Originally entered the NFL with the Chiefs as a rookie free agent out of Maryland in '98. 2001: Started all 16 games at left DE for the second time in his career ... Led the defensive line and ranked fifth on the team with a career-high 93 tackles (45 solo) ... Was second on the team with 3.5 sacks (-27.5 yards) ... Added seven tackles for loss, a fumble recovery, three forced fumbles and a pass defended ... Recorded three tackles and a pair of QB pressures vs. Oakland (9/9) ... Produced six tackles, a forced fumble and a QB pressure vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Registered five tackles and two QB pressures at Washington (9/30) ... Recorded nine tackles at Denver (10/7) ... Amassed seven tackles and 1.5 sacks (-12.5 yards) of Kordell Stewart vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Made six tackles and two QB pressures at Arizona (10/21) ... Collected six tackles, a tackle for loss and recovered a Peyton Manning fumble vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Tallied four tackles, one tackle for loss, a QB pressure and a sack (-6.0 yards) of Drew Brees, forcing a fumble on the play at San Diego (11/4) ... Registered five tackles at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Produced seven tackles and a sack (-9.0 yards) of Matt Hasselbeck vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Racked up seven tackles vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Recorded four tackles, a pass defended and a QB pressure at Oakland (12/9) ... Totaled seven tackles, a QB pressure and forced a Terrell Davis fumble vs. Denver (12/16) ... Collected three tackles with one behind the line vs. San Diego (12/23) ... Tallied nine tackles and a QB pressure at Jacksonville (12/30) ... Registered five tackles including one behind the line at Seattle (1/6/02). 2000: Played in 13 games at left DE with 11 starts, missing three games due to a knee injury ... Selected to USA Today's All-Joe team and was a second team All-Pro pick of Football Digest ... Led the team and was third in the AFC (sixth in the NFL) with a career-high 140 sacks (-73.0 yards) ... Also ranked third on the squad with 33 QB pressures and added a pair of passes defended ... Became just one of four players in team history to record 14.0 or more sacks in a season, joining the late Derrick Thomas ('90, '92), Neil Smith ('92-93) and Art Still ('80, '84) ... Had five multi-sack games ... Registered 61 tackles (35 solo), 41 QB pressures, two passes defended and a fumble recovery ... Produced 7.0 sacks in the season's first six games ... Tallied six tackles, three QB pressures and a sack of Peyton Manning (-6.0 yards) vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Had five QB pressures, a sack of Steve McNair (-4.0 yards) and seven tackles (four solo) at Tennessee (9/10) ... Registered his third career 2.0-sack game vs. San Diego (9/17) with 2.0 sacks (-15.0 yards) on Moses Moreno ... Recorded seven tackles, four QB pressures and recovered a Rod Smith fumble at Denver (9/24) ... Enjoyed a monster night on Monday Night Football vs. Seattle (10/2), producing a career-high 3.0 sacks (-23.0 yards) of Jon Kitna and added a personal-best six QB pressures. Those 3.0 sacks were the most in a game by a Chief since Thomas had 6.0 vs. Oakland (9/6/98) ... Posted five tackles and four QB pressures vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Totaled three tackles and four QB pressures vs. St. Louis (10/22) before leaving the game in the third quarter with a right knee sprain ... Saw reserve action at left DE vs. Buffalo (11/19) after missing the last three games with a knee injury suffered vs. St. Louis (10/22), recording six tackles (four solo) and one QB pressure ... Saw reserve action at left DE at San Diego (11/26), posting 2.0 sacks (-7.0 yards) of Ryan Leaf and one QB pressure ... Produced three tackles, two QB pressures, a sack (-5.0 yards) of Drew Bledsoe and one pass defended at New England (12/4) ... Tallied six QB pressures and 2.0 sacks (-4.0 yards) of Steve Beuerlein vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Amassed 2.0 sacks (-9.0 yards) of Gus Ferrotte, one QB pressure and a pass defended vs. Denver (12/17) ... GP/GS: (64/35) PLAYOFFS: (4/1)

Pro Career: Sensational sixth-year running back attempting to follow up his incredible debut campaign with the Red and Gold last season ... Enters his second campaign in Kansas City after signing with the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent from Baltimore on April 21st of 2001 ... His arrival in Kansas City came and went with relatively little national fanfare, but by the conclusion of the year many of the NFL's top pundits were proclaiming him as one of the best free agent acquisitions in the entire league ... Talented Texan simply enjoyed a monster 2001 season, finishing the year with the NFL's rushing crown firmly in his grasp ... Joined Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Christian Okoye as the only other Kansas City player to lead the NFL in rushing and also joined the company of Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinee and fellow Texas native Abner Haynes who paced the AFL with 875 ground yards in '60 as the only other player in team history to lead the league in rushing ... His 1,555 ground yards surpassed Okoye's previous single-season franchise record of 1,480 established in '89 ... In 2002, is seeking to become the first player in Chiefs history to break the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in back-to-back seasons ... Became the first undrafted player to win the NFL rushing title since San Francisco's Joe "The Jet" Perry did it in '54 ... Needed just 327 carries to pace the league in rushing, marking the fewest totes necessary to achieve that goal since Detroit's Barry Sanders won the title with 307 carries in '96 ... Also paced the league with 2,169 total yards from scrimmage, shattering the mark of Haynes, who posted 1,622 yards during the team's initial season in '60 ... With 2,169 combined net yards, also surpassed Haynes' team mark of 2,100 set during the AFL's inaugural campaign ... Literally rewrote a fistful of other pages in the Kansas City record book, as well as earning a plethora of richly-deserved postseason accolades, including his initial Pro Bowl invitation, the Chiefs Derrick Thomas MVP Award and All-Pro honors from AP ...

Became the first Kansas City RB to receive a Pro Bowl nod since Marcus Allen following the '93 campaign ... Supremely confident all-around performer whose passion and enthusiasm for the game unquestionably rubs off on his teammates ... Regarded as a true locker room leader, quickly became one of the most popular and inspirational players on the Chiefs roster after forging a similar reputation with his teammates in Baltimore ... Was voted as the Chiefs offensive captain for the 2001 season ... Is an avid chess player, who compares his running style to that cerebral game: "Chess is a time game, it's a game of patience, and that pretty much defines how I run the ball," says Holmes. "I'm patient, always looking for the opportunity and trying to capitalize off the other person's mistake." ... In terms of a specific chess piece, likens himself to a bishop: "I like the bishop because he can just sit there on the rim, then slice your throat and you never see it coming. You will forget about it, and that's when I attack. The bishop is a lot like me in that regard. Just when you think you have me, I'm already behind you." ... Simply provides Kansas City a true home-run hitter in the backfield, regardless of how you describe his style ... Is truly a threat to take the ball all the way every time he touches the pigskin, but some of his more remarkable runs come when he inexplicably turns would-be losses into gains ... Truly humble competitor typically credits his offensive line and one of the league's most talented lead blockers in FB Tony Richardson for much of his success ... Along with seven-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields, actually invited the whole squad to join them for the Pro Bowl in Honolulu ... Though not as decorated as 2000 NFL MVP Marshall Faulk of St. Louis, does possess an explosive build and style similar to Faulk's ... In terms of total yards from scrimmage, outgained Faulk by 22 yards in 2001 and finished third in the NFL among running backs with a 5.6 yards-per-touch average, trailing only Faulk (6.6) and NYG's Tiki Barber (6.1) ... Provides Kansas City with a multi-purpose threat out of the backfield, making him a key cog in the Chiefs offensive setup ... His 62 receptions a year ago were the fourth-highest total in team history by a Kansas City running back, while his 614 receiving yards surpassed the franchise RB record of 590 established by Chiefs Hall of Famer Curtis McClinton in '65 ... Posted a pair of 100-yard receiving games in 2001, just one shy of Paul Palmer's team RB record of three in '88 ... Joined Haynes, Joe Delaney and Tony Reed as just the fourth player in franchise annals to register a 100-yard double-double (100 yards rushing and 100 yards receiving) in a single contest in 2001 ... Former rookie free agent initially made a name for himself in Baltimore as an accomplished pass catcher, hauling in a franchise-record 13 passes in a single game for the Ravens in '98 ... Owns 14 career 100-yard rushing games, including seven for the Chiefs in 2001, a figure which tied Curtis Martin (N.Y. Jets) and Ahman Green (Green Bay) for the NFL lead ... Holmes' teams are 11-3 (7-0 with Baltimore, 4-3 with Kansas City) when he tops the 100-yard rushing plateau ... Needs just seven more 100-yard outings to tie Okoye for the Chiefs career record of 14 ... Paced the NFL with 52 runs of 10+ yards, blowing away Barry Word's previous Chiefs single-season record of 29 in '90 ... After just one season, already ranks 16th on the franchise's all-time rushing chart with 1,555 yards and needs just 790 more yards to vault into the team's career top 10 ... Already owns two of the top seven single-game rushing performances in team history, as well ... Eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark in just 12 games a year ago, just one game shy of Okoye who was the fastest player in team annals to accomplish that feat, doing it in 11 games in '89 ... Owns a pair of 1,000-yard campaigns, becoming the first Ravens runner to ever post a 1,000-yard season when he piled up 1,008 yards in '98 ... Accepted a reduced role in Baltimore in 2000 to allow Jamal Lewis to blossom which helped pave the way for the Ravens march to a victory in Super Bowl XXXV ... Has seen action in 64 career regular season games with 35 starts ... Owns 786 carries for 3,657 yards (4.7 avg.) with 18 touchdowns in his first five seasons, as well as 150 receptions for 1,199 yards (8.0 avg.) and three TDs ... Has been named AFC Offensive Player of the Week three times, getting that honor twice with the Chiefs and once with the Ravens ... Has been responsible for 191 first downs in his career, gaining 101 with Kansas City and 90 during his tenure in Baltimore ... Has also returned five kickoffs for 51 yards and owns seven special teams tackles ... Saw action in four career postseason games including a start in Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV victory vs. the N.Y. Giants (1/28/01) ... Owns 14 carries for 45 yards (2.6 avg.) and one reception for four yards in the playoffs ... Originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with Baltimore in '97. At Kansas City (2001): Started all 16 games at RB ... Received the club's Derrick Thomas Award as the Chiefs 2001 Most Valuable Player and was named the club's offensive captain for the season ... Earned his initial Pro Bowl berth, as well as first team All-Pro honors from AP and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... Garnered All-AFC accolades from Pro Football Weekly and Football News, as well as second team All-AFC mention from Football Digest ... Also received a spot on Howie Long's All-Tough Guy Team ... Won the NFL rushing title with 327 carries for 1,555 yards (4.8 avg.) with eight TDs, breaking Christian Okoye's single-season Chiefs rushing record of 1,480 yards set in '89 ... Accounted for 77.4% of the Chiefs total rushing yards, the highest percentage by an individual RB in team history ... Also caught 62 passes for 614 yards (8.0 avg.) with a pair of scores, making him just the third Chiefs RB to break the 60-reception barrier in a single season, while his 614 receiving yards were the most ever by a Kansas City RB ... Led the NFL and set a Kansas City record with 2,169 total yards from scrimmage, joining Marshall Faulk (St. Louis) as the only other player in the league to top the 2,000-yard plateau in 2001 ... His 2,169 combined net yards were a Chiefs record, as were his 389 total touches from scrimmage ... His 327 carries were the most since Okoye had a club-record 370 in '89, while his eight rushing scores were the most by a Chiefs RB since Donnell Bennett had eight in '99 ... Led the NFL with 52 runs of 10+ yards, crushing Barry Word's previous KC record of 29 in '90 ... Tied with Ahman Green (Green Bay) for the league lead with 11 runs of 20+ yards ... Was the only player with four of the NFL's top 27 single-game rushing performances this season ... Tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games, just one shy of Okoye's franchise-best eight in '89 ... His 10 total TDs were the most by a Chiefs RB since Marcus Allen had 11 in '97 ... Registered 101 first downs (80 rushing, 21 receiving), a figure topped only by Faulk (110) in the NFL ... His 4.8 yards-per-carry average tied for top honors among all AFC RBs with 100+ carries ... Ended the season tied for seventh in the AFC among non-kickers with 60 points ... Made his inaugural start in a Chiefs uniform vs. Oakland (9/9), producing seven carries for 21 yards ... Had eight carries for 30 yards vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after producing 225 total yards at Washington (9/30), the third-highest yardage tally of his career and the fifth-highest single-game total in Chiefs history. Ran the ball 23 times for 147 yards, tying a career high with two TDs and adding five receptions for 78 yards with one score. Became the first Chiefs player to have three TDs in a game since WR Sylvester Morris did it vs. San Diego (9/17/00) and the first RB since Bam Morris vs. San Diego (11/22/98) ... Rushed 17 times for 42 yards and caught seven passes for 58 yards at Denver (10/7) ... Boasted a 20-carry, 150-yard performance vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), tying a career high with two rushing TDs ... Produced 15 carries for 85 yards at Arizona (10/21), including a season-long 41-yard run, the fifth-longest of his career ... Had 15 carries for 55 yards vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Established season highs with 30 carries for 181 yards (6.0 avg.) with a TD at San Diego (11/4). His yardage tally was the fourth-best effort in Chiefs history and highest tally ever recorded by any opponent against the Chargers ... Carried the ball 18 times for 71 yards at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Toted the ball 26 times for 120 yards vs. Seattle (11/25) to top the career 3,000-yard mark. Added three receptions for 70 yards, including 55 on a screen play to give him 190 total yards on the day, his fourth-highest career tally ... Registered 18 carries for 76 yards and a season-high eight receptions for 100 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/29), making him just the ninth Chiefs RB to ever post a 100-yard receiving game and the first since Todd McNair had 111 yards at San Diego (12/23/90) ... Became the first KC player since QB Joe Montana in '94 to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice in the same season when he registered a career-high 277 total yards at Oakland (12/9), the highest figure in the NFL for the entire year and the third-highest single-game effort in Chiefs history. Had 28 rushes for 168 yards with a TD, breaking the 1,000-yard barrier in the process. Hit that milestone in the 12th game of the season, making him the second-fastest Chiefs player to accomplish that feat, trailing only Christian Okoye who did it in 11 games in '89. Added five receptions for a career-high 109 yards (21.8 avg.), including a career-long 67-yard TD reception, Kansas City's longest play from scrimmage on the season. Joined Abner Haynes, Joe Delaney and Tony Reed as the only other RBs in team history to record a rare 100-yard "double-double" and was the only RB in the NFL to accomplish the feat in 2001 ... His 643 yards from scrimmage over a three-game span (190 yards vs. Seattle, 176 yards vs. Philadelphia and 277 yards at Oakland) were the most in the NFL over a three-game span within one season since the late Walter Payton had 746 yards over a three-game stretch in November of '77 ... Racked up 29 carries for 121 yards with a TD vs. Denver (12/16), making him the first Chiefs RB to record back-to-back 100-yard rushing games since Barry Word had 114 yards at Houston (9/20/92) and 125 yards vs. the L.A. Raiders (9/28/92). His 289 rushing yards over a two-game span were the most in Chiefs history since Mike Garrett had 293 yards (101 vs. Denver 10/29/67 and 192 vs. the N.Y. Jets on 11/5/67). It marked his second-highest total in consecutive games since he had 330 yards in back-to-back games (227 at Cincinnati on 11/22/98 and 103 vs. Indianapolis on 11/29/98) while with Baltimore ... Had 23 carries for 80 yards vs. San Diego (12/23). Accumulated 261 rushing yards in two games vs. the Chargers, the third-highest combined tally ever by a Chiefs RB against one opponent in one season ... Carried the ball 27 times for 91 yards with a TD and caught seven passes for 53 yards at Jacksonville (12/30) ... Rushed 23 times for 117 yards at Seattle (1/6/02), breaking Okoye's club single-season mark of 1,480 rushing yards on a 22-yard run in the second quarter. Added six catches for 52 yards, breaking McClinton's Chiefs RB record of 590 receiving yards with a 17-yard catch in the second quarter. At Baltimore (1997-00): Appeared in 48 regular season games with 19 starts ... Had 459 carries for 2,182 yards (4.6 avg.) with 10 scores ... Also contributed 88 receptions for 585 yards (6.6 avg.) and one TD ... Had 18 postseason carries for 45 yards and one reception for four yards in four playoff games (one start). 2000: Played in all 16 regular season games with two starts ... Was the Ravens second-leading rusher behind Jamal Lewis, getting 137 carries for 588 yards (4.3 avg.) to rank 14th in the AFC ... Caught 32 passes for 221 yards, as well ... Ranked second on the team with 49 first downs ... Started at Pittsburgh (9/3), rushing 27 times for 119 yards ... Opened the following week vs. Jacksonville (9/10), producing 10 carries for 54 yards in a 39-36 come-from-behind victory ... Had six carries for 25 yards at Miami (9/17) ... Accounted for 99 yards from scrimmage vs. Cincinnati (9/24), gaining 51 yards on eight carries, adding four receptions for 48 yards ... Rushed 20 times for 82 yards at Cleveland (10/1) ... Started in Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV victory vs. the N.Y. Giants (1/28/01), producing four carries for eight yards. 1999: Had his season curtailed by a knee injury, playing in just nine games with four starts ... Finished the year with 89 carries for 506 yards (5.7 avg.) with one TD, getting 412 of those yards over the final five games ... That 5.7 yards-per-carry average was second in the NFL among ball carriers with at least 80 carries behind only Pittsburgh's Richard Huntley (6.1) ... Also caught 13 passes for 104 yards and a TD ... Accounted for 26 first downs ... Topped the 100-yard barrier in a pair of games and had a 95-yard effort, as well ... Rushed 12 times for 52 yards in the season-opener at St. Louis (9/12) ... Did not start vs. Pittsburgh (9/19) while nursing a sprained right knee, rushing once for two yards ... Was inactive vs. Cleveland (9/26), at Atlanta (10/3) and at Tennessee (10/10) while recovering from a sprained right MCL ... Did not play vs. Kansas City (10/21) or vs. Buffalo (10/31) ... Saw action spelling Errict Rhett in the fourth quarter of a 41-9 win at Cleveland (11/7) ... Saw brief action in the backfield at Cincinnati (11/21), but did not carry the ball ... Entered the game in the second quarter vs. Tennessee (12/5) after a rib injury to Rhett, racing a team-record 72 yards on a second quarter run to set up a field goal to finish the day with nine totes for 100 yards ... Returned to the starting lineup for the season's final four games, beginning at Pittsburgh (12/12) when he ran 18 times for 130 yards (7.2 avg.) with a TD ... Caught a 34-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks vs. New Orleans (12/19), his first career scoring reception ... Had 13 carries for 59 yards and a one-yard reception vs. Cincinnati (12/26) ... Finished the season rushing 16 times for 95 yards and catching a season-high six passes for 43 yards at New England (12/00). 1998: Saw action in all 16 games, starting the final 13 games of the season ... Rushed 233 times for 1,008 yards with seven TDs, becoming the initial Ravens rusher to ever top the 1,000-yard barrier ... Led the team with 64 first downs ... Also topped the club with 43 receptions, getting 260 yards on those catches ... Had five special teams tackles, as well ... Recorded four 100-yard rushing games and added a 99-yard effort ... Got his first six NFL carries for 23 yards in the season-opener vs. Pittsburgh (9/6) ... Gained three yards on a fourth-quarter rush at the N.Y. Jets (9/13) ... Recorded two solo punt coverage stops and two kickoff coverage stops for a career-high four special teams tackles at Jacksonville (9/20) ... Exploded for 27 carries and 173 yards with two TDs in his first NFL start vs. Cincinnati (9/27), earning AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts ... WISCONSIN - LA CROSSE

FREE AGENT (1999)

BORN: JULY 11, 1974

THORP, WISCONSIN

GP/GS: (39/5) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Hard-hitting and hard-working Wisconsinite continues to make believers out of those who doubted he could fulfill his pro football aspirations ... Has earned the respect of his peers in the NFL's hardhat-and-lunchpail crowd with his "throwback" approach to the game ... Was waging a battle with incumbent MLB Marvyn Patton for the starting job at that spot before a left knee injury in third preseason game of 2001 curtailed his campaign ... Missed the first five contests of the year and appeared in eight contests before suffering a different injury to the same knee late in the regular season ... Attempting to rebound after spending the final three games of last year on injured reserve ... Appears to have made a complete recovery and is slated to compete for playing time at outside linebacker in 2002 ... Those setbacks a year ago shouldn't deter this fourth-year linebacker who has been overcoming obstacles his entire football career ... Completed an arduous journey to the NFL in '99 after playing in NFL Europe that spring and competing in the Arena Football League in '98 ... Initially entered the pro ranks as a rookie free agent with the San Diego Chargers in '97, but was cut before the start of the regular season ... Excelled playing MLB in both NFL Europe and in the collegiate ranks ... Worked at that spot behind Patton a year ago, but is also more than capable of performing at either outside linebacker position ... Broke into the Chiefs starting lineup at the left outside "base" linebacker post late in the 2000 season ... Started five of the club's final six games of the year at that position, posting double-digit tackles in three of those contests ... That move into the starting lineup signaled another dramatic step in this third-year linebacker's unlikely path to success in the National Football League ... Was a member of USA Today's All-Joe Team in 2000, a squad which annually recognizes the league's top blue-collar performers ... Was also selected to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro team in 2000 for his special teams efforts ... Part of a growing list of current NFL players who honed their skills in NFL Europe, including the likes of two-time NFL MVP, Kurt Warner of the St. Louis Rams ... Arguably one of the most exciting defensive performers to ever come out of the European league ... After establishing himself as one of the league's most competitive special teams performers in '99, built on that reputation by upping his tackle count in the kicking game in 2000 and earning the starting spot on defense by season's end ... Despite taking on an increased role on defense in 2000, still led the squad with 25 special teams stops, making him the only KC player with 20 or more such tackles ... In three seasons with the Chiefs, has played in 39 games with five starts ... Owns 70 tackles (55 solo), 3.0 sacks (-6.0 yards), a fumble recovery, a forced fumble, four passes defended and four QB pressures ... Has also racked up 60 special teams stops, an average of 1.5 per game ... Displayed an amazing feat of durability and desire in '99, playing in a total of 30 pro games, seeing action in 11 contests with the Barcelona Dragons to go with 19 preseason and regular season outings in Kansas City ... Despite his circuitous path to the NFL, made the most of his long-awaited opportunity with the Chiefs ... Honed his special teams skills at the hand of ace special teamer LB Greg Manusky and finished second on the squad with 23 special teams tackles in '99, the most by a Kansas City rookie since '94 ... Was a landslide winner of the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award, presented annually to the Chiefs top first-year performer ... Has the ability to long snap, which originally was one of the reasons Kansas City signed him in '99 ... Was inked by the Chiefs after earning Team Ironman honors as a linebacker, fullback and special teams performer for the Arena League's San Jose Sabercats in '98 ... Terrorized NFL Europe in the spring of '99 by setting a league single-season record with 105 tackles ... Hails from tiny Thorp, Wisconsin (pop. 1,657), located approximately 90 miles east of the Chiefs summer home in River Falls ... Played for NCAA Division III football powerhouse Wisconsin - La Crosse which has produced several other NFL performers including former Pro Bowl guard Tom Newberry of the L.A. Rams ('84-96) and current Detroit Lions wide receiver Bill Schroeder ... Played in the same collegiate league as UW-River Falls and has seen game action on Ramer Field where the Chiefs conduct training camp ... Originally began his pro tenure as a rookie free agent with San Diego in '97. At Kansas City (1999-01): Has seen action in 39 games with five starts ... Owns 70 tackles (55 solo), a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and 3.0 sacks (-6.0 yards) ... Has also accumulated four passes defended, four QB pressures and 60 special teams tackles. 2001: Played in eight games at LB and on special teams ... Missed eight contests due to a pair of separate left knee injuries ... Recorded 10 tackles (eight solo), two tackles for loss, a pass defended, a sack (-1.0 yard) and 12 special teams stops ... Was inactive for the first five games of the season due to a left knee injury suffered in the preseason while playing on the kickoff coverage unit at Jacksonville (8/23) ... Made two tackles with one coming behind the line and one stop on special teams in his first game action of the season at Arizona (10/21) ... Registered a sack (-1.0 yard) of Peyton Manning and made two special teams stops vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Recorded three tackles and a pass defended at LB to go along with three special teams tackles at San Diego (11/4) ... Collected two tackles on defense to go with a team-high three special teams stops at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Made one tackle apiece on defense and special teams vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Registered a tackle vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Recorded a tackle on the kickoff coverage team and saw action at LB in nickel formations at Oakland (12/9) ... Registered a special teams stop and saw action at LB in nickel formations vs. Denver (12/16) before injuring his left knee in the fourth quarter ... Was placed on injured reserve on December 23rd. 2000: Saw duty in all 16 games on special teams and took defensive snaps in 14 games, starting five of those contests ... Captained the club's special teams unit ... Selected to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro team (special teams) and USA Today's All-Joe team ... Finished the year with 59 tackles (46 solo), 2.0 sacks (-5.0 yards), one fumble recovery, a forced fumble, four QB pressures and three passes defended ... Led the club with 25 special teams tackles, three shy of the club record of 28 set by Ken Jolly in '84 ... Tied a career-high with four special teams tackles vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Saw action on special teams and as a short yardage LB vs. Seattle (10/2), tallying one solo stop on defense and three special teams tackles ... Took snaps on defense in place of an injured Lew Bush vs. Oakland (10/15), recording one tackle ... Tied a career-high with four special teams stops at Seattle (10/29) ... Went into the lineup at LOLB on the club's second defensive series at San Francisco (11/12), compiling a career-high 12 tackles (nine solo) and a personal-best three QB pressures ... Made his first career start at LOLB vs. Buffalo (11/19), amassing two tackles (one solo) and 1.0 sack (-1.0 yard) of Rob Johnson ... Posted four solo tackles, a fumble recovery, 1.0 sack (-4.0 yards) of Ryan Leaf and one pass defended at San Diego (11/26) ... Contributed 10 tackles (eight solo), a forced fumble and three special teams tackles at New England (12/4) ... Saw reserve action at LOLB when the club opened in a nickel package vs. Carolina (12/10), tying a career high with 12 tackles (10 solo), while adding a pass defended and two stops on KO coverage ... Started at LOLB vs. Denver (12/17), producing eight tackles (six solo) and one QB pressure ... Totaled seven tackles (five solo) and a pass defended at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Earned the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award as Kansas City's top first-year performer ... Saw duty in 15 games on special teams, ranking second on the squad with 23 tackles, the most by a first-year Chief since Monty Grow had 23 in '94 ... Got 15 of his stops on kickoff coverage and eight on punt coverage ... Served as a linebacker in goal line and short yardage situations in five games, posting one solo tackle on defense ... Also saw punt snapping duty in one game ... Saw action in his first NFL contest on special teams and as a reserve LB at Chicago (9/12) ... Registered one solo tackle on defense and recorded two special teams tackles vs. Denver (9/19) ... Tallied a career-high four special teams tackles vs. Detroit (9/26) ... Captained the special teams vs. New England (10/10) and at Baltimore (10/21), getting a team-high three special teams tackles vs. the Ravens ... Captained the special teams and had a pair of special teams stops vs. San Diego (10/31) ... Left the game vs. Seattle (11/21) due to a mild head trauma suffered on the opening kickoff, but returned to action later in the contest ... Was inactive the following week at Oakland (11/28) due to that injury ... Tallied two special teams tackles at Denver (12/5) and handled all of the club's punt snapping duties in the second half, replacing an injured Ralph Tamm ... Had a pair of special teams stops vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) ... Saw duty on the club's goal line defense at Seattle (12/26) and posted two special teams tackles. NFL Europe (1999): Was easily the most dominating defensive performer in NFL Europe in '99 ... Simply did nothing but make plays during his tenure in Barcelona ... Served as a starting linebacker for the club and helped lead Barcelona to a World Bowl match-up vs. Frankfurt ... Led the league with 105 tackles and four interceptions ... Those 105 tackles broke the previous NFL Europe single-season mark of 95 set by the Rhein Fire's Anthony Fieldings in '95 ... Earned NFL Europe Defensive Player of the Week honors after becoming the first linebacker in league history to record three INTs in a single game vs. Amsterdam (4/17), including one which he returned for a 30-yard TD ... Received Defensive Player of the Week honors again after posting 16 tackles, a pass defended and a pair of special teams stops at the Scottish Claymores (5/9) ... Had an incredible 10 stops the following week vs. Frankfurt (5/15) ... Posted eight tackles in a 38-24 World Bowl setback vs. Frankfurt (6/20). Arena Football League (1998): Served as a fullback, linebacker and special teams performer for the San Jose SaberCats, helping lead the club to the playoffs ... Was a team captain and earned Team Ironman honors ... Was a teammate of K Billy Stoyanovich, younger brother of former Chiefs K Pete Stoyanovich ... Played in 12 of the club's 15 regular season contests, leading the squad in rushing with 33 carries for 149 yards (4.5 avg.) with seven TDs ... Also caught 10 passes for 86 yards ... Ranked fifth on the team with 28 tackles (14 solo), adding two passes defended and a forced fumble.

College: Concluded an outstanding four-year career at UW-La Crosse by earning Division III All-America honors as a senior in '96 ... Helped lead the club to the NCAA semi-finals before losing to eventual national champion Mt. Union his final season ... Also voted to the prestigious American Football Coaches All-America squad which includes both Division II and III players ... Named the Wisconsin State University Conference's (WSUC) Most Valuable Player, the first defensive player to win that honor in over a decade ... Captained the Eagles squad as a senior, as well ... Became the only player in school history to earn UW-La Crosse's Top Rock Award three times, an honor bestowed annually to the club's Most Valuable Defensive Player ... NFL: 2 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: FEBRUARY 6, 1977

MIAMI, FLORIDA

GP/GS: (13/11) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Talented wide receiver who splashed onto the Kansas City scene, quickly becoming a fan favorite during his rookie campaign in 2001 ... Entering his second pro season in 2002 ... Seeking a starting role once again after opening 11 games a year ago ... Known simply as "Snoop," that monicker quickly caught on among Chiefs followers and became a familiar post-catch refrain at Arrowhead ... A solid route-runner with excellent speed and ability to get out of the break ... Added some noticable bulk and muscle to his lean frame in the off-season which should add a more physical element to his game ... Broke the fifth metatarsal in his right foot on May 3rd during mini-camp, but should recover to full-strength in time for training camp ... Had a pin inserted in his foot during successful surgery on May 5th ... Appeared in 13 contests (11 starts) as a rookie for the Red and Gold, catching 33 passes for 511 yards (15.5 avg.) with one TD ... His 33 catches tied as the fifth-highest total by a rookie WR or TE in club history ... Made his impact felt immediately when he started his first NFL game at the "X" WR spot on Opening Day vs. Oakland (9/9/01). The Florida native's first NFL catch came on a dramatic diving 30-yard TD catch which tied the score 24-24 with 1:21 remaining in the fourth quarter, making him the first Chiefs rookie to score on Opening Day since Tamarick Vanover had a 99-yard kickoff return at Seattle (9/3/95). Was the first Chiefs rookie to start on Opening Day at wide receiver since Henry Marshall vs. San Diego (9/12/76) ... Continued to mature as the season progressed, culminating in a career day vs. Denver (12/16) when he pulled in five passes for 89 yards including a career-long 56-yard grab in OT to set up the game-winning 32-yard FG ... Originally entered the NFL as the Chiefs second pick in the third round (77th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft. 2001: Played in 13 games (11 starts) at the "X" post ... Caught two passes for 48 yards vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Was inactive at Washington (9/30) due to a mild head trauma suffered vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Caught five passes for 56 yards at Denver (10/7) ... Had one reception for 14 yards vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Caught four passes for 54 yards at Arizona (10/21) ... Produced four catches for 64 yards vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Caught two passes for 44 yards including a 25-yard catch to start the winning drive in the fourth quarter at San Diego (11/4) ... Produced one catch for four yards at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) before leaving the game with a sprained left ankle in the second quarter ... Was inactive vs. Seattle (11/25) and did not play vs. Philadelphia (11/29) due to that ankle injury ... Returned to the starting lineup at the WR spot at Oakland (12/9) after missing the previous two games with a left ankle injury suffered at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Caught four passes for a career-high 89 yards vs. Denver (12/16) including a career-long 56-yard reception in OT to set up the game-winning 32-yard FG ... Established a career high with six receptions for 80 yards vs. San Diego (12/23), including a key 21-yard third-down reception on the game-winning drive ... Had a reception for seven yards at Jacksonville (12/30) ... Made a 21-yard catch at Seattle (1/6/02).

College: Played in 43 games (19 starts) during his four seasons at Florida State ... Caught 115 passes for 2,098 yards (18.2 average) and 17 touchdowns ... His 115 grabs ranked 12th on the school's career-record list while his 2,098 yards and 17 scores placed him ninth in FSU annals ... Became the sixth receiver in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season joining the likes of Peter Warrick, E.G. Green, Andre Cooper, Barry Smith and Ron Sellers ... Started all 11 games at flanker during his senior season, leading the team with 63 receptions for 1,340 yards (21.3 avg.) and 11 touchdowns ... His 63 catches ranked seventh on the school's single season-record list and were the most by a Seminole since Cooper's 75 catches in '95 ... Only Sellers (1,496 in '68) gained more yards receiving in a Seminoles uniform in a single season ... Those 11 receiving scores ranked behind only Sellers (12 in '68), Smith (13 in '72) and Cooper (15 in '95) on FSU's single-season receiving chart ... Averaged 111.7 receiving yards per game ... A first team All-America selection by the Football Writers Association, American Football Coaches Association, The NFL Draft Report and Football News ... An All-Atlantic Coast Conference first team pick ... JACKSON STATE

DRAFT (NO. 1 - 2000)

NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: OCTOBER 6, 1977

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

GP/GS: (15/14) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Exciting young receiver enters his third season in Kansas City in 2002 ... Is attempting to bounce back from a right knee injury which cost him the entire 2001 campaign ... Was expected to be a major contributor last season after enjoying the most prolific receiving campaign of any rookie in Chiefs history in 2000 ... Appears to have made a full recovery from a right knee injury he suffered on the next-to-the-last workout of the club's off-season program on June 20th of last year ... Underwent a surgical procedure to repair an ACL tear on June 22nd and was forced to sit out the entire season ... Enthusiastic performer is ready to resume his career after hauling in 48 passes during his initial NFL campaign, surpassing the previous Chiefs rookie standard established by Chris Burford in the franchise's initial season of '60 ... Seattle's Darrell Jackson (53) and Cincinnati's Peter Warrick (51) were the only NFL rookies in 2000 to post more receptions, while only Jackson (713) had more receiving yards ... Finished his debut season with 48 catches for 678 yards (14.1 avg.) and three TDs ... Earned All-Rookie Team accolades from both Pro Football Weekly and Football News ... Hopes to regain that form upon his return with Pro Football Hall of Fame WR Charlie Joiner serving as his position coach ... Quickly made an impact upon his arrival in Kansas City in 2000, working his way into the club's starting lineup at the "X" receiver spot by the second week of the regular season ... An excellent leaper who seemingly gets stronger once he goes airborne ... Possesses a strong upper body which frequently allows him to go up and pluck the pigskin out of a crowd ... Often makes even the most difficult catches appear routine ... Is dangerous in the open field once he makes the catch and has the ability to separate from even the speediest defenders ... Has already shown the ability to break out for a big game, getting 112 yards and three TDs in his first-ever start at Arrowhead vs. San Diego (9/17/00), becoming the first Chiefs rookie to ever haul in three touchdowns in a single game ... Had two of the club's team-record 14 individual 100-yard receiving efforts in 2000 ... Owns a lanky running style which reminds some of the same gate exhibited by Chiefs Hall of Fame wideout, Otis Taylor ... Entered the NFL as Kansas City's first round draft choice (21st overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft ... Became the first wide receiver tabbed by the Chiefs in the first round of the draft since the club took Anthony Hancock from Tennessee in '82 ... Was the first Jackson State product tabbed by the Chiefs in the draft since WR Tim Barnett in '91 ... Just one of seven players in Jackson State annals to be selected in the draft's opening round, joining CB Rashard Anderson who was taken just two picks later (23rd overall) by the Carolina Panthers ... Other Jackson State alums picked in the drafts opening round include: late Pro Football Hall of Famer RB Walter Payton (Chicago - '75), WR Jerome Barkum (N.Y. Jets - '72), DE Donald Reese (Miami - '74), LB Robert Brazile (Houston - '75) and G Lester Holmes (Philadelphia - '93) ... Joined fellow SWAC performer S Greg Wesley of Arkansas - Pine Bluff, who was drafted in the third round of the 2000 draft by Kansas City. 2001: Suffered a right ACL injury on June 20th and had surgery two days later ... Was placed on PUP (Physically-Unable-to-Perform) on August 28th where he spent the entire season. 2000: Played in 15 games at wide receiver, starting 14 contests ... Produced a Chiefs rookie single-season record 48 catches for 678 yards (14.1 avg.) and three TDs ... Also completed one pass for 31 yards ... Ranked second among NFL rookies in receiving yards, was third in receptions and tied for third in TD catches ... Was the club's third WR vs. Indianapolis (9/3), catching three passes for a team-high 58 yards (19.3 avg.) in his NFL debut, including a long of 31 yards ... Made his first career start at WR at Tennessee (9/10), catching three passes for 44 yards, becoming the first rookie WR to start for Kansas City since Lake Dawson at Buffalo (10/31/94) ... Produced six catches for 112 yards (18.7 avg.) and three TDs (36, nine and 20 yards) vs. San Diego (9/17). His three TDs tied for the second-highest total in franchise history, were the most-ever by a Kansas City rookie and the most since Otis Taylor had three vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/16/69). Also became the first Chiefs rookie to tally a 100-yard receiving game since Dawson had 101 yards vs. Houston (12/18/94) ... Hauled in four passes for 64 yards vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Posted five receptions for 64 yards vs. St. Louis (10/22). Also completed a 31-yard pass to Derrick Alexander after accepting a lateral from QB Elvis Grbac ... Was inactive due to a shoulder injury at Seattle (10/29) ... Tied a career high with six catches for 102 yards, including a career-long 47-yarder at Oakland (11/5) ... Talled four receptions for 38 yards vs. Carolina (12/10).

College: Saw action in 41 games (28 starts) during his tenure at Jackson State, collecting a school-record 175 passes for 3,188 yards (18.2 avg.) with 34 touchdowns ... His 175 catches surpassed the prior standard of 171 career receptions established by Willie Richardson ('59-62) ... His 3,188 receiving yards ranked second in school history behind Richardson (3,616) ... Those 34 career receiving TDs put him second only to Richardson (36), as well ... Topped the 1,000-yard mark as both a junior and senior, owning two of the three 1,000-yard receiving seasons in school history. Richardson had the other with 1,237 yards in '60 ... Also registered seven carries for 133 yards and two TDs during his collegiate career ... Started all 11 games as a senior in '99, finishing the year with 63 receptions for 1,139 yards (18.1 avg.) and 13 scores ... His 63 catches ranked second in school annals, while his yardage tally was third in school history and his TD tally was second behind his 17 scores in '98 ... Was a first team All-America selection of SportsPage.com and an All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first-team choice, as well ... Also carried the ball five times for 100 yards (20.0 avg) with a pair of touchdowns ... Gained 200 yards and had three touchdowns on seven receptions vs. Alcorn State, recording a career-long 95-yard TD in that contest ... Started all 11 games as a junior, leading the team with 62 receptions for a school-record 1,258 yards (20.3 avg.) and a team-record 17 touchdowns ... His 62 catches also ranked third in school history ... Was a first team All-America selection of The Sports Network and was a first team All-SWAC pick ... Had seven 100-yard games on the year ... Set a single-game school record with five touchdown catches vs. Grambling, finishing the game with eight catches for a career-high 201 yards ... Saw action in all 11 games with six starts as a sophomore ... Earned All-SWAC second team honors after ranking third on the team with 46 receptions for 739 yards (16.1 avg) and four touchdowns ... Appeared in eight games as a redshirt freshman in '96, finishing the year with four catches for 52 yards ... Majored in Criminal Justice at Jackson State.

FIREMAN'S BOOT COLLECTION

Fans who attended the September 23, 2001 game between Kansas City and the N.Y. Giants at Arrowhead Stadium donated $220,706.94 to relief efforts in New York City related to the tragic attacks on the World Trade Center. The Chiefs players, coaches, staff and the Hunt family and the Chiefs organization matched that total, bringing the total one day donation to the relief effort from the game to $451,413.88. The amount is believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team. The money benefited various authorized causes for the families of the NYPD, NYFD, EMS and Port Authority employees who were either injured or lost their lives.

JOHNNIE MORTON

WIDE RECEIVER • 6-0 • 190

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
FREE AGENT (2001)

NFL: 9 (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: OCTOBER 7, 1971

TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA

GP/GS: (126/104) PLAYOFFS: (3/3)

Pro Career: Vastly talented and extremely experienced wide receiver came to Kansas City as a free agent on March 29th of this year ... Joined the Chiefs after a record-setting eight-season run with Detroit, where he starred from '94-01 ... Has been one of NFL's most consistently productive performers at his position in recent years, registering four 1,000-yard campaigns over the past five years, including three straight from '97-99 ... Provides Kansas City with a truly proven commodity at the wide receiver position, owning a pair of 80-catch campaigns ... Frequently turns short passes into long gains and often gets catches in big bunches ... Owns 18 career 100-yard receiving games, posting four such contests in 2001 ... Possesses solid speed and is regarded as a precise route runner which should make him a nice fit for the Chiefs intricate offensive scheme ... A tremendous athlete who keeps himself in top physical condition ... Has earned a penchant for making even the most acrobatic grabs appear routine ... Although graceful once he leaves his feet, doesn't shy away from contact and is more than willing to catch balls across the middle ... Durable performer hasn't missed a contest since his rookie season ... Owns a streak of 33 consecutive starts and has caught at least one pass in 47 straight games ... Racked up impressive numbers during his tenure with the Lions, stats which are even more remarkable considering that he frequently paired with other 1,000-yard pass catchers during his tenure in Detroit, including the likes of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Germaine Crowell ... Began his career as a return man and special teams performer as a rookie before moving into the starting lineup for the Lions during his second pro campaign ... Is a dangerous all-around athlete who can separate from defenders once he gets the ball in his hands as a receiver, a runner or in the return game ... Appeared in 126 regular season games, starting 104 of those contests during his previous eight NFL seasons with Detroit ... Over that span, recorded 469 receptions for 6,499 yards (13.9 avg.) with 35 TDs, making him the second-leading receiver in Lions history behind only Moore (670 receptions for 9,174 yards) both in terms of catches and yardage ... His four 1,000-yard campaigns tie Moore for the top mark in Detroit annals, while his 35 receiving scores rank second only to Moore's 62 ... Has also rushed 21 times for 143 yards (6.8 avg.) in addition to returning 23 kickoffs for 559 yards (24.3 avg.) with one score ... Owns seven punt returns for 48 yards (6.9 avg.), as well ... Has also seen action in three career postseason contests (all starts), producing 10 receptions for 105 yards (10.5 avg.) with one score ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round choice of Detroit (21st overall) in the '94 draft. At Detroit (1994-01): Appeared in 126 regular season games with 104 starts during his tenure in Detroit, producing 469 receptions for 6,499 yards (13.9 avg.) with 35 TDs ... Rushed 21 times for 143 yards (6.8 avg.), returned 23 kickoffs for 559 yards (24.3 avg.) with a TD, in addition to posting seven punt returns for 48 yards (6.9 avg.) ... Started three career postseason contests, producing 10 receptions for 105 yards (10.5 avg.) with one score. 2001: Started all 16 games at WR for the second straight season ... Led the Lions with 77 receptions for a career-high 1,154 yards (15.0 avg.) with four touchdowns ... Also produced one carry for six yards ... Posted his first 100-yard receiving game since '99 and the 15th of his career in the season-opener at Green Bay (9/9), catching a team-high five passes for 111 yards ... Produced his second consecutive 100-yard outing and the 16th of his career with a six-catch, 100-yard performance, including an acrobatic 14-yard TD grab at Cleveland (9/23). That TD catch tied him with Cloyce Box for fourth place on the Lions all-time chart (32), while his third catch of the game was the 400th of his career, making him the third player in Lions history to achieve that feat along with Brett Perriman (428) and Herman Moore (670) ... Had four catches for 40 yards vs. St. Louis (10/8) ... Totaled five catches for 68 yards at Minnesota (10/14), including an impressive 20-yard TD catch in the back of the end zone ... Posted nine receptions for 113 yards and an 18-yard score vs. Tennessee (10/21), his 17th career 100-yard day ... Netted six receptions for 74 yards vs. Cincinnati (10/28) ... Surpassed Perriman (428) for second on the Lions career receptions chart, getting his 429th career catch at San Francisco (11/4) ... Caught three passes for 61 yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/11) ... Broke the 6,000-yard career plateau and had a season-long 76-yard reception at Arizona (11/18), collecting seven passes for a season-high 153 yards, marking his 18th career 100-yard contest ... Caught four passes for 67 yards vs. Green Bay (11/22) ... Hauled in four passes for 56 yards at Tampa Bay (12/9) ... Produced four receptions for 74 yards vs. Minnesota (12/16) ... Made seven catches for 95 yards vs. Chicago (12/30), putting him over the 1,000-yard mark on the season ... Caught eight passes for 86 yards with a 16-yard TD vs. Dallas (1/6/02), as well as one carry for six yards. 2000: Opened all 16 contests at WR, leading the club with 61 receptions for a team-high 788 yards (12.9 avg.) with three scores ... Also had four carries for 25 yards ... Caught five passes for team-high 88 yards vs. Washington (9/10), surpassing Charlie Sanders (336) for fourth place on the Lions all-time receptions list and Leonard Thompson (4,682) for fifth-place on the club's all-time receiving yards list ... Registered a team-high five receptions for 55 yards with a 13-yard TD at Chicago (9/24), marking his 29th career TD catch to place him sixth on the club's career chart ... Collected six receptions for 50 yards vs. Minnesota (10/1), as he passed Barry Sanders (352) for third-place on the team's career receiving chart and Charlie Sanders (4,817) for fourth on Detroit's career receiving yardage chart ... Saw duty in his 100th career game vs. Green Bay (10/8), catching three passes for 73 yards with a 42-yard TD ... Became fourth player in Lions history to top the 5,000-yard career mark at Indianapolis (10/29) ... Was tackled at the one-yard line after a career-long 27-yard run vs. Atlanta (11/12) when he opted to run on a reverse-pass play ... Recorded a team-high five receptions for 53 yards at Green Bay (12/10) to vault into second-place on the Lions all-time receiving yardage chart ahead of Gail Cogdill (5,221) and Brett Perriman (5,244) ... Had a team-high six receptions for 78 yards with a 32-yard TD at the N.Y. Giants (11/19) ... Hauled in five passes for 56 yards at Green Bay (12/10) ... Closed out the year with a six-catch, 60-yard outing vs. Chicago (12/24). 1999: Saw duty in all 16 games with 12 starts ... NFL: 13 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (1999)

BORN: MAY 1, 1967

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

GP/GS: (192/149) PLAYOFFS: (11/6)

Pro Career: Poised 13-year NFL veteran set to anchor the Chiefs defense from his middle linebacker position for the fourth consecutive year in 2002 ... Not only brought his chiseled physique to Kansas City when he signed as an unrestricted free agent from Washington on April 27th of '99, but also infused the Arrowhead locker room with his commitment to being the very best ... Has captained the Kansas City defense each of the past two seasons ... Earned the club's Derrick Thomas Award as the club's Most Valuable Player in his inaugural season with the team ... Joined the late Thomas as the only other Chiefs linebacker to be named the club's MVP (Thomas won the honor in both '91 and '94) ... Achieved another milestone in 2000 by scoring the first touchdown of his distinguished NFL career, hitting paydirt on a 24-yard INT return at San Diego (11/26/00) ... The embodiment of professionalism, provides the ultimate example to his teammates of how to work, whether it's in the weight room, in the classroom or on the field ... Maintains a quiet demeanor, but speaks volumes by the way he carries himself ... A relentless worker who pushes both himself and his teammates to their maximum potential ... Patton's stringent year-round workout regiment is largely responsible for his unprecedented durability, particularly when one considers the position he plays ... Has not missed a single game since entering the league in '90, seeing action in 192 consecutive contests dating back to his rookie campaign with Buffalo, needing just eight more games to reach the 200-game plateau ... Of the 16 linebackers enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Ted Hendricks (215) is the only member of that illustrious group to have played in more contests than Patton. Hendricks is also the only LB in the HOF to have played in 200+ games ... Owns a total of 149 starts and has opened 142 of his last 144 games ... Had a streak of 118 consecutive starts dating back to the '93 season opener snapped when the Chiefs opened in a dime defense vs. St. Louis (10/22/00) ... Despite coming to the Chiefs with relatively little fanfare, proceeded to pay immediate dividends for the club ... Set the tone for Kansas City's defense in '99 by producing a career-high 6.5 sacks, racking up a team-high 20 tackles for loss and registering a career-best 14 quarterback pressures ... Tallied 143 tackles in 2000 and followed that up with a 138-tackle performance a year ago, marking the ninth consecutive season he topped the 100-tackle barrier, an even more remarkable feat considering he turned the trick for three different teams during that span ... Combined with Donnie Edwards (147) to become the first Chiefs linebacking tandem to top the 100-tackle barrier for three consecutive seasons, turning that rare triple-play from '99-01 ... Can play any linebacker position, but has spent the majority of his career on the inside ... Took over the Chiefs starting MLB spot in '99, where he has been a mainstay the past three years ... Is part of a large contingent of former UCLA coaches and players in Kansas City, a list which includes the likes of President Carl Peterson, head coach Dick Vermeil and defensive coordinator Greg Robinson ... Came to Kansas City after a four-year stint with Washington from '95-98, where he was the Redskins leading tackler three of those four seasons ... Inaugurated his NFL career with Buffalo from '90-94 before signing with Washington as an unrestricted free agent on February 22nd of '95 ... Has seen duty in 192 straight regular season games, owning a total of 149 career starts, producing 1,391 tackles (869 solo), 24.5 sacks (-196.0 yards), 15 INTs (90 yards) with one touchdown, 11 fumble recoveries, 17 forced fumbles, 41 passes defended, 68 QB pressures and 55 special teams tackles during his pro tenure ... During his five-year stay with the Bills, saw duty in 11 postseason contests (six starts) ... Went to the Super Bowl each of his first four seasons in the league, joining Glenn Parker, Carwell Gardner, Mike Lodish and James Williams as the only NFL players to accomplish that feat ... Produced a total of 44 tackles (37 solo), a pair of pass deflections and one QB pressure in his 11 games of playoff action ... Originally entered the league as an eighth-round selection (208th overall) of Buffalo in the '90 NFL Draft. At Kansas City (1999-01): Has seen action in 48 games for the Chiefs, starting 46 of the contests ... Has totaled 416 tackles (316 solo) from his middle linebacker position to go along with four interceptions (44 yards) with one TD, 10.5 sacks (-73.0 yards), 25 quarterback pressures and 16 passes defended ... Has also recorded four fumble recoveries and four forced fumbles. 2001: Played in 16 games (15 starts) at middle linebacker, captaining the Chiefs defense ... Finished second on the team with 138 tackles (109 solo), marking the ninth consecutive season he has topped the 100-tackle barrier ... Led the squad with 10 tackles coming behind the line of scrimmage ... Also forced two fumbles, recorded seven passes defended, two INTs for five yards, 3.0 sacks (-25.0 yards) and six QB pressures ... Had a team-high 12 tackles vs. Oakland (9/9), a sack (-7.0 yards) and strip of Rich Gannon, as well as a tackle for loss and a QB pressure ... AUBURN

NFL: 8 (8TH WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: DECEMBER 17, 1971

FRANKFORT, GERMANY

GP/GS: (101/42) PLAYOFFS: (2/0)

Pro Career: Unquestionably one of the most versatile and personable performers on the Chiefs roster ... This talented fullback enters his eighth season in the NFL and his eighth campaign in the Red and Gold in 2002 ... Immensely popular both in the locker room and the Kansas City community, is truly one of the NFL's "good guys" ... Known across the league simply by his moniker of "T-Rich" ... Plays the game with passion and humility, bringing a selfless attitude to work every day ... A true professional, who epitomizes what it means to be a true team player ... After serving as Kansas City's most productive ground gainer in 2000, moved back to his less-glamorous fullback post in 2001 to make room for Priest Holmes, who simply proceeded to lead the entire league in rushing with Richardson serving as his lead blocker ... Serves as an excellent role model for his teammates with his exemplary work ethic and all-giving approach to the game ... Has established himself as one of the most reputable leaders in the Chiefs locker room and continues to earn the respect of his teammates ... Is likewise held in the same high esteem for the way he carries himself both on and off the field ... Among active Kansas City players, only seven-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields has spent more time on the Chiefs roster than Richardson, who joined the club as an unheralded free agent in '95 ... Has played in 101 regular season contests, making him just one of 57 players in franchise history to own at least 100 games of service with the club ... Came to Kansas City after spending the '94 season on the practice squad of the Dallas Cowboys where he learned the finer points of the game from the likes of RB Emmitt Smith and FB Daryl Johnston ... Obviously picked up plenty from that Dallas backfield tandem ... After paying his practice squad dues, is now regarded as one of the league's finest performers at his position ... Should continue to draw well-deserved Pro Bowl consideration for his consistent play after leading all AFC fullbacks in the fan voting for the NFL's All-Star contest in 2001 ... Truly launched his career into overdrive during the '99 and 2000 seasons when he started all 32 games and racked up some substantial stats in the process ... Was recognized as the starting fullback on Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro squad each of those two seasons and was also named to USA Today's All-Joe squad in 2000 and 2001 ... Although slowed by a shoulder injury which cost him two games a year ago, should be ready to resume a larger role in the Chiefs offense in 2002 ... Owns the ability to play either backfield position or can work alone as a single back ... Possesses superb pass-catching skills and surprising speed in addition to his aforementioned blocking affinity ... That triple-threat ability makes him an integral part of Kansas City's goal-line and short-yardage packages ... Owns 13 career rushing touchdowns, including a career-high seven rushing scores a year ago ... Although he frequently gets the ball himself in tight situations, is simply one of the best lead blockers in the business ... Excels at escorting his teammates into the end zone with his battering-ram style, blowing even the best linebackers and defensive linemen off the ball ... Dishes out the same kind of punishment when he gets the ball in his hands and is tough to bring down in the open field ... A powerful runner when it comes time to move the chains, is frequently the player whose number is called to pick up the tough yardage ... Enjoys making contact at the point of attack and brings that same punishing and tenacious style of play to the Chiefs special teams ... Has done virtually everything in his power to help his team and his teammates get better since joining the club ... Began his career working as a scout team service back, but it quickly became apparent that this was a player who needed to be on the field ... Initially earned his stripes as a special teamer and serving as a lead blocker in short-yardage and goal line situations clearing the way for the legendary Marcus Allen ... Elevated his status by developing into one of the league's pre-eminent special teams performers, posting double-digit tackles in the kicking game five straight years from '95-98 ... Entered the '99 campaign as the club's starting fullback and opened all 16 games for the first time in his career ... Finally got an opportunity to fully showcase his offensive skills down the stretch in '99 when he carried the bulk of the club's rushing load, getting 284 of his 387 rushing yards (73.4%) in the season's final five games ... Truly emerged as an offensive force to be reckoned with in 2000 when he started all 16 games, including five as the club's halfback ... Led the team in rushing with 147 carries for 697 yards (4.7 avg.) with three TDs and ranked third on the squad with 58 receptions for 468 yards (8.1 avg.) with three scores ... At the time, his 1,165 total yards were the most yards of total offense by a Chiefs RB since Christian Okoye had 1,492 yards in '89, while his 697 rushing yards were the most by a Chief since Marcus Allen had 830 in '96 ... Cranked off a monster game vs. Denver (12/17/00), pounding out a career-high 156 rushing yards, the third-highest single-game tally by a Chiefs RB since Barry Word racked up a franchise-record 200 yards vs. Detroit (10/14/90). That contest marked his initial 100-yard rushing game ... Ranked among the NFL's elite in terms of yards-per-touch average in 2000 ... Led all AFC running backs and ranked third in the NFL in that department behind Marshall Faulk - St. Louis (6.6) and Tiki Barber - N.Y. Giants (6.1), averaging 5.7 yards per touch on his rushes and receptions ... Although his role on the specialty squads has decreased over the years, he needs only four more stops in the kicking game to record his 100th career special teams stop ... From '95-99, only Greg Manuskay (124) produced more special teams stops in a Chiefs uniform than Richardson (94) ... SEVEN-TIME PRO BOWLER

WILLIE ROAF

TACKLE • 6-5 • 315

LOUISIANA TECH

TRADE - NEW ORLEANS (2002)

NFL: 10 (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: APRIL 18, 1970

PINE BLUFF, ARKANSAS

GP/GS: (131/131) PLAYOFFS: (2/2)

Pro Career: Mammoth seven-time Pro Bowl offensive tackle joined the Chiefs on March 26th of this year in a trade with New Orleans ... The Chiefs received the services of one of the NFL's most dominant and most decorated tackles of the past decade in exchange for a fourth-round draft choice in 2003 ... Enters his initial campaign with the Red and Gold after nine stellar seasons with the Saints ... Expected to move into the club's starting spot at left offensive tackle where he is revered as one of the most consistent pass protectors in the game today ... Is also a superb run-blocker, owning a sterling reputation among his peers as one of the finest all-around performers to ever play his position ... Received one of football's highest honors by being named to the 1990s All-Decade Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... A truly an imposing figure who is extremely agile for a man of his vast proportions ... Immediately adds even more prominence to an already well-decorated Chiefs offensive front ... Combines with seven-time Pro Bowl right guard Will Shields to give Kansas City a guard-tackle tandem with 14 combined Pro Bowl appearances ... Along with Shields and former Saints teammate K Morten Andersen, completes Kansas City's trio of seven-time Pro Bowlers, making the Chiefs the only team in the league with three active players who each own seven or more Pro Bowl appearances ... Interestingly, both Roaf and Shields were products of the same '93 draft class ... Joins '99 first-round pick John Tait - who moved to right tackle to accommodate Roaf's arrival - to give the Chiefs a dynamic duo of starting offensive tackles ... Attempting to regain his Pro Bowl form this season after an MCL injury to his right knee cost him the final nine games of the 2001 campaign ... Prior to that malady, had missed just five contests over his initial eight NFL seasons ... Missed the majority of the Chiefs off-season work while rehabilitating that injury, but is expected to be ready for training camp ... Comes to Kansas City after spending nine seasons with New Orleans, where he started all 131 games in which he played ... Also started two postseason contests during his tenure with the Saints ... Those 131 games played rank 17th on the Saints all-time service chart ... Had started 57 consecutive games from '93-96 before injuring his knee against San Francisco (11/3/96), snapping a streak of 3,392 straight offensive plays in which he had participated dating back to the first play of his rookie season in '93 ... After starting his NFL career as a right tackle he moved to protecting the quarterback's blind side by switching to the left tackle post during his second NFL campaign, where he went on to earn the first of his club-record seven Pro Bowl nominations in '94 ... Was the first offensive lineman taken in the '93 draft with the eighth pick, making him the second-highest pick ever used by New Orleans on an offensive lineman, trailing only to tackle Jim Dombrowski who was selected sixth overall in '86 ... Originally entered the league as a first-round draft pick (eighth overall) by the Saints in the '93 NFL Draft. At New Orleans (1994-01): Started in 131 regular season games in nine seasons with New Orleans ... Recorded one fumble recovery and registered five tackles ... Started two postseason games in 2000. 2001: Started seven games at left tackle before being placed on the injured reserve list with a right knee injury ... Started first five games of the season but was declared inactive at St. Louis (10/28) and vs. N.Y. Jets (11/4) with a right knee injury ... Returned to start contests at San Francisco (11/11) and vs. Indianapolis (11/18) ... Moved into 17th place on the Saints all-time service chart when he started his 131st game vs. Indianapolis (11/18), but left the game with a sprained right MCL in the second quarter ... Had season-ending knee surgery and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on November 28th. 2000: Opened all 16 games at left tackle earning his seventh straight Pro Bowl appearance as a starter, giving him the most Pro Bowl appearances in Saints history ... Was an All-Pro selection of: Sports Illustrated, Football Digest and USA Today. All-NFL selection of Pro Football Weekly, All-NFC selection of Pro Football Weekly and a second-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press and College & Pro Football Newsweekly ... Anchored an offensive line which ranked eighth in the NFL in rushing with an average of 129.3 yards per game, the club's highest total since '87 (136.9 yards) ... Started two postseason contests including the franchise's first-ever playoff win, a 31-28 NFC Wild Card Playoff victory vs. St. Louis (12/30) ... Also started in a 34-16 loss at Minnesota (1/6/01) in an NFC Divisional Playoff game. 1999: Started all 16 games at left tackle and was named as a Pro Bowl starter for the sixth consecutive year ... Was named to the Pro Football Weekly All-Pro team ... Helped pave the way for a rushing average of 105.6 yards per game, which was the first time since '93 that the club had averaged over 100 rushing yards per game ... Also had one fumble recovery ... Became just the 29th player in club history to reach the 100-game plateau when he started against vs. Tampa Bay (11/7) ... 1998: Started all 15 games he saw action in on the year ... Made his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl, all as a starter, making him the only player in Saints history to be named five consecutive years ... Named All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly and was a second team All-Pro selection of College & Pro Football Newsweekly ... Was inactive at Carolina (11/1) after undergoing an arthroscopy of the knee ... Returned to the starting lineup for the next contest at Minnesota (11/8). 1997: Merited his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter after opening all 16 regular season games at left tackle ... Became just fourth player in New Orleans history to make four straight Pro Bowls ... Earned All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly ... Participated in every offensive snap for the fourth year of his NFL career ... Also registered five tackles following turnovers. 1996: Made his third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl after appearing and starting in 13 games ... Became the fifth player in Saints annals to be selected to the Pro Bowl three or more straight years ... Once again decorated as one of the NFL's best at his position, earning All-NFL honors from The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly and second team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press ... Started each of the first nine games at LT before sustaining a partial MCL tear against San Francisco (11/3) ... Before the injury he had not missed an offensive snap in his NFL career; a streak of 3,392 straight offensive plays ... Was inactive for three contests vs. Houston (11/10), at Atlanta (11/17) and at Tampa Bay (11/24), breaking a streak of 57 straight games in which he had played and started, the longest such streak of any Saints offensive player. 1995: Started all 16 games at left tackle and participated in every offensive play ... Made his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl, becoming the first offensive lineman in team history to be voted more than once ... Was selected to virtually every All-Pro team including: Associated Press, PFWA, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly ... Also named an All-NFC selection by UPI and Pro Football Weekly, received the NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year award from the NFL Alumni Association and the NFC Offensive Lineman of the Year honor from the NFLPA ... Was awarded an offensive game ball for outstanding play in a win vs. Carolina (11/26). 1994: Made successful transition from right tackle to left tackle and started all 16 games at the left tackle position without missing an offensive snap for the second straight year ... Became just the fourth offensive lineman and first tackle in club history to be voted to the Pro Bowl ... Was a consensus first team All-Pro choice, as well as the NFLPA's NFC Offensive Lineman of the Year ... Was awarded offensive game balls in wins vs. Atlanta (11/13), at Atlanta (12/11) and at Denver (12/24). 1993: Started all 16 games at right tackle and did not miss an offensive snap ... Was one of only two linemen to open all 16 contests ... Became the first Saints rookie to start all 16 games since CB Robert Massey in '69, and the first Saints rookie offensive lineman to open every regular season game since G Brad Edelman started all nine in '82 ... Was voted to every all-rookie team ... Was awarded an offensive game ball in a victory at L.A. Rams (10/3) as Saints totaled 359 yards of total offense, including 154 on the ground.

College: Was a finalist for the Outland Trophy his senior season at Louisiana Tech, when he yielded just one sack in his only year at right tackle ... Named to most All-America teams after starting every game as a senior ... Was an All-Southern Independent choice as a junior when he started every game at left tackle ... Also opened every contest at left tackle during his sophomore campaign ... Played in the Hula Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game ... Majored in Sociology at Louisiana Tech.

DRAFT (NO. 3 - 1993)

NFL: 10 (10TH WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: SEPTEMBER 15, 1971

FORT RILEY, KANSAS

GP/GS: (144/143) PLAYOFFS: (6/6)

Pro Career: Seven-time Pro Bowl right guard is arguably the finest player at his position in the league today and is regarded by many as the NFL's finest offensive lineman, period ... Mild-mannered performer speaks volumes with his consistently high level of play ... Is an asset to the club both on the field and in the Kansas City community ... Is the longest-tenured player on the Chiefs roster ... Has been with Kansas City since joining the club as a third-round draft choice in '93, giving him two more years of experience than his closest competitor, FB Tony Richardson, who signed on in '95 ... Pairs with newly-acquired seven-time Pro Bowl tackle Willie Roaf to give Kansas City a guard-tackle tandem with a combined 14 Pro Bowl appearances, the highest total of any active duo in the league ... Combines with Roaf and kicker Morten Andersen to make the Chiefs the only team in the NFL with a trio of players boasting seven or more Pro Bowl nods this season ... Remarkably durable performer has not missed a single contest in his nine previous campaigns, playing in 144 straight games ... Truly gifted performer has made his name at right guard, but has seen action in three games at left tackle for the club, including a start at that position vs. Carolina (12/10/00) ... Made his first NFL appearance at Tampa Bay (9/5/93), a game which also marked Joe Montana's initial game in a Kansas City uniform ... Owns the longest active starting streak of any player on the KC roster, opening 143 consecutive games dating back to the second contest of his rookie season ... Trails only Chiefs Hall of Fame CB Emmitt Thomas (144) for the most consecutive games played in team history needing just two more starts to take over the top spot in team annals ... Has been a mainstay in the Kansas City lineup since his initial NFL start at Houston (9/12/93) ... Ranks eighth in team history with his 143 straight starts and can move into third place by the end of the season with 16 starts ... Needs to appear in the first nine contests of the 2002 season to become one of only six players in Chiefs history to make at least 153 consecutive appearances ... Has earned seven consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '95-01 seasons, giving him the longest active streak of any Chiefs player ... Those seven Pro Bowl nods are also the most ever by a Kansas City offensive lineman ... Joins Chiefs Hall of Famer Ed Budde as the only other guard in team history to merit a Pro Bowl invitation ... Last season, matched Budde's seven overall AFL All-Star and Pro Bowl berths ('64, '67-72) ... Should he garner an eighth straight Pro Bowl nod this season, would join some very prestigious Chiefs company. Would become just the sixth player in team annals with eight or more Pro Bowl appearances, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Bobby Bell and Chiefs Hall of Famers, the late Derrick Thomas and Jim Tyrer, who share the franchise record with nine. Would also become only the sixth player in Chiefs history with eight or more AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl berths. Bell, Thomas and OT Jim Tyrer hold the record with nine while DT Buck Buchanan and LB Willie Lanier had eight. Of that fivesome, all five are in the Chiefs Hall of Fame, while Bell, Buchanan and Lanier are also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall ... In addition, joined Thomas as the only other active player to be named to the Chiefs 40th Anniversary Team in '99 ... Despite his highly-decorated status, is a true team player who puts the good of the whole ahead of his own personal gain ... Humble performer has spoken volumes on the field with his consistently high level of performance ... Is also one of the team's most active players in the Kansas City community, participating in numerous charitable projects and was named Pro Football Weekly's "Humanitarian of the Year" in '99 ... Considered one of the most valuable performers on the Kansas City roster and is a key reason the Chiefs ranked third in the league in rushing from '95-99 with a 125.4 yards-per-game average over that five-year span ... The lone remaining active member of the group largely responsible for those helping the Chiefs amass those gaudy ground numbers. For eight seasons was the junior member of the offensive line "Law Firm" which was referred to in the Arrowhead locker room as the single entity of Szott, Grunhard and Shields. That interior line triumvirate is widely regarded as one of the finest in the illustrious history of the franchise ... His commitment to constant improvement has been evident since joining the Chiefs in '93, as he has displayed an uncanny ability to take his game to a higher level each year ... An instinctive performer who can out-smart, out-maneuver, or simply overpower opponents and is endowed with innate ability to decipher the best means of attacking each particular adversary ... Is equally effective in the trenches or the open field and is particularly adept as a lead blocker on plays which require a pulling guard ... Was Kansas City's first draft selection in '93, going in the third round (74th overall) ... Arguably the steal of that year's annual selection meeting after being the 11th offensive lineman chosen. 2001: Started all 16 games at right guard for the eighth consecutive season ... Was selected to the Pro Bowl for the seventh straight season ... Was named second team All-NFL by the College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... Pushed his streak of consecutive games played to 144 and his starting streak to 143 contests ... A key member of the offensive line that led RB Priest Holmes to the NFL rushing title and set a Chiefs single-season rushing record with 1,555 yards. 2000: Captained the Chiefs offense along with Tim Grunhard ... Opened 15 games at right guard and one game at left tackle ... Was selected to play in his sixth straight Pro Bowl ... Was a key reason the club set a franchise-record with 4,388 passing yards ... Filled in at left tackle for an injured John Tait at New England (12/4). It was his second career action at left tackle. He also filled in at left tackle at Cleveland (9/24/95) when injuries sidelined John Alt and Jeff Criswell ... Made his 125th consecutive start and his first NFL start at left tackle vs. Carolina (12/10) in place of Tait ... Returned to his starting spot at right guard vs. Denver (12/17) ... Kansas City tied a franchise record by not permitting a sack in those three consecutive contests vs. the Patriots, Panthers and Broncos, even more impressive considering Shields saw substantial action at left tackle in two of those games. 1999: Started all 16 games at right guard for the sixth consecutive year and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive year ... Was a first team All-Pro selection of The Sporting News ... A major contributor to the Chiefs punishing ground attack which ranked fourth in the NFL, averaging 130.1 yards per game ... Also helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourth-lowest total in the league ... Captained the offense vs. Denver (9/19), vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3) ... Made his 100th consecutive start at right guard vs. New England (10/10) ... Captained the offense along with Dave Szott at Tampa Bay (11/14). 1998: Started at right guard in all 16 games for the fifth consecutive season, earning Pro Bowl honors for a fourth straight year ... Credited with his first career reception in the third quarter of the monsoon game vs. Seattle (10/4), hauling in a Rich Gannon pass that was batted back at the line of scrimmage by Seahawk defensive lineman Phillip Daniels for a four-yard gain. 1997: Merited a Pro Bowl appearance for the third consecutive season for his stellar play on Kansas City's offensive line ... Started all 16 regular season games for the fourth straight year ... Once again decorated as one of the NFL's best at his position, earning All-NFL first team honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second team recognition from Football Digest ... Was a first team All-AFC pick of Football News ... Part of a Kansas City offensive line which helped the Chiefs roll up 135.7 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL marking the third straight season the club was among the league's top five rushing offenses ... Delivered a devastating block which helped spring Kimble Anders on a 55-yard screen play in a 35-14 romp at Carolina (9/21) ... Started in the playoffs vs. Denver (1/4/98), his sixth postseason appearance. 1996: Continued to establish himself as a force to be reckoned with on the offensive line ... Opened all 16 games for the Chiefs at right guard for the third consecutive season and earned his second straight berth in the Pro Bowl, his first as a starter ... Became the first Kansas City guard to appear in back-to-back AFC-NFC Pro Bowls since Ed Budde in '71 and '72 ... Was a first team All-AFC selection of both UPI and Pro Football Weekly ... Helped the Chiefs average 125.6 yards per game on the ground, the league's fourth-best total. 1995: Made his first Pro Bowl appearance and was named first team All-NFL by USA Today and Sports Illustrated ... Started all 16 regular season contests at right guard, in addition to the club's playoff tilt ... A pivotal part of a Chiefs offensive line which cleared a path for the NFL's top rushing offense ... It marked the first time in franchise history that Kansas City had ever led the league in that category ... That same offensive line was also proficient in protecting the passer, allowing an AFC-low 21 sacks ... Opened at right guard at Cleveland (9/24), but injuries to starting tackles John Alt and Jeff Criswell forced him to step in at the right tackle spot. Despite never previously taking a snap at that position in his life, he stepped in and performed in a winning fashion. 1994: Started all 16 regular season games plus the playoff affair at right guard ... Was a model of consistency all season long ... Key part of an offensive front that permitted just 19 sacks, the fewest in Kansas City history and the third-fewest in the NFL in '94. 1993: Made an immediate impact on the Chiefs offensive line as a rookie, starting 15 of 16 games at right guard ... Also started three playoff contests ... His 18 combined starts are the most ever by a Chiefs rookie ... Team's third-round pick was named to almost every all-rookie squad, including Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest ... Earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award, the team's most prestigious rookie honor ... Szott, the team's starting left guard, suffered a knee injury in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/5), and, the following week at Houston (9/12), Shields started at right guard and Danny Villa moved to left guard.

College: Was a rare three-time All-Big Eight choice ... Became the second Outland Trophy winner to ever play for the Chiefs (Bobby Bell, '62) ... Was also a finalist for the Lombardi Trophy in '92 ... Was a first team All-America selection of the AP, Football News, Walter Camp and Kodak and a consensus All-Big Eight choice as a senior ... Was a second team All-America pick by AP as well as a first team All-Big Eight choice as a junior ... The first Husker lineman since center Dave Rimington ('80) to earn conference first team honors as a sophomore ... Became the first player from the state of Oklahoma to play for the Huskers ... Owns a Communications degree from Nebraska.

Personal: Was an All-State choice at Lawton High School in Lawton, Oklahoma ... Selected state Lineman of the Year by the Daily Oklahoman ... Lettered three years as an offensive guard and defensive tackle ... Was also a member of the track squad ... Established the "Will to Succeed Foundation," which has developed a number of innovative programs. A complete listing of all Shields' charitable efforts are on the foundation's website at www.will2succeed.org. Several major components of the "Will to Succeed Foundation" include: Serving as a spokesman and on the Board of Directors for the Marillac Center for Children which benefits children with emotional and behavioral disorders; "Operation Breakthrough" which helps meet the needs of disadvantaged children served by St. Vincent's Family Center; "Team Esteem," a program for inner-city youths which rewards academic and personal improvement with trips to cultural events and Chiefs games ... Is also a board member for the Kansas City Stop Violence Coalition ... Conducts annual youth football camps in his hometown of Lawton, Oklahoma, as well as locations in Iowa and New Jersey ... Part of the "School is Cool Jam" conducted at the University of Nebraska which brought over 17,000 students together for the purpose of mentoring, motivating and stressing the importance of education ... An active participant in the KC Reads program and the Storytelling Celebration which both promote reading to Kansas City area youths ... Is chairing "United We Read," a metro-wide literary project in 2002 ... Was named the NFL's Extra Effort Award winner for October of 2002 for his charitable work ... Elected into the Mid-America Education Hall of Fame for his work with his "Will to Succeed Foundation" and promoting academic excellence ... Named the 2001 NFL Good Guy of the Year by the Sporting News ... Received the inaugural "Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian of the Year Award" presented by Pro Football Weekly in '99 which recognizes "an NFL player whose contributions to the community and charitable causes are both outstanding and hands-on" ... Was named one of the "99 Good Guys in Sports" by The Sporting News in 2000, as well ... Was the 2000 NFL recipient of "The Citizenship Through Sports Award" which is presented by the Citizenship Through Sports Alliance which annually recognizes athletes from all sports for "outstanding citizenship, sportsmanship, ethical conduct and community service" ... INDIANA

NFL: 13 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: MAY 15, 1965

VINCENNES, INDIANA

GP/GS: (192/0) PLAYOFFS: (4/0)

Pro Career: Accomplished punter who is recognized around the league as one of the NFL's best at his craft ... Enters his 13th pro campaign and his second with Kansas City in 2002 ... Inked with the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent from Atlanta on March 9th of 2001 ... Came to Kansas City after previous pro stints with Pittsburgh ('90-91), Tampa Bay ('92-94) and Atlanta ('95-00) ... His 2001 off-season signing was likely overshadowed by other players acquired by the Chiefs such as QB Trent Green, RB Priest Holmes and a host of others, but proved to be one of the most important pickups for the Red and Gold a year ago ... Punted 73 times for 2,976 yards (40.8 gross, 35.6 net), forcing 18 fair catches and permitting only five touchbacks to be named to the USA Today All-Joe team for his efforts ... Showcased his talents in his first game as a member of the Chiefs when he booted a 76-yard punt vs. Oakland (9/9/01) for the longest punt in club history, surpassing Bob Grupp's 74-yard punt vs. San Diego (11/4/79) ... Made a lasting impression on head coach Dick Vermeil in 2001 when Vermeil was asked about Stryzinski's performance, answering without hesitation: "It's glaring how good he is." Glaringly good is perhaps the best descriptor for this talented punting specialist ... Doesn't necessarily boast the strongest leg in the NFL, but arguably has no peers when it comes to placing a ball wherever he wants with pinpoint accuracy ... Instead of looking at the gross average, one can get a true appreciation of Stryzinski's game by tracking his net average, as well as his perennially-high numbers in both punts inside the 20 and forced fair catches ... Punt return yards allowed is also a category where he typically excels ... A true asset to a club's punt coverage unit who is an outstanding weapon in the critical battle of field position ... An outstanding directional kicker who specializes in placing the ball outside of the hashmarks, to pin opponents' return men on the boundaries ... Punted 73 times for 2,976 yards, forcing 18 fair catches and permitting just five touchbacks in his first season in Kansas City ... That knack for punting precision, combined with extremely high hang times makes him one of the toughest punters to rack up return yardage against in the entire league ... Since the league went to a 16-game schedule in '78, teams Stryzinski has punted for own six of the top 10 stingiest marks in punt return yardage allowed over that span ... His best effort in that area came in '97 with Atlanta when opponents tallied a mere 55 return yards against Stryzinski the entire season ... Also annually ranks among the NFL's leaders in forcing fair catches ... Leads all NFL punters in that category since the stat started being recorded in '70 with 353 fair catches forced and has led the league in that category on five separate occasions, turning that trick in '90, '91, '92, '94 and '97 ... Has forced 353 fair catches since '90, a whopping total of 115 forced more than the second place total of 238 held by Chris Mohr ... Also specializes in pinning opponents deep in their own territory, placing at least 20 kicks inside the 20-yard line each of the past nine seasons ... Landed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2002 which tied a career high and ranked as fourth-best in team annals ... Those 27 punts ranked fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL a year ago ... Gets the ball off in a hurry and is rarely responsible for getting a punt blocked ... Had an amazing streak of 557 consecutive punt attempts without a block from '93-00 ... Had one of the finest seasons of his pro career in 2001 ... Had a 40.8-yard gross punting average for the fourth-longest total in his NFL career ... Also tied a career high with 27 punts inside the 20 for the third straight year, a total that ranked as the fourth-best mark in team annals in 2001 ... Consistent performer has seen action in a total of 192 regular season NFL games, playing in all 16 games in all 12 of his prior pro campaigns ... Has punted the ball 920 times for 36,995 yards, good for a 40.2-yard gross and a 36.1-yard net ... Those 920 punts rank 20th all-time in NFL history ... Owns 256 career kicks inside the 20-yard line and has only 67 touchbacks ... An experienced postseason performer, has seen action in four postseason games, punting the ball 13 times for 524 yards, good for a 40.3-yard gross and a 40.2-yard net with five kicks inside the 20 and one touchback ... Was a part of an Atlanta squad which reached Super Bowl XXXIII following the '98 campaign ... Experienced the same winding journey many specialists take in the league before eventually catching on with a club ... Prior to making Pittsburgh's 53-man roster in '90, spent time with the Saints, Browns and Colts ... Caught on with New Orleans practice squad in October of '89 after being waived by Cleveland in training camp ... Also spent a week in the Browns camp in '88 after originally entering the NFL as a rookie free agent with Indianapolis earlier that year. At Kansas City (2001): Handled the punting duties in 16 games and was named to the USA Today All-Joe team for his efforts ... Punted 73 times for 2,976 yards (40.8 gross, 35.6 net) ... Was fourth in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 27 punts landing inside the 20 in addition to just five touchbacks ... Those 27 kicks inside the 20 tied a career-high for the third consecutive year and were the fourth-highest single-season total in team annals ... His 35.6-yard punting net average tied for eighth in the AFC ... Stryzinski allowed just 277 return yards to rank fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL ... Handled all holding duties on FGs and PATs ... Recorded one special teams tackle ... Punted five times for 237 yards (47.4 gross, 41.8 net) vs. Oakland (9/9), including a career-long 76-yard boot, the longest punt in Chiefs franchise history, surpassing Bob Grupp's 74-yard punt vs. San Diego (11/4/79) ... Punted six times for 262 yards vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23), with one inside the 20-yard line and one touchback ... Punted three times for 102 yards, placing two punts inside the 20-yard line and allowing minus four return yards at Washington (9/30) ... Punted four times for 185 yards (46.3 gross, 41.3 net) at Denver (10/7), placing one punt inside the 20-yard line with one touchback and allowing no return yards ... Punted seven times for 294 yards vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), tying a career-high with five punts inside the 20-yard line with a long of 55 yards and no touchbacks ... Punted five times for 214 yards at Arizona (10/21), placing three punts inside the 20-yard line ... Had six punts for 244 yards vs. Indianapolis (10/25), dropping three punts inside the 20-yard line with one touchback ... Produced six punts for 217 yards at San Diego (11/4), placing three punts inside the 20-yard line ... Punted six times for 234 yards, placing three punts inside the 20-yard line including two inside the five-yard line with no touchbacks ... Had four punts for 159 yards with one landing inside the 20-yard line vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Punted five times for 186 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/29), placing one punt inside the 20-yard line with a touchback ... Had four punts for 153 yards at Oakland (12/9) with three punts landing inside the 20-yard line. Had Tim Brown return a punt 88 yards for a score, just the second punt return for a TD he has allowed and the first since current Chiefs teammate Eddie Kennison returned one 78 yards as a member of St. Louis vs. Atlanta (11/10/96). Stryzinski suffered a mild head trauma on the play, but did return to the game ... Punted one time for 50 yards vs. Denver (12/16) ... Had two punts for 80 yards vs. San Diego (12/23) ... Punted three times for 121 yards at Jacksonville (12/30), placing one punt inside the 20-yard line. Was also credited with a 10-yard rushing loss when he intentionally stepped out of the back of the end zone for a safety in the fourth quarter ... Had six punts for 238 yards at Seattle (1/6/02). At Atlanta (1995-00): Saw action in 96 games in six seasons for the Falcons ... Punted 469 times for 18,982 yards good for a 40.5-yard gross and a 36.8-yard net ... Landed 142 punts inside the 20 with just 34 touchbacks ... Forced opponents to make 185 fair catches, as well ... Saw action in four postseason games, including the club's berth in Super Bowl XXXIII following the '98 season. 2000: Appeared in all 16 games for Atlanta, booting the ball 84 times for 3,447 yards, good for a 41.0-yard gross and a 37.9-yard net ... Tied a career high with 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and only five touchbacks ... Punted twice for 95 yards for a 47.5 average with neither kick being returned and one traveling 51 yards vs. San Francisco (9/3) ... Punted 272 yards for a 38.9 average with one dropping inside the 20 at Denver (9/10) ... Named the special teams MVP by the coaching staff for his performance at Carolina (9/17) when he punted six times for 257 yards (42.8 avg.), while surrendering only one return for five yards ... Allowed only two returns for minus one yard on five punts for 207 yards vs. St. Louis (9/24) ... Booted the ball a season-high eight times for 296 yards while dropping four punts inside the 20 at Philadelphia (10/11) ... Punted five times for 183 yards and dropped two inside the 20 vs. the N.Y. Giants (10/8) ... Kicked five times for 213 yards and placed kicks at the five, 12, and four-yard lines at St. Louis (10/15) ... BRIGHAM YOUNG

NFL: 4 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: JANUARY 26, 1975

PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Pro Career: Powerful young offensive tackle poised to make the move from left tackle to right tackle in 2002 ... After opening 34 contests on the left end of Kansas City's offensive front over the past three seasons, will make the shift to the right side to accommodate seven-time Pro Bowl left tackle Willie Roaf, who was acquired via a trade with New Orleans on March 26th ... Was unquestionably a solid performer at left tackle and will look to elevate his performance in a new role this season ... Entered the starting lineup at left tackle late in his rookie campaign before taking over those duties on a full-time basis in 2000 ... Possesses the prototypical size, strength and agility to play the tackle position ... Has all the tools and the tenacity to make the transition from a consistent player at his position to a truly dominant performer ... Mild-mannered off the field, shows a nasty side once he crosses the stripe onto the playing surface ... Relentless competitor who refuses to appease would-be pass rushers, putting up a tooth-and-nail fight on every down ... A dedicated technician who has made dramatic strides in each of his two previous seasons with Kansas City ... Tabbed with the 14th overall selection in the '99 NFL Draft by the Red and Gold, was the first lineman taken that year, a distinction he continues to justify ... Tait's selection marked the first time in Chiefs history the club had used its initial draft pick to select an offensive tackle two consecutive years after taking Victor Riley in '98 ... Joins Roaf to give the Chiefs an imposing pair of bookends on the offensive front ... Is not only an explosive drive blocker in the running game, but is also adept as a pass protector ... Will unquestionably benefit from the tutelage of Roaf, one of the NFL's finest offensive tackles to enter the league over the past decade ... Despite missing all of training camp and the preseason in '99 due to a contract holdout, made rapid progress upon joining the club on September 9th of that year ... Played in 12 games with three starts as a rookie, seeing action at left tackle and also working as a wedge man on the club's kickoff return unit ... Continued that progress in 2000 when he started all 15 contests he played in and started all 16 games in 2001 ... In total, has seen action in 43 games for the Chiefs with 34 starts ... Was the club's first draft choice from Brigham Young since tabbing center Orrin Olsen in the eighth round of the '76 draft ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round selection (14th overall) of Kansas City in the '99 NFL Draft. 2001: Started 16 games at left tackle for the first time in his career ... Opened holes for RB Priest Holmes to become just the second Chiefs player to win the NFL rushing title with a franchise-record 1,555 yards ... Started his 18th consecutive game at left tackle in the season finale at Seattle (1/6/02). 2000: Started 15 games at left tackle ... Left the game in the fourth quarter with a knee injury and did not return at New England (12/4) ... Was inactive vs. Carolina (12/10) due to a knee injury suffered at New England (12/4) ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Denver (12/17) ... Was part of a team-record effort when the Chiefs did not permit a sack in those contests vs. the Patriots, Panthers and Broncos. Although out of the lineup vs. Carolina, started the other two contests in that record-setting three-game stretch. 1999: Saw duty in 12 games with three starts ... Played at left tackle and as a tackle eligible in goal line sets ... Also saw duty on the kickoff return unit in the season's final five contests ... Began the regular season on the NFL Roster Exemption list for the season's opening two contests at Chicago (9/12) and vs. Denver (9/19) after signing with the club on September 9th ... Made his NFL debut vs. New England (10/10) when he lined up as a tackle eligible in the club's goal line offense ... Made his first NFL start at left tackle, replacing an injured Glenn Parker at Oakland (11/28) ... Also started at left tackle for Parker vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) and at Seattle (12/26) ... Played but did not start vs. Oakland (1/2/00).

College: Started all 37 games he saw duty in during his three-year college playing career under head coach LaVell Edwards at BYU ... An All-America pick his final season, also earned first team All-Western Athletic Conference honors as both a junior and a senior ... Was eligible for a fifth year of college action after redshirting as a true freshman in '93, but had already completed his degree and declared for the draft ... Served as a captain for the BYU offense and started all 13 games at left tackle in his final season in '98 ... Earned first team All-America honors from Football News that year and was named National Offensive Lineman of the Year selection by The Sports Network ... Was a first team All-WAC choice, as well ... Posted 127 knockdown blocks in his junior campaign for a BYU offense which averaged 381.7 yards per game ... Started nine games at left tackle as a sophomore, missing two contests due to injury ... Had 79 knockdown blocks on the year ... Did not play vs. Tulsa or Texas-El Paso due to a knee sprain ... Started all 15 games at left tackle as a freshman in '96 ... A freshman All-America selection of The Sporting News ... Delivered 76 knockdowns and helped the BYU offense roll up 478.0 yards per game ... Helped lead the club to a 19-15 win over Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl ... Did not play football from '94-95 ... Served on an LDS church mission to Tennessee ... Redshirted as a freshman in '93 ... Earned a degree in Communications from BYU.

Personal: Lettered three times in football and twice in track and field (shot put and discus) at McClintock High School in Tempe, Arizona ... Was an All-State, All-Region and All-City selection in football as both a junior and senior ... Established the "John Tait Foundation" in 2001, which promotes a healthy start in children's lives through research, health care, healthy life choices by youth and access to the arts ... Sends 76 children with cancer to Camp Quality through his "76 for 76" program ... Provides funds to expand art programs for disadvantage youth at Accessible Arts and the Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art ... Undergoing docent training at the Kemper Museum so that he can lead youth tours ... Honorary Chairman for the annual Childrens Spot auction, benefiting challenged children ... Full name: John Bernard Tait ... Single ... Resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

Games Played/Games Started: 1999 (12/3), 2000 (15/15), 2001 (16/16) — 43/34.

STREAKS AND MILESTONES: Has opened 18 consecutive games dating back to a contest vs. Denver (12/17/00).

SAFETY - 6-2 - 203

ARKANSAS - PINE BLUFF

DRAFT: (NO. 3 - 2000)

NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: MARCH 19, 1978

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

GP/GS: (32/32) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Bone-rattling strong safety entered the NFL as an unheralded third-round draft choice out of Arkansas - Pine Bluff in 2000 ... Is quickly making a name for himself across the league as he frequently provides an "up-close and personal" introduction to receivers who tread across his turf in the Chiefs secondary ... A punishing performer who is rapidly earning a reputation as one of the league's most devastating hitters ... Should only continue to refine his game as he enters his third season as the club's starter at the strong safety position ... Has opened the first 32 games of his young NFL career, making him the first Chiefs player to do that since Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee DE Art Still in '78-'79. The only other Kansas City player to hold that distinction since the AFL-NFL merger in '70 is S Gary Barbaro, who started his first 32 games over the course of the '76-'78 campaigns ... Owns 227 career tackles (159 solo), the highest total ever assembled by a Chiefs defensive back in his initial two pro seasons ... Is also the first defensive back in Kansas City annals and just the fourth player in team history to register 100+ tackles in each of his first two NFL campaigns ... Took another step in his development with another solid season a year ago ... That came on the heels of a sensational rookie effort in 2000 when he became the first Chiefs rookie to start all 16 games since CB Kevin Ross in '84 ... Also earned the Chiefs prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award presented annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer and was a consensus All-Rookie selection, receiving those honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest ... Kansas City knew it had a talent on its hands when the club drafted him, but no one could have envisioned the impact this hard-hitting competitor would make during his remarkable rookie season ... Was billed by the Chiefs as potentially one of the best steals of the 2000 draft, a claim which certainly proved to be prophetic ... Truly a unique story in today's age of NFL scouting which leaves virtually no stone unturned ... Became eligible for the draft after the 2000 combine and was worked out on his college campus by just eight NFL clubs, including the Chiefs ... Has a history of surprising people with his athletic skills, however ... Was "discovered" at Arkansas - Pine Bluff by an assistant football coach who saw him dunk in an intramural basketball contest ... Had already planned to join the Golden Lions football team as a walk-on in '97, but that performance truly heightened the coaching staff's interest in him ... Despite playing essentially just two seasons on defense in college, quickly made the transition to the pro game in Kansas City ... Is still learning the finer points of playing against NFL offenses, but is an extremely quick study ... Possesses uncanny natural instincts for the game which simply can't be taught ... Has excellent range and can close ground in a hurry ... Is a vicious hitter who isn't afraid to step up in run support or create mayhem for opposing receivers ... Has also worked on special teams when called upon ... In 32 career games (all starts), has produced 227 tackles (159 solo) and four INTs for 72 yards, in addition to 18 passes defended, three fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, 12 special teams stops and nine QB pressures ... The first Chiefs player to ever come out of Arkansas - Pine Bluff, which was formerly known as Arkansas AM&N ... Was tabbed by Kansas City in the third round (85th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft. 2001: Started all 16 games at strong safety for the second consecutive year ... Became only the third player in Chiefs history since '70 to start the first 32 games of his career and was the first to do it since DE Art Still in '78-'79 ... Recorded 126 tackles (76 solo) to rank third on the team and lead all Chiefs defensive backs ... Became the first Kansas City defensive back and just the fourth player in Chiefs history and the first defensive back to produce 100+ tackles in his first two NFL seasons ... Also added 2.0 sacks (-12.0 yards), five tackles for loss, two INTs, six QB pressures, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and seven passes defended ... Had four special teams stops, as well ... Collected seven tackles vs. Oakland (9/9), as well as a sack and strip (-7.0 yards) of Rich Gannon ... Recorded 12 tackles, including one for loss vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Intercepted a Tony Banks pass at Washington (9/30), returning it a career-long 30 yards, to go along with four tackles ... Recorded five tackles and tied a career-high with two QB pressures at Denver (10/7) ... Produced nine tackles, a QB pressure and two passes defended vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Registered a career-high 13 tackles at Arizona (10/21) ... Recorded eight tackles and a pass defended vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Collected six tackles with one coming behind the line at San Diego (11/4) ...

Amassed nine tackles, a pass defended and recovered a Vinny Testaverde fumble at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Tied a career high with two QB pressures vs. Seattle (11/25) to go with five tackles and a sack (-5.0 yards) of Matt Hasselbeck ... Tied a career-high with 13 tackles vs. Philadelphia (11/29) and returned a Donovan McNabb INT 13 yards ... Collected six tackles and recovered a Rich Gannon fumble at Oakland (12/9) ... Amassed five tackles with one behind the line vs. Denver (12/16) ... Recorded seven tackles and a QB pressure vs. San Diego (12/23) ... Produced a team-high 10 tackles and two passes defended at Jacksonville (12/30) ... Credited with a pass defended and seven tackles at Seattle (1/6/02). 2000: Started all 16 games at strong safety, becoming the first rookie to open all 16 contests since CB Kevin Ross in '84 ... Voted by his teammates as the club's Mack Lee Hill Award recipient as the Chiefs most outstanding rookie or first-year player ... Compiled 101 tackles (83 solo) to rank third on the team ... Those 101 tackles were the fourth-highest total ever by a Chiefs rookie and the most-ever by a KC rookie defensive back ... Led the team with 11 passes defended and tied for second with two INTs ... Also had 1.0 sack (-11.0 yards), two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, three QB pressures and eight special teams tackles ... Started in his first NFL game vs. Indianapolis (9/3), tallying eight tackles (five solo) and one pass defended. Became the first Chiefs rookie to start on Opening Day since LB Percy Snow in '90 and was the first rookie safety to start for Kansas City in the first regular season game of the season since S Gary Barbaro in '76 ... Collected nine solo tackles and one pass defended at Tennessee (9/10) ... Produced four tackles (three solo) and one special teams stop vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Registered his first NFL sack at Denver (9/24), spinning around a would-be blocker to take down Gus Frerotte (-11.0 yards) and force a fumble on the play with Kansas City trailing 22-14 in the fourth quarter. That sack and strip marked a pivotal turnaround in the Chiefs 23-22 comeback victory ... Compiled five tackles and forced a Shaun Alexander fumble in the fourth quarter vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Had seven tackles (six solo) vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Totaled four tackles (two solo), one QB pressure, one pass defended and registered his first career INT off current KC signal-caller Trent Green (28 yards) vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Amassed five solo tackles, a career-high three passes defended and an INT off Jon Kitna at Seattle (10/29), his second consecutive game with an INT. Also had two tackles on KO coverage ... Posted six solo tackles on defense and two tackles on special teams at Oakland (11/5) ... Compiled a career-high tying nine tackles (eight solo) at San Francisco (11/12) ... Contributed seven tackles (six solo) and two passes defended vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Produced six tackles and two QB pressures at San Diego (11/26) ... Totaled eight tackles (six solo) and a fumble recovery at New England (12/4) ... Tallied four solo tackles, two passes defended and two tackles on KO coverage vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Collected five tackles and a special teams tackle vs. Denver (12/17) ... Posted eight tackles (seven solo) and a pass defended at Atlanta (12/24).

College: Saw duty in 33 games (22 starts) during his collegiate career at Arkansas-Pine Bluff, totaling 121 tackles (76 solo), nine tackles for a loss (-22 yards), eight interceptions for 88 yards, a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and 21 passes defended ... Also contributed a sack and 20 special teams stops ... Talented athlete who didn't originally enroll at Arkansas - Pine Bluff with the intention of playing collegiate football ... Was discovered by a Pine Bluff assistant gridiron coach after he saw him dunk in an intramural basketball contest in November of '96 ... Subsequently joined the Golden Lions as a walk-on in '97 after not playing as a freshman in '96 ... Started all 11 games at free safety and ranked third on the squad with 62 tackles (36 solo) in '99 ... Produced four INTs for 68 yards and also added six tackles for loss (-18 yards), five passes defended ... Got a season-high 10 tackles vs. Alabama A&M ... Was a second team All-Southwestern Conference performer in '98 at free safety ... In 11 starts, racked up 54 tackles (35 solo), four interceptions for 17 yards, a forced fumble and a pair of tackles for loss ... Led the conference with a career-high 16 passes defended ... Joined the team as a walk-on as a sophomore in '97 ... Was named the club's special teams MVP by the coaching staff ... Had five tackles, one sack and a fumble recovery in his first season with the club ... Also racked up an incredible 20 tackles on special teams ... Majored in Business Management at Arkansas - Pine Bluff.

CHIEFS HONOR GROVE

In conjunction with the Chiefs 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City, a grove of over 40 stately Sequiandrom gigantea (Giant Redwoods) were planted in the Southeast corner of Truman Sports Complex on April 15th to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. The "Chiefs Honor Grove" will feature permanent markers honoring the team's Hall of Fame players whose names are currently listed on the inside facade of Arrowhead Stadium. During Chiefs Alumni Weekend each year an additional tree will also be added in honor of the most recent individual added to the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Pictured left to right are Pro Football Hall of Fame LB Bobby Bell, Gene Nichols - Northland Express Driver, Rich Harms - Colonial Nursery, Sandra Doolin Aust - Commissioner KCMO Board of Parks and Recreation, Mark McHenry - Deputy Director KCMO Board of Parks and Recreation, Michael Herron - KCMO Manager Horticultural and Boulevard Services.

NFL: 6 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: JULY 20, 1973

PARKERSBURG, IOWA

GP/GS: (67/40) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Strong-willed Iowan joined Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from Chicago on March 15th of 2001 ... Doesn't tip the scales at or above 300 pounds like many NFL offensive linemen, but plays much bigger than his size with a determined and fundamentally-sound style ... Has excellent quickness and agility, allowing him to take on second-level defenders and is often seen leading the way on screen plays ... Is a tenacious blocker, who earned his stripes working in the trenches of the NFC Central, long-regarded as a haven for some of the league's best blue-collar players ... Displays a hard-working style true to his Midwestern roots ... Follows in the footsteps of native Chicagoan, Tim Grunhard, who was arguably one of the finest centers in the illustrious 43-year history of the Chiefs franchise ... While replacing Grunhard was an unenviable task, Wiegmann certainly stepped into that role a year ago ... Quickly began his own legacy in Kansas City a year ago, serving as the centerpiece of a Chiefs offensive front which cleared the way for RB Priest Holmes, the NFL's leading rusher in 2001 ... "I'd like to believe we've signed a young Tim Grunhard, someone who has a great passion for the game, a leadership flair about him that could carry on the tradition on how that position should be played," Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil observed during the 2001 off-season ... Has played in 67 games (40 starts) including 64 of the last 65 games over the past five seasons ('97-01) ... Has two kickoff returns for 10 yards ... Joined the Bears on September 24th of '97 after being released by the N.Y. Jets after seeing action in the first three games of the season with that club ... Was claimed by the Jets off waivers from Indianapolis on October 29th of '96 ... Spent time on both the active roster and practice squad of the Colts in '96, but did not see game action ... Originally entered the NFL ranks as a rookie free agent with Indianapolis, signing on April 26th of '96. At Kansas City (2001): Started the club's final 15 games at center after missing the opener following appendectomy surgery ... Opened plenty of holes for RB Priest Holmes to amass a franchise single-season record 1,555 yards rushing ... Was inactive vs. Oakland (9/9) due to an appendectomy which was performed on August 27th ... Started his first game in a Chiefs uniform vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) and proceeded to open the final 14 games of the season in the middle of the line. At Chicago (1997-00): Saw duty in 49 games (25 starts) in a little over three full seasons with the Bears ... Played in all 48 regular season games with Chicago from '98-00, starting 10 contests in 2000 and 15 in '98 ... Returned two kickoffs for 10 yards. 2000: Played in all 16 games for the third straight year ... Backed up Olin Kreutz at center for the season's first three games before moving back into the starting lineup vs. Detroit (9/24) ... Also opened at Green Bay (10/1), vs. New Orleans (10/8) and vs. Minnesota (10/15) ... Worked behind Kreutz for the next four games ... Started the club's final five games beginning with a contest at the N.Y. Jets (11/26). 1999: Played in all 16 contests for the second consecutive year ... Served as the club's back-up center and played on special teams ... Returned a kickoff for two yards vs. Seattle (9/19). 1998: Saw action at center in all 16 games with 15 starts and also contributed on special teams ... Merited initial NFL start in the season opener vs. Jacksonville (9/6) ... Returned a kickoff eight yards at Arizona (10/11) ... Started every game except the club's contest vs. Green Bay (12/27). 1997: Saw reserve action in one contest ... Was claimed off waivers on September 24th after being released by the Jets the previous day ... Inactive at Dallas (9/28) and for the next nine games rehabbing a shoulder injury ... Was active but did not play at St. Louis (12/14) ... Saw his first action in a Bears uniform at Tampa Bay (12/21). At N.Y. Jets (1996-97): Saw duty in three games for the Jets on special teams. 1997: Saw duty in three games ... First regular season NFL action came at Seattle (8/31) ... Also played vs. Buffalo (9/7) and at New England (9/14) ... Was inactive vs. Oakland (9/21) before being released the following day. 1996: Claimed off waivers from Indianapolis on October 29th ... Was inactive vs. New England (11/10) and at Indianapolis (11/17) ... Active, but did not play at Buffalo (11/24) ... Was inactive for the next three games vs. Houston (12/1), at New England (12/8) and vs. Philadelphia (12/14) ... Active but did not play in the season finale vs. Miami (12/22). At Indianapolis (1996): Spent the first two weeks of the regular season on the club's practice squad ... Was promoted to the 53-man roster on September 10th ... Did not play vs. Dallas (9/15) and was subsequently placed back on the practice squad on September 23rd ... Promoted back to the active roster on October 15th, but did not play vs. New England (10/20) or at Washington (10/27) ... Was released by the Colts on October 28th.

College: Started every game his senior year with 27 career starts as a center for Iowa ... One of four co-captains for the Hawkeyes ... Led the offensive line that helped the offense average 199.8 yards on the ground and 213.8 yards in the air per game ... Collected All-Big 10 honorable mention, co-MVP for the season, and Offensive Coaches Hustle Award honors his senior year ... Started eight games as a junior missing two games due to injury ... Member of offensive line allowing only 10.0 QB sacks in 11 games ... Finished his sophomore season having started the first four games and final three games at center, missing five games due to injury ... Saw action in five games as a freshman ... Honor roll student majored in Communication Studies at Iowa.

Personal: A three-sport letterman (football, baseball, basketball) at Parkersburg High School in Parkersburg, Iowa ... Played center, defensive end, kicker and punter as a prep and established a school record with 17.0 career QB sacks ... Full name: Casey Peter Wiegmann (pronounced WIG-man) ... Single ... Resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

Pro Career: Powerful offensive lineman entering his fifth pro campaign and his third with the Chiefs in 2002 ... Versatile blocker who can play all three of the interior line spots and stepped into a starting position at right guard for four games last season ... Enters training camp as one of the club's top reserves at all three interior line positions and could challenge Brian Waters for the starting post at left guard ... Has played in 30 games with six starts over his past two campaigns with Kansas City ... Has a low center of gravity which he uses effectively to get leverage on defensive linemen ... Enters his fourth training camp with the Chiefs after seeing action in 14 games (four starts) in 2001 ... Served primarily as a reserve lineman and a regular on special teams in his first campaign with Kansas City, playing in 16 games with one start a piece at center and right guard ... Initially signed with the club as a free agent of '99 ... Survived the club's final cutdown to 53 players on September 5th in '99, but was released the following day when the team inked T Sammy Williams ... Will likely be a strong candidate to earn a roster spot once again ... Has enjoyed previous pro stops with Tampa Bay, New Orleans and Seattle ... MEMPHIS

NFL: 7 (7TH WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: MARCH 17, 1973

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

GP/GS: (95/79) PLAYOFFS: (1/1)

Pro Career: Fearless free safety who is one of the most tenacious tacklers in the game today ... Enters his seventh season with the Chiefs and his sixth as the club's starting free safety ... Has opened 79 of 80 games at free safety for Kansas City the past five seasons ... Dedicated defensive standout is the latest in a long line of stellar Kansas City safeties, a list which includes the likes of Chiefs Hall of Famers Lloyd Burruss, Deron Cherry and Johnny Robinson ... Joins DE John Browning as the longest-tenured defensive player on the Chiefs roster after joining the club in the '96 NFL Draft along with Browning ... Owns a reserved personality off the field, but specializes in producing highlight-quality hits once he gets between the stripes ... Arguably the toughest player on the entire Kansas City squad, frequently turns his body into a human projectile in order to bring opponents to the ground ... Simply loves to play the game at its physical fullest and has been compared by some to a heat-seeking missile once he gets an opponent in his crosshairs ... Earned a reputation as an intimidating tackler in college and has punished opponents with regularity at the pro level ... Will do whatever necessary to win a game, whether it's excelling in pass coverage, stuffing the run or serving as a pass rusher ... Has consistently ranked among the club's leading tacklers, producing 100+ tackles in four of the last five seasons, averaging 110.6 tackles per year since '97 ... After just six seasons in a Kansas City uniform, already ranks 10th on the club's all-time tackle chart with 562 career takedowns ... With another 100-tackle outing in 2002, would move into seventh place in team history ahead of Tracy Simien (595), Dino Hackett (625) and Burruss (628) ... Durable performer who has just missed one contest since joining the Chiefs as the club's number one draft choice in '96, playing in 95 of a possible 96 games over that span ... Needs to see action in just five more regular season games to become the 58th player in team annals to play in 100 or more games for the Red and Gold ... Blessed with an astounding pain threshold, played over half of the '98 season with six screws and a metal plate inserted into a broken right hand ... Despite that injured appendage, still started all 16 games and finished third on the squad with 124 tackles that year ... Blessed with extremely long limbs and excellent leaping ability which only serve to complement his tremendous range and reach ... Registered triple-digit tackles three straight years from '97-99 and again in 2001 ... Has at least one INT each of the past five seasons, as well ... Shared the club's KO return chores with Tamarick Vanover as a rookie in '96 and also served as a reserve cornerback before switching back to his natural free safety spot in '97 ... Has seen action in 95 regular season games (79 starts), producing 12 INTs with 157 return yards to go along with 562 tackles (379 solo), three fumble recoveries and eight forced fumbles ... Has also racked up 4.0 sacks (-23.0 yards), 39 passes defended, 24 QB pressures and 24 special teams stops ... Recovered a blocked FG attempt in '98, as well ... Returned 25 kickoffs for 581 yards (23.2 avg.) with a long of 66 yards as a rookie in '96 ... Has also recorded four tackles and a forced fumble in one postseason start following the '97 campaign ... Entered the NFL as Kansas City's first-round choice (28th overall) in the '96 NFL Draft. 2001: Started all 16 games at free safety for the second consecutive season ... Finished fourth on the team with 115 tackles (73 solo), marking the fourth time in his career he topped the 100-tackle barrier ... Ranked second on the team with three INTs for 48 yards and also recorded five tackles for loss, three passes defended, a sack (-6.0 yards), a forced fumble and four QB pressures ... Collected seven tackles, including a tackle for loss and a pass defended vs. Oakland (9/9) ... Made seven stops vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Recorded two tackles and a QB pressure at Washington (9/30) ... Produced eight tackles at Denver (10/7) ... Registered seven tackles vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Amassed three tackles and a pass defended at Arizona (10/21) ... Racked up a team-high 12 tackles vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Registered six tackles at San Diego (11/4) and intercepted a Doug Flutie pass which he returned 25 yards, in addition to producing a sack (-6.0 yards) and strip of Drew Brees ... Tallied five tackles at the N.Y. Jets (11/11), marking his 500th career takedown ... Recorded nine stops vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Collected a season-high 13 tackles vs. Philadelphia (11/29) ... Kansas City made the trade, but Minnesota was actually on the clock since Dallas had not officially notified the NFL of the trade before time had expired on the pick. In the end, Kansas City was able to select the player it truly courted in the draft ... Kansas City obtained the Cowboys first-round choice (sixth overall - used on Sims) in exchange for the Chiefs first-round selection (eighth overall - used on S Roy Williams), third-round pick (75th overall - used on CB Derek Ross) and a sixth-round pick in 2003 ... Became the first Tar Heel selected by the Chiefs in the first round since the club tabbed RB Ethan Horton with the 15th overall pick in '85 ... Became the highest Kansas City draft choice since the Chiefs selected the late LB Derrick Thomas with the fourth overall selection in the '89 NFL Draft ... It marked the first time the Chiefs had moved up in the first round since the club moved up five spots to select TE Tony Gonzalez with the 13th overall pick in '97 ... A high energy performer who fills a void in the interior of the Chiefs defensive line ... A three-starter who appeared in 43 games (33 starts) ... Finished his college career with 167 tackles (83 solo), 14.0 sacks (-87.0 yards), 28.0 tackles for loss, 11 passes defended, 40 QB pressures and a fumble recovery ... Former college teammate of the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, DE Julius Peppers, who was tabbed by Carolina ... Excellent run stopper who will continue to hone his pass rushing techniques from Chiefs defensive line coaches Bob Karmelowicz and Carl Hairston ... A tireless worker who earned the Super Ram award at North Carolina, the highest honor in the school's weight room ... Earned his college stripes playing for former Chiefs assistant coach John Bunting, who serves as head coach for the Tar Heels. Bunting was a key member of Philadelphia's Super Bowl XV squad when current Kansas City President Carl Peterson served as the team's Director of Player Personnel and Dick Vermeil was the club's head coach. Bunting serving as defensive coordinator with Vermeil in St. Louis, won two USFL titles with Peterson as a member of the Baltimore/Philadelphia Stars and also enjoyed a stint as a Chiefs assistant coach from '93-96. 2001: An All-Atlantic Coast Conference first team choice and a second team All-America selection ... 40TH FACT

Three members of the Chiefs Hall of Fame were born outside the United States: Jan Stenerud, Christian Okoye and John Alt. The state of Texas has produced six Chiefs Hall of Fame players, more than any other state.

Oakland 27, CHIEFS 24

September 9, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,844

OAKLAND	6	0	8	13	—	27
KANSAS CITY	7	7	3	7	—	24

In Dick Vermeil's first regular season game as Kansas City's head coach, the Chiefs fought back from a 24-17 deficit to even the count at 24-24 with 1:21 remaining in the contest. However, that comeback effort wasn't enough as the Raiders knocked through a game-winning field goal with 15 seconds left, sealing Oakland's 27-24 victory at Arrowhead Stadium.

The 2001 regular season started with a bang when four plays into the contest Chiefs CB Eric Warfield intercepted a QB Rich Gannon pass and dashed 51 yards for the season's first score to give the Chiefs a 7-0 advantage.

After a pair of FGs by Oakland K Sebastian Janikowski closed the Chiefs lead to 7-6, the Kansas City offense finally got rolling when Chiefs QB Trent Green rallied the troops late in the first quarter and hit TE Tony Gonzalez on a 14-yard pass over the middle. FB Tony Richardson followed that up by punching the ball across the goal line with a three-yard sweep to put the Chiefs ahead 14-6 at the half.

Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Green engineered a prolific 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive to pull the game even at 24-24. Facing fourth-and-10 at the Oakland 42-yard line, Green scrambled for a 12-yard first down prolonging the contest. Two plays later Green floated a pass to WR Marvin Minnis, who made a diving catch in the right corner of the end zone, to knot the score at 24-24.

For the second straight year however, Janikowski booted a field goal in the game's final 30 seconds to steal a victory at Arrowhead. Gannon, who finished with 341 passing yards, quickly drove the Raiders into Kansas City territory to set up Janikowski's game-clinching 31-yard kick.

The Chiefs offense was outgained 427 to 254 yards, but LB Donnie Edwards led the team with 12 tackles and recovered a pair of fumbles for Kansas City, giving the Chiefs defense three turnovers on the day.

GAME NOTES

- TE Tony Gonzalez moved into seventh place in Chiefs history in receiving yardage with 3,122. He bypassed Fred Arbanas who held the previous Kansas City TE record and seventh place all-time with 3,101 receiving yards.
- CB Eric Warfield scored his first NFL touchdown on a 51-yard INT return. It marked the 13th consecutive season ('89-01) Kansas City registered at least one touchdown on defense.
- LB Donnie Edwards recorded a career-high two fumble recoveries.

N.Y. Giants 13, CHIEFS 3

September 23, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,666

N.Y. GIANTS	3	10	0	0	—	13
KANSAS CITY	0	0	3	0	—	3

After the tragedies of September 11th put the sporting world on hiatus in the United States, the National Football League made its triumphant return in Kansas City on September 23rd. Following a touching pregame patriotic ceremony attended by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, the typically raucous Arrowhead Stadium crowd greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation during their introductions in a show of unity as the citizens of Kansas City honored their brethren from New York City.

While the pregame patriotism was moving, the Kansas City offense had trouble doing any football-moving against New York's stout defensive unit as the club suffered a 13-3 setback in the Chiefs second home contest of the season.

The Giants used a short field and stingy defense to set up a pair of K Morten Andersen field goals and a RB Ron Dayne touchdown on their way to a 13-0 halftime lead. The 2000 NFC Champions held the Chiefs to just 266 yards of offense on the day and became the first NFC team to beat the Chiefs at Arrowhead since '94.

The Kansas City offense showed signs of rust after the two-week layoff and managed just a 33-yard K Todd Peterson FG on six trips into Giants territory. QB Trent Green found WR Marvin "Snoop" Minnis free down the sideline, who in turn hauled in a 49-yard over-the-shoulder catch to set up Kansas City's lone score, which came in the third quarter. However, the play turned out to be costly for the Chiefs as Minnis was forced to leave the game with mild head trauma after his dramatic grab in front of the KC bench.

With the offense stalling, the Kansas City defense stayed strong, intercepting three QB Kerry Collins passes and holding the Giants scoreless in the second half. The Chiefs defense also limited New York to 290 yards of total offense and kept the "Thunder and Lightning" RB combo of Dayne and Tiki Barber in check with just 89 yards rushing and a 2.9-yard per carry average. LB Marvyn Patton and S Greg Wesley led the Kansas City defense, each recording 12 tackles and a tackle for a loss.

GAME NOTES

- New York's victory snapped a string of 12 consecutive Kansas City victories at Arrowhead vs. NFC opponents.
- The Giants did not permit the Chiefs to score a touchdown, snapping a streak of 64 consecutive games scoring a TD, the second-longest string in Chiefs history.
- A firefighter's boot collection during the game raised $220,706.94 from Arrowhead fans, a figure matched by the Chiefs organization for a total donation of $451,413.88.

- GIANTS — Andersen, 42-yard field goal (6-11, 1:35).
- GIANTS — Dayne, 7-yard run (Andersen kick) (9-80, 4:51).
- GIANTS — Andersen, 34-yard field goal (7-42, 1:04).
- CHIEFS — Peterson, 33-yard field goal (9-67, 4:31).

CHIEFS 45, Washington 13

September 30, 2001 • FedEx Field • 76,573

KANSAS CITY	0	28	7	10	—	45
WASHINGTON	3	7	3	0	—	13

Playing in its first road contest of the season, Kansas City picked a perfect time to unleash the club's high-powered offense. The Chiefs racked up the first regular season win under head coach Dick Vermeil in convincing fashion by a 45-13 margin. The contest also marked Kansas City's first regular season meeting with the franchise's former head coach, Marty Schottenheimer.

QB Trent Green had a banner day, racking up an incredible passer rating of 154.3, just four points shy of a "perfect" 158.3 rating. He finished with 307 aerial yards on 21-of-26 passing (80.77%), to go along with three TDs. That opened up room for RB Priest Holmes to explode for 225 yards of total offense (147 rushing, 78 receiving) and three TDs.

The contest was close deep into the first half when QB Tony Banks found WR Rod Gardner for a 26-yard TD to narrow the Chiefs advantage to 14-10. Kansas City then rattled off 14 points on a pair of Holmes TD runs in the final 1:24 of the half. The Chiefs final drive of the half covered 70 yards, but consisted of just three plays: a 27-yard Holmes run, a 19-yard pass to WR Chris Thomas and a 24-yard Holmes TD run to give the Chiefs a commanding 28-10 advantage at the half.

Washington opened the second half with a 28-yard FG to cut the count to 28-13, but it would be as close as the Redskins would get. Kansas City answered with a nine-play, 75-yard march, which culminated in a three-yard TD pass from Green to TE Tony Gonzalez. After Washington went three-and-out on its next possession, Kansas City added a 33-yard K Todd Peterson FG to push the margin to 38-13. A three-yard Green-to-Thomas TD connection made the final count 45-13 in favor of KC. Those 45 points were the most Kansas City had scored on the road since a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8/85).

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs 32-point margin of victory was the club's largest since getting a 42-10 win vs. San Diego (9/17/00) and was the largest margin in a road game since a 40-3 win at San Diego (12/8/68).
- Kansas City's 546 yards of total offense were the fifth-highest total in team history and the most since the club compiled 566 yards vs. Detroit (10/14/90).
- Kansas City had a 300-yard passer (Trent Green - 307 yards) and a 100-yard rusher (Priest Holmes - 147 yards) in the same game for the first time since QB Steve DeBerg (331 yards) and RB Barry Word (112 yards) did it in a 37-7 win at New England (12/2/90).
- QB Trent Green completed 21 of 26 passes, good for a completion pct. of 80.77, the second-best single-game mark in team history.

- REDSKINS — Conway, 30-yard field goal (13-71, 7:00).
- CHIEFS — Richardson, 5-yard run (Peterson kick) (12-70, 6:50).
- CHIEFS — Holmes, 24-yard pass from Green (Peterson kick) (5-64, 2:47).

Denver 20, CHIEFS 6

October 7, 2001 • INVESCO Field at Mile High • 75,037

KANSAS CITY	0	6	0	0	—	6
DENVER	7	3	3	7	—	20

After coming away victorious in their final two contests at Mile High Stadium, the Chiefs could not translate that success to their debut at INVESCO Field at Mile High as Denver snapped its four-game overall losing streak to the Chiefs with a 20-6 victory. The Chiefs defense limited Denver's high-powered offense to just 20 points, 11 completions and 103 net passing yards, but it was not enough to overcome four Kansas City turnovers on the day.

After forcing the Broncos offense to go three-and-out on their initial two drives, Kansas City squandered a golden scoring opportunity when QB Trent Green was picked off by CB Deltha O'Neal in the end zone, the first of four INTs by O'Neal on the day, most ever in one game by an individual player vs. Kansas City.

Denver quickly capitalized on that miscue as three plays later RB Mike Anderson broke out for a 62-yard TD to open the scoring. Anderson finished the day with 155 yards. Chiefs LB Marcus Patton then picked off a pass by QB Brian Griese to set up a 23-yard K Todd Peterson FG, cutting Denver's advantage to 7-3. A 48-yard kick by K Jason Elam kick upped the count to 10-3, but Peterson retaliated with a 35-yard FG of his own to give the Broncos a slim 10-6 edge heading into intermission.

After a 24-yard Elam FG upped Denver's advantage to 13-6 in the third quarter, O'Neal thwarted another Kansas City scoring drive with an INT at the Broncos 27-yard line. Behind LB Donnie Edwards' team-high 12 tackles, the Chiefs defense kept the Red and Gold within striking distance.

However O'Neal returned his third INT of Green back to the Chiefs four-yard line, setting up a Griese TD pass to WR Rod Smith on the next play, making the count 20-6 Denver. Smith registered 110 yards on the day, his seventh such game vs. the Chiefs. Kansas City's final drive ended when O'Neal registered his fourth INT on a desperation heave in Denver territory.

GAME NOTES

- For the fifth consecutive game vs. the Broncos, Kansas City's defense held Denver's offense to 20 points or less.
- With eight catches for 129 yards TE Tony Gonzalez registered his seventh 100-yard receiving game and the third-highest single-game yardage total of his career.
- Gonzalez posted a 100-yard receiving game for the second straight year at Denver.
- Denver CB Deltha O'Neal intercepted four passes, the most ever by one player vs. Kansas City, breaking the previous mark of three established by Cincinnati's David Fulcher (10/1/89).

- BRONCOS — Anderson, 62-yard run (Elam kick) (3-80, 1:10).

Pittsburgh 20, CHIEFS 17

October 14, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,413

PITTSBURGH	0	6	14	0	—	20
KANSAS CITY	0	2	0	15	—	17

The pregame billing for the match-up between the Chiefs and Steelers was right on the mark, a pair of heavyweight defenses and rugged rushing attacks slugging it out for 12 rounds. Despite a furious fourth-quarter rally and a spirited effort out of RB Priest Holmes, the Chiefs could not dig themselves out of an 18-point hole and fell to Pittsburgh by a 20-17 count at Arrowhead Stadium.

RBs Holmes and Jerome Bettis were as good advertised, going toe-to-toe all afternoon. Holmes led the Chiefs comeback with two rushing TDs in the fourth quarter and finished the afternoon with 150 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs first lit up the scoreboard when TE Mikhael Ricks blocked a Josh Miller punt out the back of the end zone for a Chiefs safety, cutting the deficit to 6-2 just before the half. LB Marvyn Patton paced a strong Chiefs defensive effort with 13 tackles, including 11 solo stops.

Pittsburgh stymied the Kansas City offense through three periods and did just enough to build a lead. Leading 6-2 at the half, CB Chad Scott picked off QB Trent Green on the first drive of the second half and ran it back 61 yards for a touchdown. Two possessions later, the Steelers rode Bettis (20-122) down the field and capped the drive with a QB Kordell Stewart TD pass to WR Hines Ward. Bettis carried the ball three times for 49 of the Steelers 68 yards on the scoring march.

Holmes energized the Chiefs offense when he scampered for Kansas City's first offensive score on a 26-yard TD early in the fourth quarter. He then added another TD with a one-yard dive over the goal line minutes later, cutting the Steelers lead to 20-17 with just under 3:00 remaining.

After seeing Pittsburgh's 20-2 lead dwindle to just three points, Steelers RB Amos Zereoue was able to come up with a critical first down run in the game's final two minutes to preserve the victory.

GAME NOTES

- TE Mikhael Ricks blocked a Josh Miller punt in the second quarter which went out of the end zone for a safety. It marked the first time the Chiefs had recorded a safety since LB Derrick Thomas sacked QB Jeff George in the end zone vs. Oakland (9/16/98).
- QB Trent Green connected with TE Tony Gonzalez for a two-point conversion, marking the first time the Chiefs had converted a two-point play since QB Elvis Grbac threw a two-point pass to Gonzalez in a 28-20 win at St. Louis (10/26/97).
- With five catches, Gonzalez moved up to 289 career receptions, putting him ahead of RB Ed Podolak (288) for seventh place on the franchise's all-time receiving chart.

- STEELERS — Brown, 42-yard field goal (12-72, 5:13).
- STEELERS — Brown, 55-yard field goal (9-46, 4:27).

Arizona 24, CHIEFS 16

October 21, 2001 • Sun Devil Stadium • 35,916

KANSAS CITY		3	6	0	7	—	16
ARIZONA		0	3	7	14	—	24

Making their first trip to Arizona since posting a 24-3 win in '95, the arid desert proved inhospitable to the Chiefs, greeting them with a blazing sun and temperatures near 90 degrees at kickoff. Kansas City mounted a slim 9-6 halftime lead as both teams' offenses dried up in the Red Zone, but the advantage slipped away in the second half as the Cardinals posted a 24-16 win at Sun Devil Stadium.

The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter, beginning a seven-play, 20-yard drive at their own 49. K Todd Peterson boomed a 49-yard FG through the uprights to give Kansas City a 3-0 advantage. However, Arizona would answer with a 29-yard kick from K Bill Gramatica on its next possession to even the count at 3-3.

With Kansas City up 6-3 after a 29-yard Peterson FG, an Arizona scoring drive was thwarted when CB Eric Warfield stripped FB Joel Mackovicka on the Chiefs five-yard line with 1:11 left before the half. QB Trent Green then heaved a 44-yard pass to WR Larry Parker putting the Chiefs at the Arizona three-yard line. However, the Chiefs would have to settle for a 33-yard FG to make the count 9-6 after two quarters.

Arizona took the lead on the opening drive of the third quarter when RB Michael Pittman broke off a 24-yard TD run to cap a 10-play, 80-yard march. Kansas City managed only three offensive plays in the quarter as the Cardinals held the ball for 13:50 in the quarter. QB Jake Plummer then hit WR David Boston for a 23-yard TD to cap a 16-play, 95-yard drive in the fourth quarter putting, Arizona up 17-9. Arizona capitalized on a Chiefs INT with another TD, a 13-yard run by RB Thomas Jones, to make the score 24-9.

Green would rally the Chiefs late, though. A 41-yard RB Priest Holmes run set up a 34-yard TD to WR Derrick Alexander to narrow the gap to 24-16 with 3:57 remaining. The Chiefs had one last shot to tie the contest as Green took Kansas City from its own one-yard line deep into Arizona territory in five plays. On fourth down from the Arizona two-yard line with 0:07 left, Green's comeback bid fell short as CB Cory Chavous picked off the ball in the end zone to preserve the 24-16 Arizona victory.

GAME NOTES

- QB Trent Green registered the seventh 300-yard passing game of his career and his second as a member of the Chiefs with a season-high 352 yards.
- CB Eric Warfield forced the first two fumbles of his career.
- S Greg Wesley led the Chiefs in tackles, recording a career-high 13 stops.

- CHIEFS — Peterson, 49-yard field goal (7-20, 3:45).

GAME 7

Indianapolis 35, CHIEFS 28

October 25, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,212

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	10	18	—	35
KANSAS CITY	0	3	11	14	—	28

For the third straight game the Chiefs battled two opponents in the fourth quarter, with the clock perhaps being the deadliest. After matching the Colts nearly step-for-step for three-and-a-half quarters, the Chiefs fell a few minutes short in the end, dropping a 35-28 decision before a national Thursday night audience to mark the club's fourth straight loss.

Thanks to a team-high 12 tackles from S Jerome Woods, the Chiefs defense pitched a shutout for the first 27 minutes and held the NFL's then-number one ranked offense to just 34 yards in the first quarter. Colts QB Peyton Manning finally broke the scoring seal when he completed an 11-yard TD pass to TE Marcus Pollard with 2:27 remaining in the first half. That pass was just the beginning of what amounted to a scoring shootout.

Kansas City K Todd Peterson connected on a 48-yard field goal as the first half expired, making the score 7-3 in favor of Indianapolis. The Chiefs came out after the intermission and put together back-to-back scoring drives and added two more fourth-quarter TDs.

After Peterson kicked his second FG of the evening, QB Trent Green (22-43, 324 yards, 3 TDs) ran a play-action pass on the Chiefs next possession and found TE Tony Gonzalez wide open for a 35-yard scoring strike.

The Gonzalez TD trimmed the Indianapolis lead to 17-14, but that was as close as Kansas City would get. The Chiefs offense was playing catch-up all night as the Colts answered every Chiefs score except their last. Indianapolis scored on five of their first six possessions of the second half, including two FGs by Mike Vanderjagt, an 88-yard kickoff return and 77-yard breakaway run by RB Dominic Rhodes, and a 47-yard pass to WR Marvin Harrison.

Chiefs WR Larry Parker emerged as a big-play receiving threat recording career-high numbers in every category. With WR Derrick Alexander out with an abdominal strain, Parker assumed the responsibility and hauled in six catches for 76 yards and notched his first two NFL TDs. Parker snared an 11-yard pass from Green on a fade route into the corner of the end zone marking his first career touchdown catch. He then added a five-yard TD reception late in the game cutting the deficit to 35-28, but time expired before Green and the offense could mount one last rally.

GAME NOTES

- Colts RB Dominic Rhodes returned a kickoff 88 yards for a TD, the first allowed by the Chiefs since Minnesota's Robert Tate returned a KO 76 yards for a TD (12/12/99).
- WR Larry Parker established career highs with six catches for 76 yards and two TDs.
- WR Marvin Minnis had a career-high 64 receiving yards vs. the Colts.

- COLTS — Pollard, 11-yard pass from Manning (Vanderjagt kick) (11-63, 6:52).

GAME 8

CHIEFS 25, San Diego 20

November 4, 2001 • Qualcomm Stadium • 58,789

KANSAS CITY	9	10	0	6	—	25
SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	10	—	20

Kansas City knew that starting early and rushing the football would be crucial factors in beating the Chargers and ending their four-game losing streak. The Chiefs did just that with stifling defense and nearly flawless offense, building a 19-0 halftime lead. After San Diego put up 20 straight second-half points, QB Trent Green's late-game heroics and a 181-yard rushing performance from RB Priest Holmes helped the Chiefs put together a 71-yard touchdown drive to win the game, 25-20.

The Chiefs started early as Holmes rumbled for 86 yards and Green threw for 96 yards to six different receivers in the first half. On the Chiefs third possession, Holmes took back-to-back draw plays for 26 and 21-yard gains setting up FB Tony Richardson for Kansas City's first offensive TD in the first quarter on the year, and a 9-0 lead after Peterson's extra point attempt was blocked.

The Chiefs reached deep into the playbook as Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez completed a successful double-pass play to fellow TE Mikhael Ricks for a 40-yard gain. Green swung a long lateral to Gonzalez, who then floated the ball downfield to a wide-open Ricks deep in San Diego territory, setting up Holmes for a three-yard TD run which put KC up 16-0.

With just over 6:00 remaining in the game and the Chiefs trailing 20-19, Green and the Chiefs offense worked the clock perfectly, taking off 4:44 on their way to grabbing the lead and ultimately, the game. Green set the tone of the drive on the first play when he found WR Marvin "Snoop" Minnis alone at midfield for a 25-yard completion. Five straight runs by Holmes moved KC to the San Diego one-yard line where Richardson blasted across the goal line for his second TD of the game, giving the Chiefs a 25-20 advantage.

Kansas City left nearly a minute and a half on the clock after its score for rookie QB Drew Brees, who took over when starter Doug Flutie left the game with a concussion. Brees had engineered a pair of scoring drives earlier that half, but this time LB Donnie Edwards (11 tackles) and the Chiefs defense responded by tackling Brees in bounds at the Kansas City 28-yard line as time expired, preserving their first victory in San Diego since '97.

GAME NOTES

- With 181 rushing yards, RB Priest Holmes produced the second-highest rushing day of his career and the fourth-best day in Chiefs history.
- TE Tony Gonzalez became the fastest player in Kansas City history to reach 300 catches, doing it in his 71st NFL game. The previous mark was held by WR Chris Burford, who did it in 76 games.
- FB Tony Richardson produced a career-high two rushing TDs vs. San Diego.

- CHIEFS — Peterson, 37-yard field goal (8-13, 3:34).
- CHIEFS — Richardson, 1-yard run (kick blocked) (5-52, 2:18).

GAME 9

N.Y. Jets 27, CHIEFS 7

November 11, 2001 • Giants Stadium • 78,234

KANSAS CITY	0	0	0	7	—	7
N.Y. JETS	0	14	13	0	—	27

Howling winds and temperatures in the 40s greeted the Chiefs in the Big Apple, as well as a stingy New York Jets defense and a rugged rushing attack. Kansas City fell to 2-7 on the season as the Jets used turnovers and smash-mouth football to defeat the Chiefs 27-7 at the Meadowlands in East Rutherford, N.J.

The Jets leaned heavily on their All-Pro RB Curtis Martin, who in turn scored all three New York touchdowns en route to racking up 20 carries for 113 yards.

The Jets also came into the game boasting the NFL's top turnover ratio (+15) and did not do anything to damage that lead, forcing KC to cough up the ball four times, converting three of those turnovers into 17 of their 27 points.

New York started the damage midway through the second quarter by wearing down the Chiefs defense for a 13-play, 96-yard touchdown drive that took 7:32 off the clock. Martin pounded the final dagger by pushing through a one-yard TD run for a 7-0 lead.

Later in the half, the Jets converted a SS Victor Glenn INT into seven more points as Martin again did the legwork. In a power formation, Testaverde handed the ball off to Martin who left all 11 Chiefs in his wake and ripped off a 25-yard scoring run to make the halftime margin 14-0. Martin also added a five-yard TD run in the third quarter and K John Hall booted a pair of second-half field goals to build an insurmountable 27-0 lead.

Kansas City's offense struggled to move the football early on and totaled just 93 first-half yards on seven offensive possessions. Despite a 50-yard rushing effort from Priest Holmes in the first half, the Chiefs had two drives stall inside Jets territory after tossing an INT and allowing a sack. Holmes finished the afternoon with 18 carries for 71 yards.

The offense finally found the end zone in the fourth quarter thanks largely in part to the field position provided by P Dan Stryzinski. After a KC drive had been thwarted on the Jets 46-yard line, Stryzinski hung a high punt deep into NYJ territory which first hit the turf and quickly made 90-degree turn out of bounds, pinning New York inside the one-yard line.

After the defense held the Jets three-and-out, the Chiefs used a balanced attack to drive the ball 38 yards, punching it across the goal line for the only KC score. From six yards out QB Trent Green found TE Tony Gonzalez on a hook pattern in the end zone for the touchdown to make the final count 27-7.

GAME NOTES

- WR Derrick Alexander (199) moved into sole possession of ninth place on the Chiefs all-time receiving chart, moving ahead of Fred Arbanas (198).

GAME 10

CHIEFS 19, Seattle 7

November 25, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,357

SEATTLE	0	7	0	0	—	7
KANSAS CITY	3	7	0	9	—	19

In the '90s Kansas City boasted the best home record of any team in the NFL, and against Seattle the Chiefs took a step in proving that Arrowhead Stadium is still an imposing place to play by beating Seattle, 19-7, in front of a capacity crowd.

The best way to take advantage of one of the loudest stadiums in the NFL is to take an early lead and give the fans something to cheer about. The Chiefs did just that when they scored on two of their first three drives, opening up a 10-0 first half lead. Next, the Chiefs knew that controlling the clock by running the ball and keeping the Seahawks offense on the sidelines would help hold the energy in the stadium. Mission accomplished; KC won the clock battle 34:51 to 24:34 behind 188 total yards rushing, including 120 by RB Priest Holmes.

The Chiefs looked confident and fresh coming off the bye week, and on the game's opening possession QB Trent Green jump-started the offense with long passes to TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Derrick Alexander. Once Kansas City had the Seahawks on their heels, the backfield battering ram of Holmes, FB Tony Richardson and RB Mike Cloud had room to run and wear down the Seattle defense. Richardson scored the first Chiefs touchdown on a one-yard run, then Cloud turned the trick in the fourth quarter with a 15-yard run up the heart of the Seahawk defense to seal the 19-7 victory.

Leading, 10-7, late in the third quarter the Chiefs put together a monumental 17-play drive that ate up 7:32 and seemingly sapped all the life from the Seahawks. Although KC only scored a 26-yard K Todd Peterson FG to push the KC lead to 13-7, it scored a crucial blow in the fight for momentum. On the epic drive Holmes and Richardson each touched the ball five times and when they did not get the ball, it was play-action fakes that set up Green completions. Green finished the game completing 16 of 26 passes for 256 yards.

As punishing as the KC offense looked, the defense may have been even better. For the sixth straight game the Chiefs defense held their opponent scoreless in the first quarter, the longest such streak in franchise history. The defense bottled up RB Shaun Alexander, who rushed for just 43 yards, and stifled QB Matt Hasselbeck (16 of 26, 162 yards).

GAME NOTES

- Kansas City's defense pitched a first-quarter shutout for a sixth consecutive game, the longest such streak in the history of the Chiefs franchise.
- RB Priest Holmes registered his fourth 100-yard game of the season and the 11th of his career.

- CHIEFS — Peterson, 23-yard field goal (7-58, 3:18).
- CHIEFS — Richardson, 1-yard run (Peterson kick) (10-81, 5:56).

GAME 11

Philadelphia 23, CHIEFS 10

November 29, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,087

PHILADELPHIA		3	10	7	3	—	23
KANSAS CITY		0	3	7	0	—	10

The temperature for kickoff at Arrowhead Stadium was a brisk 35 degrees, but even that was not enough to chill red-hot QB Donovan McNabb and the Eagles offense.

Kansas City head coach Dick Vermeil, who led the Eagles to Super Bowl XV, had hoped to get an early jump on his former team, but it was Philadelphia head coach Andy Reid who pulled all the right strings. Eagles K David Akers dribbled a perfectly-executed surprise onside kick to open the game. Philadelphia recovered and turned it into an Akers FG for an early 3-0 lead and never looked back.

Before a national Thursday night audience, McNabb was seemingly all over the field, completing 18 of 26 passes for 269 yards, adding two touchdown passes and ripping off 41 yards on the ground.

Three minutes into the second quarter with the Eagles clinging to a narrow 3-0 lead, the Chiefs defense snuffed out a drive at midfield. LB Glenn Cadrez partially blocked a P Sean Landeta punt, but the deflected ball slipped through the arms of CB Eric Warfield and the Eagles recovered on the Chiefs 41-yard line. Two plays later a 46-yard McNabb to RB Duce Staley touchdown pass sapped the energy from the Chiefs and opened up a 10-0 lead.

Chiefs QB Trent Green used RB Priest Holmes (76 yards rushing, 100 yards receiving) to orchestrate two five-minute-plus scoring drives. The first was a 14-play, 64-yard march that ended with a 29-yard K Todd Peterson field goal. Green found four different receivers for first downs on the drive but his third down attempt to TE Tony Gonzalez in the back of the end zone was tipped and fell incomplete.

Green (21 for 35, 213 yards, one TD), did help the Chiefs find the end zone midway through the third quarter when he hit WR Derrick Alexander on a three-yard strike. Alexander slipped past the Eagles linebackers and tiptoed along the end line to net the score.

Trailing 23-10 in the final quarter, the Chiefs had three possessions in the fourth frame, but were unable to score. The final Chiefs drive stalled at the Eagles 19-yard line with 1:12 remaining, essentially ending hopes of a Kansas City rally.

GAME NOTES

- RB Priest Holmes had 100 receiving yards, surpassing his previous career high of 98 vs. Tennessee (12/5/99). He became the first Chiefs RB to post a 100-yard receiving game since Todd McNair had 111 yards at San Diego (12/23/90).
- LB Marvyn Patton tied a career high with his second career two-sack game vs. PHI, he also tied for a team-high nine tackles (2 TFL).
- RB/KR Dante Hall registered a career-long 59-yard kickoff return in the third quarter.

- EAGLES — Akers, 24-yard field goal (12-54, 6:01).
- EAGLES — Staley, 46-yard pass from McNabb (Akers kick) (2-41, 0:19).

GAME 12

Oakland 28, CHIEFS 26

December 9, 2001 • Network Associates Coliseum • 60,784

KANSAS CITY	10	7	3	6	—	26
OAKLAND	7	14	7	0	—	28

A crowd of 60,784 rowdy fans at Oakland's Network Associates Coliseum held their collective breath for the final eight minutes of the game as Kansas City came just a failed two-point conversion short of upsetting the AFC West Champions, falling 28-26.

The Chiefs forced Oakland into a season-high five turnovers, outgained the Raiders 447 to 264 in total yardage, including 277 yards (168 rushing, 109 receiving) from RB Priest Holmes, but misfired on too many chances.

After stopping the Raider offense on the game's opening possession, Holmes simply took over. He scored the first touchdown on a 10-yard cutback run up the middle and accounted for 59 of the drive's 89 yards.

Two possessions later, Holmes turned a screen pass from QB Trent Green into a career-long, 67-yard TD dash, Kansas City's longest offensive play in 2001. On this drive the fifth-year back was the difference in all but three yards of the 88-yard march.

Trailing 17-7, the Silver and Black got back into the game when QB Rich Gannon scored on a five-yard TD run to cut the Kansas City advantage to 17-14. Oakland then stopped a Chiefs fourth-and-one attempt, turning it into seven points the other way. Gannon found WR Jerry Rice on an eight-yard TD pass with 32 second remaining in the first half for a 21-17 lead at the break, a deficit the Chiefs would never overcome.

Trailing by eight points with 3:03 left in the game, the Chiefs went for the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the Oakland four-yard line, but Green's fade pass to WR Derrick Alexander in the corner of the end zone was knocked away, seemingly ending KC's hopes.

With no timeouts, Chiefs DE Duane Clemons caught up to a scrambling Gannon and forced a fumble which S Greg Wesley's recovered at the Oakland 28-yard line, giving the Chiefs offense one last gasp.

With 1:44 left, Green (15 of 32, 253 yards) hit TE Tony Gonzalez on a 24-yard TD bringing the Chiefs within two points at 28-26. On the ensuing two-point attempt, Green wanted to find his Pro Bowl TE again, but Gonzalez was held up by the Raiders defense and Green was sacked, effectively ending the game.

GAME NOTES

- With an 11-yard run in the first quarter, RB Priest Holmes became the seventh player in Chiefs history to record a 1,000-yard rushing season and the first to do it since Christian Okoye in '91.
- Holmes became just the fourth player in Chiefs history to record 100 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards in the same game. Holmes had 168 yards rushing and a career-high 109 yards receiving.

CHIEFS 26, Denver 23 (OT)

December 16, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,778

DENVER	 0	10	7	6	0	— 23
KANSAS CITY	 10	3	7	3	3	— 26

In a game of second and third chances, the Chiefs eventually prevailed in an epic AFC West clash vs. Denver that seemingly would never end. After his would-be game-winning overtime FG from 41 yards away hit the right upright, Chiefs K Todd Peterson did not boot away his second opportunity, connecting on the game-winning 32-yard FG to give Kansas City a 26-23 overtime victory.

For the second straight week, the Chiefs started fast by building a 10-0 first quarter lead, and for the second straight week that lead dissipated. This time the Chiefs made the big plays down the stretch to effectively dash the Broncos playoff hopes.

After Peterson started the scoring with a 51-yard FG, RB Priest Holmes (29-121) scored the Chiefs first touchdown, scooting into the end zone from 12 yards out for a 10-0 lead.

Trailing 10-0, Denver climbed back into the game behind QB Gus Frerotte to WR Rod Smith passes. On the Broncos first possession of the second quarter Frerotte, who was starting for an injured Brian Griese, found the NFL's leading receiver for gains of 15, 20 and 11 yards, with the final completion being a TD pass out to the right flat. Smith finished the game with eight catches for 100 yards.

Chiefs WR Derrick Alexander scored his third TD of the season when QB Trent Green found him on a 24-yard post pattern to put KC ahead 20-10. The Broncos answered with an 11-play, 84-yard drive concluding in a four-yard Frerotte TD scramble, but the Denver QB was knocked from the game on that play, forcing second-year pro Jarious Jackson into action. Jackson filled in to complete seven of 12 passes for 73 yards and lead Denver to the tying score at the end of regulation.

With the score deadlocked at 20-20, the Chiefs missed a 28-yard FG but forced a Denver fumble on the next play giving the Red and Gold another chance. Peterson, who finished the day making four of six FG attempts, gave the Chiefs a 23-20 lead with a 41-yard try, only to have Denver K Jason Elam tie the score with a 49-yard FG with 1:13 left.

The Kansas City defense turned in a critical overtime three-and-out series setting up the clinching drive. Green, who completed 17 of 21 passes for 292 yards, found rookie WR Marvin Minnis on a 56-yard strike to set up the 32-yard Peterson FG and the Chiefs victory.

GAME NOTES

- QB Trent Green completed 17 of 21 passes vs. Denver, tying the Chiefs single-game record with a 80.95 completion percentage.
- With 121 yards vs. Denver, RB Priest Holmes became the first Chiefs RB to post back-to-back games with 100 or more rushing yards since Barry Word in '91.

GAME 14

CHIEFS 20, San Diego 17

December 23, 2001 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,131

SAN DIEGO	7	0	7	3	—	17
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	10	—	20

With Arrowhead Stadium in the Christmas spirit, Kansas City showcased the ghosts of Chiefs past, present and future against the Chargers. First, the Chiefs grind-it-out win was reminiscent of the KC past, while big games from newcomers WR Marvin Minnis, RB Priest Holmes and QB Trent Green displayed the KC present. Finally, the 20-17 victory over San Diego and a two-game win streak over AFC West division opponents was hopefully a glimpse of Kansas City's future.

Despite below-freezing temperatures at kickoff, four Green-to-Minnis passes burned up the frozen turf at Arrowhead and aided a 16-play, 8:28 opening drive that culminated in three-yard TD pass from the Chiefs QB to TE Jason Dunn.

The Kansas City lead was short-lived as San Diego rookie RB LaDainian Tomlinson, who ended the game with a career-high 145 yards rushing, broke a 34-yard run to the Chiefs four-yard line, where QB Doug Flutie found TE Freddie Jones for a TD to tie the score 7-7 at the half.

The Chiefs got two FGs from K Todd Peterson, but San Diego kept pace with two scores of their own as a four-yard WR Curtis Conway TD catch and a 27-yard Steve Christie FG gave the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

Taking the ball on their own 35 with 4:51 left, Green engineered the game-winning drive for the second straight week. He went three for four on the final drive and used a 13-yard scramble for a first down to move the Chiefs deep into San Diego territory.

On the next play, a Green interception was nullified when S Rodney Harrison was flagged for roughing the passer, allowing Kansas City to retain possession and start first-and-goal from the nine-yard line. From there FB Tony Richardson capped the decisive drive with a one-yard dive across the goal line for a 20-17 lead with 0:48 remaining.

The Chiefs defense, led by CB Ray Crockett's eight tackles and three passes defended, held for the last minute and sent the Chiefs to their first two-game winning streak under the direction of head coach Dick Vermeil.

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs swept the Chargers for the first time since '97 and won their fifth consecutive game at Arrowhead vs. San Diego.
- With 80 rushing yards vs. San Diego (12/23) and 181 yards at San Diego (11/4), RB Priest Holmes had a combined 261 total rushing yards against the Chargers in 2001, marking the third-highest tally by a Chiefs RB against one team in a season.

- CHIEFS — Dunn, 3-yard pass from Green (Peterson kick) (16-80, 8:28).

CHIEFS 30, Jacksonville 26

December 30, 2001 • ALLTEL Stadium • 59,396

KANSAS CITY		7	10	10	3	—	30
JACKSONVILLE		7	10	0	9	—	26

The demons of an 11-game overall losing streak in the state of Florida were silenced when Kansas City won its third consecutive game by outlasting the Jaguars, 30-26 at ALLTEL Stadium. All-Pro TE Tony Gonzalez hauled in two TD catches and the Kansas City defense denied Jacksonville on three straight trips inside the 25-yard line within the final period to hang on for the win.

The Kansas City defense impacted the game from the outset, as DE Duane Clemons executed a perfect sack-and-strip of QB Mark Brunell on the game's second play. The Chiefs first of four sacks on the day set them up at the Jacksonville 14-yard line. KC cashed the turnover in with three straight handoffs to RB Priest Holmes. Holmes dashed around the left corner from six yards out to give the Red and Gold an early 7-0 lead.

After Jacksonville answered with two TDs, the Chiefs re-established the lead and the pace of the game as QB Trent Green used WR Eddie Kennison (6-121) to set up scoring opportunities and then found the reliable Gonzalez (8-78) twice near the goal line to finish drives.

The stage was set for a thrilling fourth quarter when Brunell found WR Keenan McCardell on a 20-yard touchdown pass to open the fourth quarter, tightening the KC lead to 27-24. Clinging to that three-point lead, the Red and Gold defense tightened the bolts on what had been an explosive Jaguars offense.

First, a S Jerome Woods interception at the KC 20-yard line set up a K Todd Peterson 29-yard field goal. Next, the Jaguars marched into the Chiefs Red Zone only to be turned away again, this time on downs. On fourth-and-nine from the KC 14-yard line Chiefs LB Marvuc Patton tackled JAX WR Jimmy Smith short of the first down marker to snuff out the drive.

A self-imposed safety by Chiefs P Dan Stryzinski made the score 30-26 and gave the Jaguars one last chance with under a minute remaining. On the strength of S Greg Wesley's team-leading 10 tackles and two passes broken up, the Chiefs defense forced three straight incompletions from the KC 13 and iced Kansas City's third road win of the year.

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs won their third consecutive game, with all three wins being decided by four points or less.
- TE Tony Gonzalez tied a career high with two TD catches at Jacksonville.
- WR Eddie Kennison caught six passes for a season-high 121 yards, his first 100-yard receiving day as a member of the Chiefs. It was his first 100-yard game since catching eight passes for 100 yards vs. New England (12/10/00) as a member of the Bears.

Seattle 21, CHIEFS 18

January 6, 2002 • Husky Stadium • 58,460

KANSAS CITY	0	0	10	8	—	18
SEATTLE	0	14	7	0	—	21

On a dark and rainy January day at Husky Stadium in Seattle, the Chiefs and Seahawks squared off in a game that was originally to be played in Week Two but was rescheduled due to the events of September 11th.

Although the Chiefs dropped their final AFC West match-up with Seattle, RB Priest Holmes racked up 117 yards on the ground, giving him 1,555 yards for the season and enough to edge the NYJ's Curtis Martin (1,513) for the NFL's rushing title. After spotting Seattle a 14-0 halftime lead, Kansas City battled to within three points, but fell just short, 21-18, and ended the season with a 6-10 record.

Both teams traded missed field goals before the Seattle offense struck with a pair of second quarter drives. First, QB Trent Dilfer found WR Darrell Jackson for a 12-yard TD pass and a 7-0 lead. Then just before the half, Seattle LB Isaiah Kacyvenski thwarted a Kansas City drive when he picked off a QB Trent Green pass at the Seattle six-yard line. Dilfer ended the half by again finding Jackson (6-71), this time with an 18-yard TD pass, staking the Seahawks to a 14-0 lead.

Shutout in the first half, the Kansas City defense and special teams took it upon themselves to get back into the game. Behind LBs Marcus Patton and Donnie Edwards who each had a team-high nine tackles, Seattle was held to a three-and-out series to start the second half. LB Glenn Cadrez blocked the ensuing P Jeff Feagles punt and S Jason Belser jumped on the loose ball at the Seattle one-yard line. Two plays later Green hit TE Mikhael Ricks for a TD, putting the Chiefs on the scoreboard to make the count 14-7.

A K Todd Peterson 27-yard FG cut the deficit to 14-10, but Seattle struck back when RB Shaun Alexander burst around the right end for 44-yard breakaway TD scamper. The second-year back finished with 127 yards on the ground and gave the Seahawks a 21-10 lead as the third quarter ended.

The Chiefs closed the gap by putting together a 12-play, 62-yard drive which culminated in a FB Tony Richardson one-yard TD dive with just 0:54 remaining. Down 21-18, Peterson's onside kick was Kansas City's last chance, but Seattle WR Bobby Engram snared the jump ball to clinch the Seahawks win.

GAME NOTES

- RB Priest Holmes won the NFL rushing crown with 1,555 yards, beating NYJ's Curtis Martin (1,513) by 42 yards.
- LB Glenn Cadrez blocked a punt in the third quarter which was recovered by S Jason Belser, marking the Chiefs second blocked punt of the season.
- CB Eric Warfield established a career high with his fourth INT of the season.

- SEAHAWKS — Jackson, 12-yard pass from Dilfer (Lindell kick) (7-71, 3:00).
- SEAHAWKS — Jackson, 18-yard pass from Dilfer (Lindell kick) (10-72, 2:08).

CHIEFS HISTORY

1959 — Lamar Hunt established and organized the American Football League with six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis (Buffalo and Boston were added and Oakland replaced Minneapolis). "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Boston's Billy Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL." An unknown assistant at Miami (Florida), Hank Stram, was hired by Hunt to coach the club.

1960 — For their inaugural season in the Cotton Bowl, the Texans had a strong home-state identity with quarterback Cotton Davidson (Baylor), fullback Jack Spikes (Texas Christian) and running back Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league in rushing with 875 yards and touchdowns with nine. The Texans had a flashy, high scoring club, and only three close losses kept them from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted E.J. Holub, described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers — Jerry Mays, Fred Arbanas and Jim Tyrer.

1962 — Stram brought in quarterback Len Dawson, who spent six uneventful years in the NFL, to quarterback the club. Another key addition was Kansas running back Curtis McCClinton. Haynes enjoyed his finest season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 touchdowns. The Texans clinched the Western Division championship in November and finished with an 11-3 record. AFL writers voted Dawson, who threw 29 touchdown passes, player of the year, and Stram coach of the year. Dallas won the AFL Championship on December 23 when Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory over the Houston Oilers.

1963 — On May 22, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City and renaming it the Chiefs. H. Roe Bartle, Kansas City's mayor nicknamed "Chief," promised to enlarge Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as the Texans had in Dallas. Rookie Stone Johnson suffered a fatal injury in a preseason game and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory over Denver, but managed just one win and two ties in its next nine games. Three highly-touted rookies, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde and Bobby Bell, became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team.

1964 — The Chiefs struggled to a 7-7 record as many of the team's best players, including E.J. Holub, Fred Arbanas and Johnny Robinson, missed several games with injuries. An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the Chiefs future in Kansas City.

1965 — The Chiefs made Kansas star Gale Sayers their first-round draft pick, but lost him in a bidding war with the Chicago Bears. The Chiefs were able to nab wide receiver Otis Taylor from Prairie View, while Mack Lee Hill, a virtually unknown free agent running back, muscled his way into the starting lineup. In a relatively routine knee surgery late in the season, Hill died on the operating table. The club finished with a 7-5-2 record with three losses by a field goal or less.

1966 — The Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett from USC, even though he was drafted by his hometown Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. A crowd of 43,885, the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City, turned out for the home opener against the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but, after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got kicker Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Garrett earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors, rushing for 801 yards with a lofty 5.5 yards-per-carry average. Dawson led the league in passing as the Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland for the Western Division title.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs dominated the Bills in Buffalo, 31-7, on New Year's day to win the franchise's second AFL crown and a place in the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. On January 15 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers. The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10. The Chiefs looked to the draft to strengthen their defense and found a pair of linebacking gems in Willie Lanier from Morgan State and Jim Lynch from Notre Dame. The club's special teams also got a boost with the addition of kicker Jan Stenerud and return man Noland (Super Gnat) Smith. On August 23, the Chiefs and Chicago Bears played a preseason game in the first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City. The Chiefs throttled the Bears, 66-24, at Municipal Stadium. Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. Later in the year, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of a sports complex. Injuries again hit the club hard in the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time as the Chiefs finished the year with a 12-2 record and a tie with the Raiders for the Western Division championship. Oakland easily defeated Kansas City, in the AFL Playoffs 41-6, to advance to the AFL Championship Game against the New York Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs opened the season with impressive wins over San Diego and Boston, but lost Dawson with a knee injury. The next week, backup Jack Lee went down with a broken ankle, leaving the team's most crucial position in the hands of two-year pro Mike Livingston, who engineered a seven-game win streak. Two months into the campaign, Dawson returned, helping the Chiefs to an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland, who was 12-1-1. In the first round of the playoffs, Kansas City rode its dominating defense en route to a 13-6 win over the Super Bowl champion New York Jets, while Oakland pounded Houston, 56-7.

1970 — On January 4, the Chiefs defeated the Raiders, 17-7, to capture the AFL crown. It was the final game in AFL history, as the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions. The biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs became World Champions by turning back the Minnesota Vikings, by a score of 23-7, in Super Bowl IV. The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League, and wore patches on their jerseys saying "AFL-10," which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The following season would see the AFL merge with the NFL. Oddsmakers established the Vikings as two-touchdown favorites, yet the Chiefs used three Stenerud field goals and a Garrett touchdown run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard touchdown pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory. Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite injuries to key players and the trade of Garrett to the Chargers, the Chiefs finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, but did not qualify for the playoffs.

1971 — Taylor led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,110 and Ed Podolak became the team's top rusher. The linebacking trio of Lanier, Bell and Lynch was the league's best. In the season's next-to-last game with the Raiders, a late field goal by Stenerud gave the Chiefs a 16-14 victory and a Western Division title. The team finished with a 10-3-1 mark, one-and-a-half games ahead of Oakland. Kansas City and Miami hooked up for one of pro football's most memorable games on Christmas Day in the first round of the playoffs. The Eastern Division champion Dolphins won a dramatic double-overtime thriller, 27-24, in the longest game in NFL history. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 yards on rushes, receptions and returns. It would be the last game played in Municipal Stadium.

1972 — Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29 in Canton, Ohio. All-Pro safety Johnny Robinson retired and Dawson ended speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. The Chiefs opened play in Arrowhead Stadium, one of the most magnificent facilities in pro sports. The largest crowd in Chiefs history, 82,094, watched the home team defeat the Raiders, 27-14, on November 5. The Chiefs got off to a 5-3 start, then lost three straight, and ended the year with an 8-6 record and out of playoff contention.

1973 — The defense remained solid but the offense struggled as Dawson was hurt for much of the season. Livingston led the club into first place in late November, but a pair of losses and a tie, gave the team its second straight second-place finish.

1974 — The Chiefs age was beginning to show. Several of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, Tyrer was 35, Bell, Buchanan and Budde were 34, Hill was 33, and Taylor was 32. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was Emmitt Thomas' league-leading 12 interceptions. Bell, an eight-time All-Pro, concluded his playing career.

1975 — Paul Wiggin, an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers, replaced Stram as the team's head coach and directed the Chiefs to four wins in his first five games. The high point of the season was a 34-31 upset of the Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football. Injuries crippled the team, leading to a second straight 5-9 finish. Dawson, the top passer in Chiefs history, announced his retirement after 14 memorable seasons with the franchise. After eight All-Pro seasons, Buchanan also finished his last year of play.

1976 — After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starting quarterback. Even though he played well, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record.

1977 — The Chiefs suffered their worst season ever, winning just twice. Tom Bettis replaced Wiggin at midseason as the team's head coach, but was able to win just once in seven tries. The heart and soul of the Chiefs defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, a pair of 11-year veterans, retired after the season's end.

1978 — Marv Levy, the former head coach of the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes, was named head coach. His first four draft picks were defensive players, including standout defensive end Art Still of Kentucky and linebacker Gary Spani of Kansas State. Levy installed the Wing-T as his offense. The Chiefs had the second-most productive ground game in the league and a record five different runners had 100-yard games, including Tony Reed, the team's first 1,000-yard back in 11 years. The team showed signs of improvement, and ended their first 16-game regular season with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — With the second overall pick in the draft, the team landed Colorado State defensive end Mike Bell, a pass rush specialist and perfect complement for Still. Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller was also chosen in the first round by the Chiefs, and by midseason, he had replaced Livingston. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs improved from a 1-3 start to finish 7-9.

1980 — In a then-controversial move, the Chiefs released Stenerud, the club's all-time leading scorer, in favor of journeyman Nick Lowery, who had been out 11 times by eight different teams himself. Despite injuries to key players, the Chiefs made steady improvement. The team came back from an 0-4 start to finish 8-8. The defense came of age with Still, Spani, safety Gary Barbaro and cornerback Gary Green playing major roles. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, little-known Bill Kenney took over and led the club to two victories in the final three weeks.

1981 — Kenney remained at quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers in Pittsburgh. The Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before dropping three straight games in December. A season-ending victory over the Vikings guaranteed the Chiefs their first winning record since 1973. Rookie running back Joe Delaney, a second-round pick from Northwest Louisiana rushed for a then club-record 1,121 yards.

1982 — The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before the players' strike began. The walkout would not be settled until mid-November, and the Chiefs dropped the first four games following the strike's end. Victories in two of the season's final three games left the club with a 3-6 record.

1983 — Tragedy struck the club on June 29, when Delaney, the team's young star running back, drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. A month later, linebacker Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. John Mackovic, in his first season as the club's head coach, had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney as the running game suffered. Kenney was coming of age, throwing for 4,348 yards, a Chiefs record and then the fourth-highest total in NFL history. His primary target was wide receiver Carlos Carson, who hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying offense, the final result was a 6-10 finish.

1984 — The Chiefs used their two first-round draft picks to bolster their lines, picking Pitt All-America nose tackle Bill Maas then Iowa's huge offensive tackle John Alt. Maas had an immediate impact and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Todd Blackledge, a first-round pick the previous season, opened the first six contests and had the club 3-3. Inconsistency marked the rest of the season which saw the team conclude the year with an 8-8 mark.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start, winning three of their first four games. One of the wins, a 28-7 drubbing of the Seattle Seahawks on September 29, saw free safety Deron Cherry tie an NFL record with four interceptions. That would be one of the few remaining bright spots in a 6-10 season.

1986 — Linebacker Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2. The pieces started coming together for Mackovic, who directed the club to a 7-3 record 10 weeks into the season. The club's defense and special teams were especially effective. Three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy, though. A 37-10 win over the Broncos at Arrowhead and the team's first-ever win at L.A. Memorial Coliseum, a 20-17 squeaker over the Raiders, put the 9-6 Chiefs in position to reach the playoffs. A December 21 date in Pittsburgh was all that stood in their way. Despite being outgained 515 yards to 171, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came from the special teams. That earned the club an AFC Wild Card berth, the club's first playoff appearance in 15 years. On December 28 at Giants Stadium, the Jets defeated the upstart Chiefs, 35-15.

1987 — Quarterback Len Dawson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8 in Canton, just a few miles from his hometown of Alliance, Ohio. Special teams coordinator Frank Gansz was promoted to head coach, and he quickly used the draft to solve the Chiefs running woes by selecting nimble Paul Palmer of Temple in the first round and powerful Enugu, Nigeria, native Christian Okoye from tiny Azusa Pacific in the second. Both rookies made a splash in the season-opening win over the Chargers as Palmer returned a kickoff for a touchdown and Okoye dashed for 105 yards. The Chiefs suffered a setback at Seattle the following week, just before another players' strike took place. NFL teams put together "replacement" squads, mostly consisting of players cut in training camp. The Chiefs version lost all three games, and by the time the strike was finished, the team stood 1-4. Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game skid. Kansas City won three of its last five for a 4-11 mark.

1988 — Defensive end Neil Smith of Nebraska became the team's first-round pick after the club traded its second-round choice to the Detroit Lions in order to move one place up in the first round. For the second straight season, the Chiefs were able to win just four times. Twelve-year veteran Steve DeBerg, acquired in an offseason trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, became the club's starting quarterback. On December 19, one day after the season's end, Carl Peterson took over as the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer.

1989 — Marty Schottenheimer, who directed the Cleveland Browns to two AFC Championship Game appearances, became the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24. With the fourth overall pick in the draft, the team selected Butkus Award winner Derrick Thomas, Alabama's All-America linebacker. The team started slow, winning three of its first eight games. DeBerg, Ron Jaworski, and Steve Pelluer each took turns as the team's starting quarterback. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs one-half game shy of a playoff berth. The 8-7-1 record was good for second place in the division. Okoye set a club record and became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — Defensive tackle Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4. The Chiefs got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six games, before tearing up the league in the home stretch, winning six of its last seven outings. The team's 11-5 record was the club's best since the 1969 Super Bowl season and advanced the team to the playoffs for just the second time since 1971. Free agent running back Barry Word topped the team with 1,015 yards, but the unquestioned leader on offense was DeBerg, who tossed 23 touchdown passes with just four interceptions. Kansas City led the NFL with 60 sacks, including 20 by Thomas, the NFL's sack king. An NFL-record seven of Thomas' sacks came on November 11 against Seattle, a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second touchdown by future Chief Dave Krieg. That loss would bring on the furious stretch run.

1991 — On January 5 at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami, the Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC First Round Playoff tilt. On July 27, Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs enjoyed another strong 10-6 regular season. The home portion of the schedule was highlighted by a pair of prime-time Monday night affairs. On October 7, the Chiefs toppled the defending AFC Champion Bills, 33-6, in the club's first home Monday night game in eight years. Three weeks later, the Chiefs tallied a thrilling come-from-behind win over the Raiders in front of a national audience. On December 28, the Chiefs played host to the Raiders in the first playoff game ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs posted their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 decision over the Raiders as Kansas City forced six Los Angeles turnovers.

1992 — On January 5, the Chiefs visited Buffalo for an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup. The Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs in a 37-14 setback that propelled Buffalo toward the Super Bowl. A melancholy summer awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 22, and Hall of Famer Buck Buchanan on July 16. Six-time Pro Bowl safety Deron Cherry, owner of 50 career interceptions, announced his retirement in July. The Chiefs battled through an injury-riddled season, during which a playoff berth never seemed certain. On the regular season's final Sunday, the Chiefs faced the Broncos in a game that would send the winner into the playoffs. The Chiefs defense tallied three touchdowns and "Plan B" signee Dave Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as the Chiefs buried the Broncos, 42-20. First-round draft pick Dale Carter of Tennessee earned the Bert Bell trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year.

1993 — On January 2 in San Diego, the Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as the Chargers posted a 17-0 victory. The Chiefs spent the off-season retooling their offense. On April 20, the Chiefs traded for quarterback Joe Montana, who directed the San Francisco 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. The Chiefs swapped their first-round pick in the '93 draft to the 49ers in exchange for Montana, safety David Whitmore and San Francisco's third-round pick in '94. Kansas City wasn't done loading up the offense. On June 9 the club signed unrestricted free agent running back Marcus Allen, a certain Hall of Famer and the MVP of Super Bowl XVIII. The additions paid off as the Chiefs went 11-5, won their first AFC West title since '71 and appeared in the AFC Championship Game.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the NFL's all-time leading passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a first-round playoff win over Pittsburgh on Jan. 8. The Chiefs trailed the Steelers, 17-10, entering the fourth quarter, and then, 24-17, as the two-minute warning sounded. On fourth-and-goal from the seven, Montana fired a game-tying TD pass to wide receiver Tim Barnett. In overtime, kicker Nick Lowery booted a 32-yard field goal as Arrowhead erupted. On Jan. 16, the Chiefs traveled to Houston, where the Oilers sat poised for their 12th straight win. The heavily-favored Oilers opened up a 13-7, fourth-quarter lead, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind. First, he hit wide receiver J.J. Birden for an 11-yard TD, then he found wide receiver Willie Davis open in the end zone from 18 yards out. Allen nailed the game shut with a 21-yard TD dash and the Chiefs found themselves on the favorable side of a 28-20 decision. The Chiefs playoff journey ended in Buffalo on Jan. 23 as the Bills won their fourth straight AFC title game by a score of 30-13. The Chiefs added cornerback Mark Collins and linebacker George Jamison through free agency and quarterback Steve Bono and safety William White through trades. Also new at Arrowhead in '94 was a grass playing surface, the first ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs started the year with three straight wins, but found themselves 8-7 with their playoff hopes in jeopardy. In the do-or-die season finale at the L.A. Coliseum, Allen had his finest game as a Chief, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. On New Year's Eve, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs, dropping a 27-17 decision at Miami.

1995 — Quarterback Joe Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL, including the last two with the Chiefs, on April 18. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs. The team responded by posting an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and in games played at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense scoring defense and turnover ratio, the three hallmarks of a solid football team. During the first six weeks of the season, the Chiefs were victorious in three overtime games. In an October 9 thriller on Monday Night Football, first-year wide receiver Tamarick Vanover returned a punt 86 yards for a touchdown in overtime to defeat the San Diego Chargers.

1996 — On a blustery, January 7 afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and wind chills at -9, the Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game to the Indianapolis Colts, 10-7, at Arrowhead Stadium. More Chiefs (seven) played in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl on February 4 than any other AFC team: fullback Kimble Anders, quarterback Steve Bono, cornerback Dale Carter, defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua, guard Will Shields, defensive end Neil Smith, and linebacker Derrick Thomas. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record and ended a six-year streak of playoff qualification. During the season, running back Marcus Allen set three NFL records: most career rushing touchdowns, most games played by a running back and most pass receptions by a running back.

1997 — After missing the playoffs in '96 for the first time since '89, Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97. The Chiefs line-up featured 11 new starters, headlined by free agent signees QB Elvis Grbac, WR Andre Rison and TE Ted Popson on offense. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft — S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards — emerged as starters, as well. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record and their second AFC West title in the past three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came on September 8 at Oakland when Grbac collaborated with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with seconds remaining to provide the Chiefs with a 28-27 win over the Raiders. After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune finally appeared to run out on November 3 vs. Pittsburgh when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, back-up QB Rich Gannon would come on to preserve a win in that contest and lead the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings. K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG to give Kansas City a 24-22 win over Denver on November 16. Grbac returned to the starting line-up for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans as the squad finished the regular season with an 8-0 tally at Arrowhead Stadium.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off for the third time when 12-4 Denver visited 13-3 Kansas City for an AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 4. Despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foes. Six players represented Kansas City at the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, including CB James Hasty and WR Andre Rison who made their first appearances as members of the Chiefs. On April 9, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career, which included five stellar seasons in Kansas City. A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory over the Oakland Raiders. Starting quarterback Elvis Grbac was lost for a considerable amount of the season due to a shoulder on the final play of the game's first half, while All-Pro left guard Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear in the second stanza of that same contest. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injury as the Chiefs went 7-9 to miss the playoffs for just the second time during the '90s, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons. The club was also hampered by crucial penalties, as the team set dubious NFL records for penalties (158), penalty yardage (1,304) and first downs allowed by penalty (58).

1999 — On January 11, head coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons of distinguished service with the club. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles, qualified for the playoffs seven times and made the team's first-ever appearance in the AFC Championship Game in '93. Schottenheimer posted a 54-26 record (.675) against his AFC West opponents, including a 18-3 mark (.857) against the Raiders. A veteran of 17 NFL seasons as an assistant coach, Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Over those four years, the Chiefs won two AFC West titles and posted a 23-9 (.719) record against the rest of the division. The club responded their new leader's high-energy style as Cunningham produced a 9-7 record in his initial season at the club's helm, the best record of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in the NFL in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver on December 5. Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the '90s with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Perhaps two biggest factors in the Chiefs' success during the decade were the takeaway/giveaway column and the running game. Under Cunningham, the team firmly regained their grips on both categories in '99. Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio in '99 and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. Cunningham's "maul ball" running philosophy proved fruitful as the Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing with 130.1 yards per game. After a three-game mid-season losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string and needed a win in one of its last two contests to secure a postseason berth. A 23-14 loss at Seattle on December 26 would set up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

2000 — A win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead in the regular season finale on January 2 of the new century would seal the AFC West title for the Chiefs, while a loss would put the club out of the playoffs. Kansas City leaped out to a 17-0 lead vs. the Raiders, but a blocked punt would turn the momentum in one of the wildest contests in the storied Chiefs-Raiders series. The game was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in overtime, providing an ominous start to a year which would turn tragic for the team on January 23. Nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11 was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15 at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19 Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in his hometown of Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas would be honored prior to the club's season opener at Arrowhead on September 3, but the Chiefs would fall 27-14 to the Indianapolis Colts. Kansas City would lose a 17-14 OT decision the following week at Tennessee, but would then bounce back win five of their next six contests to sit 5-3 at the season's midway point. On October 2, the Chiefs faced Seattle in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams on October 22, a contest which marked the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span would take its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

2001 — Following the club's disappointing finish, head coach Gunther Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5. In two years at the helm of the club, Cunningham finished with a 16-16 record. On January 12, Dick Vermeil was named the ninth head coach in franchise history. Just one of four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the Super Bowl, Vermeil guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season in his most recent head coaching endeavor. In Kansas City, Vermeil was reunited with Chiefs President Carl Peterson, whose association dated back 27 years to UCLA. After originally attempting to hire Vermeil upon his arrival in Kansas City in '89, Peterson pulled off the feat and provided the franchise with a renewed sense of optimism. On April 20, just a day prior to the NFL draft, Peterson helped reshape the club's offensive personnel, acquiring QB Trent Green and a fifth-round pick from St. Louis in exchange for Kansas City's first-round selection. The same day, the club also agreed to a five-year contract with unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes. The regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington on September 30 when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the Redskins by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of their final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, breaking six team records in a sensational debut season with the Red and Gold. He became just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,555 yards, breaking Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480 set in '89. The club finished in the top 10 in the NFL in rushing, passing and total offense for just the second time since the AFL-NFL merger.

FAN-TASTIC

- The Chiefs have sold out 92 straight games dating back to '91, including four playoff contests.
- Kansas City ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in home attendance in 2001, with an average paid attendance of 77,186 fans per game during the regular season.
- The only teams to post a higher attendance figure than the Chiefs last season each had a larger stadium than Arrowhead Stadium.
- A total of 1,120,677 fans saw Kansas City play at home and on the road during the regular season in 2001, marking the twelfth consecutive year that the Chiefs have broken the one-million mark in total regular season attendance.
- A remarkable 97.0% of Chiefs season ticket holders renewed their tickets for the 2001 season.
- The Chiefs increased the season-ticket sales cut off to 73,000 in 2001, giving the team its largest season-ticket base in over 20 years.
- The Chiefs season ticket base is comprised of individual accounts from 44 states, plus the District of Columbia.
- Kansas City has drawn over 560,000 fans for twelve straight seasons and have attracted over 600,000 each of the past three years.
- The Chiefs have paced the NFL in total paid attendance during six of the last eight seasons, averaging 616,006 fans over that period.
- Kansas City's paid home attendance of 617,488 in 2001 was the fourth highest total in franchise history.
- The Chiefs (77,039) are the only team in the NFL to average over 76,000 fans per game in each of the last seven seasons, drawing 4,314,181 fans over that span.
- The Chiefs recorded a total paid attendance of 1,388,111 fans for Kansas City's 20 games in 2001 (four preseason and 16 regular season).

HOMES OF THE CHIEFS

ARROWHEAD STADIUM 1972-PRESENT

Arrowhead Stadium, present home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is one of the finest facilities in the NFL. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 17,169,066 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

COTTON BOWL 1960-1962

Location: Texas State Fairgrounds
Dallas, Texas

Preseason Record: 1-0-0 (1.000)

Capacity: 75,504 (1962 - Final Season)

Construction Data: Opened - 1923
Upper Deck Added - 1948-49

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys and the facility still serves as the home of Southern Methodist University, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Today, the facility remains one of the finest sports stadiums in the world. Everything is still in top shape as the Truman Sports Complex prepares to celebrate its 31st distinguished season of service in 2002. Other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, but thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Chiefs staff led by Jack Steadman who helped develop the complex, and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has indeed, stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in 1972, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late 1960s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in 1967, which included plans for a revolutionary concept - the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the 1972 season.

In 1984, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

A decade later, in 1994, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which have been made under the direction of Chiefs President, General Manager, and CEO Carl Peterson. From 1994-96 other multi-million dollar projects have modernized and expanded the Arrowhead Club, the Chiefs team and office facilities, as well as the stadium's concession areas. In 1998 the club installed a pair of 23' x 42' Mitsubishi ArrowVision video screens in both end zones, and this year the Chiefs once again expanded their administrative offices at Arrowhead. In 1999 all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it (92 consecutive sellouts) have helped produce a distinct homefield advantage for the Chiefs. During the '90s, no NFL team had a better regular season home winning percentage than Kansas City, which produced a 65-15 (.813) record over from 1990-99. Over 30 years after the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's unique two stadium setup, other metropolitan areas are, only now, in the process of attempting to construct similar facilities.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During Arrowhead's 30th Anniversary season in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two-stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt pointed out that Kansas City's franchise and its fans have now enjoyed America's top football facility for over 30 years and wished to extend on behalf of the entire the Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... CHIEFS!

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)
December 23, 1962
Jeppesen Stadium (37,981)

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and 1961 over the Los Angeles; then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards; Spikes, the game's most valuable player, then ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7
January 1, 1967
War Memorial Stadium (42,080)

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff, Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10
January 15, 1967
Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7 before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead. The Packers would add two more scores en route to a 35-10 win.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7
January 4, 1970
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,544)

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own two-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays later.

At this point the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plague both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas' steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

January 11, 1970

Tulane Stadium (80,562)

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains in Super Bowl annals as the second-longest field goal in the game's history. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for the touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13
January 23, 1994
Rich Stadium (76,642)

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to win the game, and the 229 rushing yards the Bills put up was all the explanation needed in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback. The Chiefs were playing in their first-ever AFC title game, while the Bills were making it four straight.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, RB Thurman Thomas would start to get on track. His easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead, but a pair of field goals by K Nick Lowery, cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close. The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and two Steve Christie field goals. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by QB Joe Montana slipped through the hands of RB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills led 20-6 at the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 rushing yards.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays in, Montana suffered a concussion and was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon. With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead down to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. Buffalo answered with an 18-yard TD run by, who else, Thurman Thomas.

The Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), but allowed Thomas to gain 186 of the team's 229 rushing yards. Before exiting, Montana was nine-of-23 for 125 yards and one INT, while QB Dave Krieg was 16-of-29 for 125 yards and one INT. TE Keith Cash was again the team's receiving leader with six catches for 87 yards. DE Neil Smith and S Kevin Ross each contributed 11 tackles.

RUSHING TITLE WINNERS

Three different Chiefs running backs have won league rushing titles during the illustrious history of the franchise. Abner Haynes paced the American Football League in rushing during the inaugural season of both the league and the team in '60.

He rushed 156 times for a league-high 875 yards (5.6 avg.) with nine touchdowns during his rookie campaign with the Dallas Texans. In '89, Christian Okoye led the National Football League in rushing, establishing a then-Chiefs single-season record with 1,480 yards on a club-record 370 carries with 12 touchdowns. Okoye's record stood the test of time until Priest Holmes burst on the Kansas City scene in 2001.

Holmes took 327 handoffs for an NFL-best 1,555 yards (4.8 avg.) with eight touchdowns, becoming the third Kansas City running back and the first undrafted player since '54 to lead the league in rushing. Holmes paced the NFL with 2,169 yards from scrimmage and seven 100-yard rushing games. He also established Chiefs single-season records for most carries of 10+ yards (52), combined net yards (2,169), yards from scrimmage (2,169), combined attempts (389) and receiving yards by a running back (614).

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

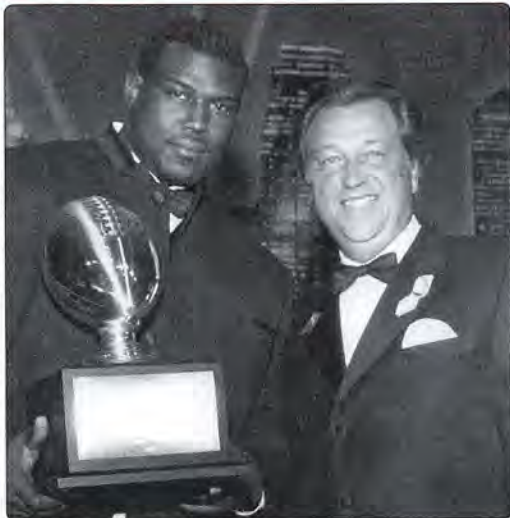

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

The winner of the 2001 Mack Lee Hill Award was defensive tackle Eric Downing. At 6-3, 314 pounds, Downing was unquestionably the most sizable of Kansas City's draft choices this past year. A third-round selection out of Syracuse, Downing was actually the club's top overall draft pick. Much fanfare surrounded the arrival of head coach Dick Vermeil in Kansas City and a host of offensive newcomers. Downing, meanwhile, came to the Chiefs with relatively little hoopla.

This soft-spoken North Carolina native simply went about his business and waited for his opportunity to arise. That opportunity presented itself sooner than anyone imagined when incumbent starter John Browning suffered a season-ending knee injury. Just two weeks later, Downing found himself in Kansas City's starting lineup for the season's final nine games, the most by a Chiefs rookie defensive tackle since '84. The robust young lineman finished the year with 36 tackles, 1.5 sacks, three QB pressures, a forced fumble and batted down a pair of passes. Not bad for a player who was projected to spend most of the season simply learning the NFL ropes.

The former Syracuse standout continued to elevate his game as the year progressed, gaining more experience and confidence in the process. His efforts culminated when he registered a season-high six tackles in the regular season finale at Seattle. Despite his sudden rise to prominence on the Chiefs defense, Downing maintained his quiet way and gave Kansas City hope for even better things to come from this talented defensive tackle in the future. No doubt, the late Mack Lee Hill would have enjoyed seeing Downing with the same passion for the game and "quiet way" Hill displayed over 30 years ago.

Running back Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for yardage against the Raiders during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

Chiefs President Carl Peterson presented DT Eric Downing with the Mack Lee Hill Award at the annual 101 Banquet. The third-round draftee started nine games, the most by a Chiefs rookie defensive tackle since '84.

DERRICK THOMAS AWARD

Chiefs Head Coach Dick Vermeil presented RB Priest Holmes with the 2001 Derrick Thomas Award. Holmes won the NFL rushing crown, established a franchise record with 1,555 rushing yards and earned his initial Pro Bowl berth in 2001.

standard of 1,480 yards, making he and Okoye the only two players in Chiefs history to lead the NFL in ground yards in a single season. Holmes also shattered Abner Haynes' record of 1,622 total yards from scrimmage, a mark which had stood since the franchise's initial season in '60. His 52 runs of 10 or more yards not only led the entire league, but also obliterated Kansas City's previous record of 29.

A true multi-purpose threat, Holmes became just the third player in Chiefs history to record 100 yards rushing and 100 yards receiving in a single game. He registered 614 receiving yards, bypassing Curtis McClinton's RB record of 590 yards in '65, while his 62 catches were the fourth-highest total ever by a Kansas City running back. In total, Holmes racked up 2,169 combined net yards on the season, which was also a franchise single-season record.

And to think, all of this from a player who went undrafted out of college and wasn't resigned by the Baltimore Ravens a year ago. The prayers of the Kansas City football faithful were truly answered when this supremely talented and genuinely humble Texan came to town in 2001. Though his Sunday vestments may be of the less-than-traditional Red and Gold variety, Priest Holmes may go down as one of the best free agent acquisitions in recent memory, regardless of denomination. With a breakout season under his belt, Holmes will hopefully continue to rack up opulent numbers in 2002 and become the centerpiece of an explosive Kansas City offense with plenty of big play punch.

During his 11 years in a Chiefs uniform, Derrick Thomas was one of the most brilliant performers and brightest personalities ever to wear a Chiefs uniform. Unquestionably, Derrick Thomas' legacy will live on in Kansas City and across the National Football League.

For the past 23 years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and sole of the Kansas City defense from 1989-99 and will always be regarded as one of the best linebackers to play the game.

After being named Kansas City's MVP for 2001, running back Priest Holmes can add another piece of hardware to his already crowded mantle. With a spectacular debut season for the Chiefs in 2001, Holmes quickly established himself as one of the biggest impact players acquired by the club in recent memory and firmly etched his name into Kansas City's record book.

In fact, after his sensational 2001 season, Holmes left only one question unanswered. What will he do for an encore? This fifth-year pro quickly ushered his way into the hearts of the Arrowhead congregation by winning the NFL's rushing crown with 1,555 yards to become the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher since '91. In the process, this gridiron cleric also earned his initial Pro Bowl berth and led the league with 2,169 total yards from scrimmage. In addition, he broke six different Chiefs single-season records, including Christian Okoye's single-season rushing

H. Roe Bartle
Circa 1948

"THE CHIEF"

By all accounts, H. Roe Bartle was a man of prodigious proportions. Everything about him was unrestrained - his booming voice, his adherence to the Boy Scout code of conduct and the enthusiasm with which he served a two-term mayor of Kansas City, Missouri from '56-63. During the 40th Anniversary Season of the Chiefs in Kansas City, a hearty "thank you" to Mayor Bartle is in order for his instrumental efforts in bringing the Chiefs franchise to Mid-America in '63.

Harold Roe Bennett Sturdevant acquired the nickname "Chief" during his longtime association with the Boy Scouts, a moniker proudly bestowed upon the city's newly-acquired AFL franchise in '63. After leaving public office later in '63, Bartle continued to promote Kansas City and the importance of youth leadership. Poor health eventually caught up with the mayor who passed away in the spring of '74, but his countless contributions to his beloved Kansas City will long be remembered and appreciated, particularly by the Hunt family and the Chiefs organization.
